

SOME of the papers will have Mary Anasias Butler.

CARDINAL GIBBONS has been invited to deliver the closing prayer at the opening exercises of the World's Fair.

THE sugar bounty paid this year amounted to something over $5,500,000. It will take $9,000,000 to foot the bill next year.

SOME few men are perpetual renegades—they join every party which starts and prove traitors to every one.—Goldsboro Argus.

THE Democratic candidate for Governor of Indiana is an Alliance man. He ran two years ago for State Treasurer and was elected by 20,000 majority.

THE news of the Democratic campaign in the doubtful states of the north is extremely encouraging. It only remains for the south to hold herself solid, and victory is ours.

EVERYWHERE there are indications of coming victory for the Democracy. The overwhelming victories in Florida and Georgia have greatly discouraged the Third party.

ANOTHER one of old practices of Southern Republicans which the Third party in the South has adopted, is that of appealing to the National Republican Committee for money.—Alexandria Gazette.

If you were present at the speaking here Saturday you could not fail to observe how tickled the white radicals and negroes were at everything Dr. Thompson said against the Democratic party. In fact the Republicans and negroes were Thompson's chief applauders. To show their inconsistency such radicals as Louis Parrott and Adam Bright applauded the mention of Weaver's name, when they have no more idea of voting for Weaver than of dying.—Kinston Free Press.

THE total vote for President in 1854 was 10,048,461. In 1858 it was 11,388,033. This year the ratio of increase will be greater on account of the addition of six new States, and the vote of these added to the normal growth in population in ten years will give a total of, probably, 14,000,000.

THE charges we brought against Turn-coat Butler about his receiving a check of $500 from the national Republican executive committee can be amply sustained by most excellent authority. Two weeks ago when "Marian" was at Concord another check for the same amount was received by him, which Col. Tipton, of Shelby, dares him to deny. Ain't he a nice one to follow!—Goldsboro Headlight.

FRUIT eating is a great restorative of the system; peaches, plums and apples, especially the latter are good for brainworkers and those of sedentary occupations. The fruits must be eaten in their natural state, without milk, sugar or cream; it too acid a piece of bread will correct that. The only thing to observe is that they are ripe and fresh. Nothing will improve the complexion so much as eating good, sound fruit. Don't eat them at night-time, that is the only thing to avoid.

THOSE Southern men heretofore Democrats, who are suffering from grievances, real or imaginary, which they deem intolerable, should remember that never since 1860 has the Democratic party been in power, and that, therefore, all it has been able to do has been to protect the South from Radical hate and venom. This it has effectually done, since but for its efforts, carpet-bag and negro rule would long since have been restored in the South and maintained by Federal bayonets, and today instead of the wonderful progress she has made, she would be absolutely destitute and impoverished and as prone in the dust before her enemies as in the dark days of reconstruction, when the Legislatures of the Southern States were controlled by Federal soldiers.—Goldsboro Headlight.

THE Weaverites talk about Weaver's being elected. As a matter of fact, if every State in which he has a ticket were to vote for him solid, he would not get enough presidential electors to elect him. He has tickets in only a few States. At least that is our impression. He has no more chance of being elected than Dr. Exam has in North Carolina. His followers in North Carolina are merely playing into the hands of Harrison, and the belief is that the leaders expect to be well paid for it. Republican crisp two dollar bills account for their trying to defeat Cleveland and elect Harrison.—News and Observer.

SEVERAL CORRESPONDENCE. Incident of the Trip Discussion at Arapahoe—Pamlico, O. K.—Just Enough Third Party to Keep Things Lively.

October 6th, 1892. Editor JOURNAL.—We arrived here last evening, and we were again cordially received and hospitably entertained. Tuesday we had a delightful day. The road leading from Grantsboro to Arapahoe is said to be the oldest in the State and there are many memories and traditions associated with it all of which are interesting. Arrived at Arapahoe we stopped at the residence of Mr. Robert Harrison. The first thing we saw on entering the house was a picture of our friend and townsman, Mr. Thomas Bowen. This elicited an inquiry that brought out the fact that Mrs. Harrison is a sister of the Bowen brothers. Here, too, we met Miss Fannie Willis, daughter of the much beloved pastor of the Centenary Methodist church of our city. Miss Willis has an excellent school at Arapahoe, and her praise is on the lips of all the people, verily she is a much prized one.

