RENEWAL OF HOPE GIVES CONSOLATION No doubt there are many poor hearts disappointed at Christmas Eve when they have traded all the year with their favorite merchant, and when Xmee comes the merchant shows his appreciation by chucking over the counter a paper of pips or a pair of five cent stockings, or some other ridiculous present. No doubt the customer consoles himself with saying, "Never mind, I will trade with some one else next year." Merchants have given this matter much earnest study, and so far have given considerable dissatisfaction because Mr. B. gets a very nice present, and Mr. C , who lives next door, gets some worthless article, I wish to say to all who have been disappointed that now is the time to tura over a new leaf, as everybody says they will do at the beginning of a new year.
