For the farmers red letter-Pine, potatoes, pumpkins, provender and—pash!

Chewing tobacco is declared by several to contain the bacillus tuberculosis, or consumption germ, in vast quantities.

The State and Most Fight for the re-election of the Republican State Committee resulted in the election of Hayes.

The Southern Lumber Manufacturers' Association have advised the price of yellow pine timber for the month of March.

These thousands families in Mississippi have been made homeless by the recent floods and there is a great deal of suffering among them.

A MOBER was found impaled on a letter box in a local merchant's office one day last week. Mober never read letters that are addressed to another person.

CONGRESSMAN BURN will deliver the memorial address in Raleigh on May 10th, his subject being the life and military services of Gen.
Wm. Maclain.

The election of a Democratic President is very important, but, to us, it is much more important that North Carolina continue to be a Democratic State.

A GREAT lecturer was put here to combat when the local paper announced his subject as "Christianity an unchristianizing force." His theme was all gone.

The third party's platform measures amendment. It ought by all means to outlaw this kind of weather, and sterner prohibitions against cyclones, frosts and incendiary fire.

When Cleveland discovered him, Dan Lambert was making about $15 a week as a newspaper reporter, and now he is making $10,000 a year. There is no telling the possibilities of a newspaper reporter.

THE THIRD PARTY.
An Atlanta, Ga., special of April 19th, says: "President L. L. Polk, of the National Alliance, who arrived here to-day was asked: "Did you come to depose Livingston as president of the Georgia alliance?"

Col. Polk said: "No, sir, I came on no such mission. If such power was to be exercised and proper evidence made, I could have acted as well at home in North Carolina as here. I am here to look after business that affects the material interests of the Alliance in Georgia.
Further than that I cannot say."

What is the outlook of the third party in North Carolina was asked.
"As bright as we could desire—infact, the same of the people is growing everywhere and our adherents number as good Democrats as will remain in the Democratic party."

Here is a revelation. Col. Polk's idea of Democracy is all his own.
He stands alone in the assertion that "the third party will remain as good Democrats as will remain in the Democratic party."

We presume that the gallant colonel would say that Lether after he left the Catholic Church was as good a Catholic as any one who remained in it, and that Arnold was as genuine an American patriot after he tempted to deliver West Point into the hands of the British as he was before, but who will agree with President Polk?

The Democratic party is a party of principles, every one of which is antagonized by the St. Louis platform. That platform is the very essence of Federalism. It is more; it is consolidation run mad; the furthest possible remove from Democracy.

The Colonel's remarkable deliverance, may be cunningly devised to make men easy in their sins, who having knelt at the Democratic Baptismal font have turned from their devotion to bow down to stocks and stones—gods that having eyes see not, and having ears hear not. But the treacherous North Carolina will not listen to the voice of the siren.

We have used the word "sins" advisedly for it would be a monstrous sin to turn over the State of North Carolina to the Republicans bound hand and foot.

No body denies the right of freemen to enter into any sort of a political organization and give their party what name they please.

Once upon a time, a marauding party called themselves, "The Angel Band," but no body was deceived by it.

Let there be no mistake. He who enters the folds of the Third party crosses the Babylon and sets up his banners against the Democracy. Black is not white, and cannot be made so by the declaration of any man.

DURHAM Good Friday services in a church of a Spanish town, while the priest is kneeling at the altar a man leaps from behind the pulpit and decapitates him with a sword and then with sword and pistol forces his way through the crowd in the church, killing one woman.

ONE of the strongest announcements of the day is to the effect that a slave, the Monserat, is fitting out at San Francisco for "the cargo of islanders." The Monserat will take the place of the vessel which was lost last September with four hundred slaves on board.

QUAYS VICTORY.

We are no lover of some of the methods of Senator Quay, but we cannot repress our admiration of many of his qualities.

He is no hypocrite. He is a bold fighter and carries his principles on his flag.

A fight is going on in Pennsylvania for the seat in the United States Senate now occupied by Mr.
Quay. His opponent is Mr. Dalzell, who is backed by the Administration at Washington.

The result of the Republican delegate elections throughout Pennsylvania during the last two weeks leaves no doubt that Senator Quay is the choice of his party for re-election by an overwhelming majority of suffrages. Unless a political revolution should throw Democratic majority into the next Pennsylvania Legislature it will choose Senator Quay to succeed himself for an other term of six years by a decisive majority.

It is asked what comfort do we find in this? Why, very great comfort. Senator Quay opposed the Force bill and contributed largely to its defeat. Throughout the contest Senator Quay has been bitterly denounced for his refusal to support the Force bill. At the same time Mr. Dalzell has been represented as a champion of a new Force bill should be elected to the United States Senate. There can be no doubt that Harrison favors a Force bill. He did all in his power to have the bill passed by the Billions Congress and should the country be so unfortunate as to witness his re-election, we may expect to see the measure brought forward again. It is therefore contingent it will be a genuine pleasure to see Quay a thorn in his side piercing to his very vitals.

Of course we hope for the election of a Democrat, but if that boom is denied us, we shall rejoice in the triumph of Quay over Dalzell.

It is matter of genuine pleasure to know that the Republican party of the great State of Pennsylvania takes its stand in opposition to the Force bill.

When Cleveland discovered
reporter, and now he is making $10,000 a year. There is no telling