The speaking appointment was at 11 o'clock, but the people of the neighborhood had arranged to have it come off at night and have the Third party represented. Mr. J. B. Martin was to champion their cause. Well, the whole neighborhood turned out. The academy overhauled with people and the surrounding woods were full of them. Caho says I deserted him, but in truth I only stood a little off to see the fight. We had just come from Stonewall where we had heard of the great bear fight and I naturally wanted to see the fight. I saw it, I saw it, I saw it. Caho says I only shelled the woods and made the enemy fighting mad and then left him to bear the brunt of the battle. The forces were about equally divided and at eight o'clock the engagement began. Caho made the attack. Then Martin replied with spirit, Caho came again and Martin struck back like a dying gamecock. It was past twelve o'clock when the last shot was fired. I looked at Caho and saw that he had been snatched bald headed, and Martin looked as if he had been put through a thrashing machine. Of course both sides claimed a victory. Caho says the ladies said he got the best of Martin.

Martin alluded to the JOURNAL in a pleasant way, and some fellow said "the JOURNAL" I at once inquired his name, and on consulting my memoranda I found that he is considerably indebted to the JOURNAL, it having trusted him, presuming that he was an honorable man. Martin, clever fellow as he is, paid a years subscription in advance.

We had lots of fun at Arapahoe, and left the Democrats in high feather. Pamlico is O. K. Just enough Third party to keep things lively.

THE Democratic county convention will meet at Hayboro Saturday night, we will then learn who will have the chance of beating Harper & Co. Harper, like Weaver is a Universalist, but will not have to go to Georgia to be satisfied there is a "hell." He will find out that Pamlico county does not want a man to represent her in the Legislature who is opposed to the present system of county Government. The Republican primary, at this precinct will come off Friday night, and it has "leaked out," that some of the leaders will attempt to "pack" the delegation. Don't know whether they will bring out a county ticket or not, and it makes very little difference. Our "feather little" Democrats are all right, and don't you forget it.

PAMLICO COLORED VOTERS. Editor JOURNAL.—If you will let a colored man write something for your paper, please put this in it, from me. I just want to say that if the Democrats of Pamlico county want to get the colored people to help them elect their ticket this year, if they will put up Mr. Campen for sheriff, Mr. Perkins for register of deeds, and Mr. W. T. Caho for the Legislature. We colored people will help them elect them. We colored voters have tried all of them and they can't trust them, but we can't trust this Third party ticket. We can't trust men that the Democrats can't trust.

We must have a straight out Republican ticket, or if we have got to vote for Democrats, then give us good Democrats that we have tried and the colored people of Pamlico will help you elect them. We don't want any Prohibitionists, or men that don't believe in God, to make laws for us to live under, but men like Perkins, Campen and Caho we can trust, and will trust before we will the Third partyites.

SWANBORO CORRESPONDENCE. Deaths—Formation of a Cleveland and Central Democratic Speaking.

The most interesting news a political news. This county is full of it. The county candidates have gone around the county and gave one another a piece of their minds, we saw no fighting, but it really looked like they were fighting mad some times, it was the Democrats and Third partyites this time. The Republic stood off and viewed the landscape over, but concluded not to interfere with either side in the voting business. If they don't help the Third party, we hardly think there will be any Third party after the election.

The Democrats say they will carry the county by 500 votes majority, and the other side say they will carry it by 400. Somebody don't see straight sure, and I think it is the poor bird candidates of the Third party that can't see straight.

We are going to have Governor Cleveland for our next President. I am sure will be the next Governor, that is a foregone conclusion, a fact beyond a doubt, and in our county, if S. W. Venters Esq., don't beat Hon. E. L. Frank 100 or more, we shall be very much disappointed.

Capt. James Laughlin and G. W. Ward of Swansboro, Republican and Democrat, have formed to each other a consideration on the general result of the Presidential election, to walk off Cleveland is elected, Laughlin, Republican is to roll a wheelbarrow full of sand from the corner of the bank store in Swansboro to Newbern, N. C., along the main road, carrying a Cleveland banner, and with a Cleveland flag attached to a ten-foot pole, fastened to the wheelbarrow, the terminus to be at the Albert Hotel on Middle street, a band of music to be on hand and to meet the wheelbarrow man at Thos. E. McArthur's corner and blow him down the street to end of route, but on the contrary, if Harrison is elected then, vice versa, and Mr. Ward takes the stand and etc, roll the barrow, wears the Harrison hat with Harrison flag, and etc. This is to be done as soon as the result is known who is elected President.

Several deaths lately in our county, among them are some of our oldest citizens. Messrs. Thos. L. Littleton, of Swansboro and Stephen Winbury near there, died last week on Thursday and the other on Friday, they were two of the oldest citizens to the county. Mr. L. was 84 years, and Mr. W. 86 years. Dr. Geo. Hollis, a prominent physician of Carteret county died on Monday before. W. J. Montfort lost one of his children and Mr. James Reed of Queen Creek lost one of his children, and we hear of several other deaths and lots of sickness.

