CITY AND VICINITY.

Tennyson, the great poet is dead. Georgia's Democratic majority is 70,533. Hurrab! Col. W. B. Lucas will speak in behalf of Democracy at Cove on Oct. 17th at 11 a. m.

Owing to delay at the factory our full size weekly paper did not arrive in time for this issue.

The whole action around about Vaneboro will be thoroughly aroused in behalf of Democracy next Wednesday.

The Cleveland & Carr Club at Beau fort have erected a splendid pole nearly one hundred and fifty feet high.

Again we ask all subscribers who have neglected settling their accounts to come forward and pay up or remit by money order or registered letter.

The Morehead City Enterprise says that the White Oak Lumber Company, Mr. Terry manager, will put up a planing mill soon at Carolina City.

Shipments of fall truck crops are commencing. The first pass went off a week ago, and yesterday the steamer Newark took out a small shipment of beans.

The Elizabeth City Economist Falcon says it has been reported that dead bodies and other indications of a shipwreck have been found on the beach at Whale's Head, Dare county, north of Wagon's Head.

Clinton has had a tremendous fire. The loss is from $75,000 to $100,000. The Caucasian, Marion Butler's paper, the jail and fourteen business houses were destroyed. The fire originated in an Alliance store which had failed and was being closed out.

Mr. Wm. Sultan was showing at his store Tuesday a cotton stalk perfectly green from top to bottom that was growing vigorously when pulled up. It had over one hundred bolls and forms on it, though the oldest of them were too young to show any signs of opening. It is 7 1/2 feet high.

It is said that a part of the plan for the Confederate monument to be erected at Raleigh in honor of the soldiers of North Carolina is for each county in the State to contribute a block of granite to be built into the monument and to have engraved upon it the name of the county and the number of soldiers it furnished and possible other suitable inscriptions. A good idea.

The custom house officials are now pretty well satisfied in their new quarters over Messrs. L. S. Wray & Churchill store. We hope ere long they will have the pleasure of another move, and then be able to get into Uncle Sam's own property, the $75,000 Government building that is to be erected here.

Rev. J. W. Lee, the "Irish Evangelist" has just concluded a very successful projected meeting in Burkhead Church, Winston. At the last service, the pastor, Rev. J. W. Irwin announced that 59 names had been received to join the several churches up to that time. There were in all 110 conversions. Mr. Lee's last sermon was a practical discourse to the young converts. Mr. Lee begins a meeting to-day at Stanfield.

Judge Fowles's son-in-law, Mr. D. B. Ayers, of Johnson county, committed suicide in Raleigh yesterday morning about half past seven o'clock. The doctor and an attendant were in his room at the time. He covered his face with the bed clothes so it was not observed what he was doing and cut his throat with his pocket knife, severing the jugular vein and carotid artery. He bled to death in a few minutes. We hear he had been drinking.

A grand Democratic Rally and Barbecue will be held at Vaneboro Wednesday Oct. 19. Hon. Elias Carr, Democratic candidate for Governor, Ex-Gov. Jarvis and other distinguished speakers will address the people. A first class band has been engaged for the occasion and gallant Democracy will be out in full array. Arrangements have been made for free passage across Street's Ferry. Go to Vaneboro.

The Enterprise says the fishing season at Morehead now opened promises to get better and better. A single day's shipment by rail recently was 300 boxes and 40 barrels of fish. Joseph Fulcher, a 15 year old boy caught $4.00 worth in a few hours with hook and line and the Willis crew (sons of Mr. Joseph Willis) caught $160 worth of Spanish Macrera in one night. Another crew made $80 and others have been very successful.

Carters county is wide awake and good work is being done with a little haste. At a meeting of the Cleveland and Carr Club at Beau fort, Saturday, Mr. J. T. B. Noe, chairman of the Third party, appeared before the meeting and in a public speech declared himself as done with the Third party and immediately had his name enrolled as a member of the Cleveland and Carr Club. It was only a few days ago that the secretary of the Third party in the same county did likewise by coming out in a public card disclaiming all affiliations with that organization.

MOVING FORWARD.

Mr. J. W. Stewart is the only one of a distinguished array of speakers who are approaching this session of the State Fair with a full and complete program of original addresses. He will be the first to speak on the subject of the State Fair, and his address will be the first of a series of addresses on the subject of the State Fair.