A Cleveland and Carr Democratic Club, was organized last Saturday in Swansboro by T. E. Gilman, Esq., called the Swansboro C. & C. Club, with 20 members. J. A. Pittman, President; R. L. Pittman, secretary; Clyde Pittman, treasurer. Five vice-presidents were elected, time for meeting, every Saturday evening.

T. E. Gilman made an excellent speech to the club after organizing. A large crowd of ladies were in attendance.

Mr. Ed. Lee Hon. B. F. Grady is billed to speak 4 times in Onslow and all four in the upper end of the county. We folks down here want to hear some good speeches too, tell Mr. Clem Simmons to send us another good speaker, if no more we have had only one, Aycock. Send him again. Yours for Democratic success.

PAMLICO CORRESPONDENCE. The Debate Between Battle and Caho—Democrats, and Mr. J. B. Martin.

Editor JOURNAL.—It was the pleasure of the writer to be at Arapahoe in this county on Tuesday night the 14th inst. and to listen to the speeches made there by Gen. Battle and Hon. W. T. Caho on that occasion. The school house in which they spoke was crowded. I judged that there was from 200 to 250 people, men, women and children present. The speeches of both Gen. Battle and Mr. Caho were able utterances of the Democratic canvass and were ably delivered. Both of these gentlemen are staunch and able democrats and fine debaters, and the speeches they made were as fine as any I have heard in this campaign and that is the verdict of all that heard them, except of course the gang of deserters and low old mossy back radicals who were out and heard them, and we couldn't expect them to agree with us after the skinning that their leader and champion got, Mr. John L. Martin, the ex Representative of this county in the legislature and boss of these Third partyites. And there are a few of the things around here, they had seven out at their primary meeting a week or so ago.

Well, Mr. Editor this same John B. Martin came out and exposed his ignorance as usual, by having a joint discussion, well, we all knew he didn't have much sense but we did think that he did have enough sense to play shut mouth when intelligent folks were talking, but he didn't, and he had to put in his bit and he got a good dogging for his trouble, and I was glad of it as were all other good democrats.

Gen. Battle spoke one hour, then Mr. Caho spoke one hour, then John B. Martin, he did something for about an hour it couldn't be called a speech or a talk so I will call it "an harangue." Yes, he was there with his pocket full of papers, I guess they were parts of the Progressve Farmer as that paper has taken the place of the bible with most of those fellows and he had all of his own month gang that he could get to come out and when John would say any thing they would yell and when he didn't say anything they would yell, they all yelled all the time, except one Zack Pail and he ganged for them.

When Gen. Battle spoke of the force bill, Zack groaned and said, "its dead, its dead." Gen. Battle didn't know him, but Mr. Caho knew his old radical hide, and when he went to make his speech he pulled old radical Zack out and peeled him all over, and old Zack quit his groaning for the night.

Martin spoke one hour or thereabouts, and did not discuss any of the issues, or answer one word of the arguments of Gen. Battle and Mr. Caho. Mr. Caho began asking him questions and he started out answering them, but Mr. Caho was cutting him so sharp that he just said he would not answer any more and stopped right short off, but not until he was made to admit that he didn't have sense enough to know what he was doing when he was in the legislature. Poor Martin he showed he was a mighty little bird and he is. Some of the ladies present said that while they didn't profess to know anything about politics they knew he was on the wrong side; they complimented Gen. Battle and Mr. Caho.

ASTORIA. THE FIRST THING HE LOOKS FOR! The only exclusive dealer in Gents' Furnishing Goods in the city of New Bern said he was in the country a few days ago, and was at a gentleman's house when he received his mail, and remarked as he opened his mail that Big Ike's double column was the first thing he looked for, and was disappointed when he failed to see it.

TO THE PUBLIC. I would say the reason the public have not heard from me for the last two weeks through my double column is because I have been North in the interest of the people of Eastern North Carolina, and can say that I have bargained in store that will convince the people, and a visit to my store will show to those that no living man can compete with me in prices.

WOLF! WOLF! WOLF! The people have been crying Wolf! Wolf! but the Wolf is safe at your door now, and the only way to keep him out is to take every advantage. See that you have invested your money where it will do most good. Don't pay five dollars for an article when you can get it at four. Don't be persuaded to stop until you have examined Big Ike's Stock. Has he not been pleading with you the whole summer to visit his store when in the city. Have you not made up your mind to do so, then why be persuaded against your will.

TO THE LADIES. I would say a great many of the best ladies of New Bern visit my store. Also a great many from the country, and there is no reason why any lady in Eastern North Carolina should not do the same. Although Big Ike's Stand is on lower Middle street, there is as good order kept as any other part of the city.
