

THE JOURNAL.

Proprietor: G. W. HARRISON. Local Reporter: G. W. HARRISON.

THEOREMS on the trail of the Mexican revolutionists in Texas. MR. CLEVELAND is much worried over the treatment of Speaker Olney. He says in his speech...

THE American delegates to the International Monetary conference will sail from Southampton December 21st.

SENATOR GIBSON, of Louisiana, died Thursday evening, Dec. 15th. He was one of the best men in the Senate.

WILLIAM R. MORRISON is spoken of for a place in the Cabinet. He is one of the best men in the country.

THE payment for the first half of December amounted to $8,202,000. Internal revenue receipts to $7,672,000.

THE New York Herald announces that Mr. Dana says that under no circumstances will he be a candidate for the Senate.

GEN. WADE HAMPTON writes a letter to one of his old soldiers in which he says he would accept no office in the gift of the people of South Carolina.

THE Washington Post says it is a fact that letters are sent from Paris to Berlin, a distance of 750 miles, in thirty five minutes. They go through pneumatic tubes.

THE following downfalls of the French ministries show that though great minds may not always run in the same channel, great men very often get in the same ditch.

THE Southern Press Association has come out all right in its fight, and hereafter the Southern news will be handled by the Southern Press Association as a body.

NO little significance is attached to the fact that Senator Stewart has not been attending the meetings of the disturbed and anxious Republican senatorial caucus.

THE Brooklyn Tabernacle, Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, pastor, has been seized by the sheriff to satisfy a judgment of $1,104.88, obtained against the church by Alford B. Legg, a decorator and painter, who works out of the room structure of the Tabernacle.

ALL well conducted cotton mills in the South are flourishing. A telegram from Augusta Ga., Dec. 17th says: Owing to the large demand and the scarcity of supply, the large cotton mills here have advanced the price of goods one quarter of a cent per yard.

CONGRESSMAN JOY CANNON, of Illinois, declares that the Democratic party is in the hole. Well, if what he says is true, the Republican party is at the bottom of the hole and the Democrats are very near the top and tramping down the dirt.

THE Gazette says that Mr. George H. Hall, of Fayetteville, has been awarded the government contract to build ninety two flat boats for the Mississippi river, and has been in St. Louis recently and parts of Michigan prosecuting his labor.

THE Tribune has a thrilling account of how "two highwaymen plundered a Wyoming train." The report does not say so, but the robbery may very plausibly be attributed to the bad example of the Republican politicians in the State in stealing the Legislature.

It is stated in Washington that the Southern Senators and Representatives have, by common agreement, offered a program for the South to the President elect, with which the latter is well pleased. The program, we suppose, is to be forthcoming.

THERE were nearly 200,000 pensioners added to the rolls last year—this being the total increase—and the total on Jan 30 last was 876,000. There are 450,000 additional claimants whose cases have not yet been passed upon. Anybody who chooses to believe that there are 1,300,000 legitimate claimants on the Government's bounty now living, 27 years after the close of the war is of course at liberty to do so, but to most people this will seem incredible. The estimate of pensioners for next year is $105,000,000, but this is not likely to be large enough.—Phil Ledger.

THE appearance of a body of distinguished railway officials before the Inter-State Commerce committee of the House at Washington to advocate the repeal of the section of the Inter-State Commerce act which prohibits pooling marks but the beginning of a great agitation for the modification of this law as the result of a few years' experience in its application. The law was doubtless honestly intended to remove the evils of discrimination in freight and passenger rates and prevent the railways of the country from becoming the sole arbiters as to who should succeed and who fail in business as well as which towns should grow and prosper and which be reduced to a condition of decay.—Phil Ledger.

HENRY BLONIAU.

We notice with pleasure the appearance of Henry Bloniau, of the Wilson Mill, the man of adjectives, that is, an adjective can describe his business and starts upon a lecturing tour.

Whenever he goes, we expect for him a cordial welcome. There is not one Henry Bloniau, and an announcement of his coming is enough to draw multitudes.

His speech is as striking as bells; as musical as rippling waters; gentle as an infant's slumber; holy as a mother's prayer. His theme is an elevating, persuasive and inspiring, electrifying and enervating. Language is not his art, but some people think it is not a safe bet to bet on him.

His greatness lies in his soul. Adjectives dance attendance upon him; adjectives and metaphors crowd through all the openings of his matchless system of which sentiment is the central point.

Hear him and you will forget the word "each particular that is said in a magnificent, autumnal cadence," but your heart will be enraptured, your soul enraptured, your spirit will have written wing, and through every fiber of your being you will feel the stir of the divinity within you.

Adjectives. They are but the swelling notes of a sublime diapason. An anthem breaking up toward the throne of THE ETERNALLY.

Henry Bloniau has heard enough for half a world. We think our friends—oh, mark you, it is an honor to have such a friend. We think our friends are peculiarly fitted for the lecture field. It is difficult, but it is delightful to a man of true sentiment with soul akin to all mankind.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING. This might have been said with as much truth, if not with equal propriety, weeks ago, but the evidence shows an abundant now. Perhaps we would not have mentioned it but the boys in the office are talking about it, and this writer's right hand man has a standing collar, practicing for the occasion.

To a married man an office boy is not necessary as a Christmas reminder. Indeed the holiday of all holidays is so near at hand that the odor of the plum pudding may be said, metaphorically speaking at least, to be already in the air. Perhaps it would be more correct to say that a vast number of people—metaphorically speaking again—are expecting to imitate the boy of whom the immortal Mother Goose says:—

"Little Jack Horner sat in his corner eating a Christmas pie. He put in his thumb and pulled out a nut." And what a goodly nut it is!

Judging from the evidence around us there are to be many Christmas pies, a tempest of fruits and a cyclone of candies. It is pleasant to know that these luxuries will not be confined to the homes of the rich. The lessons of our holy Christmas have been so well learned that it is not necessary to enlarge upon the spirit of giving. Charity is as a presiding divinity in every household, and all her members from grandpa to the little dot that prattles on his knee, bring offerings to his glowing altar. Our reason for sending out this article today is to remind one and all that it is a blessed thing to give. The man who on Christmas morning brings a smile to the face of the poorest adds a star to his crown of rejoicing.

The tenement houses on Bright street, on the extreme east, have had recent amendments in the way of new floor incrustations.

The Misses Patrick have had much work done recently on their building near the depot on Queen street, formerly called the Washington Hotel. The school of these ladies was moved there last week.

RESIDENTIAL CHANGES. About this time of year, there are always several changes of residence. On the first of January, Mr. Jacob F. Parratt and family will remove to their new abode on the north-west corner of McMillen and North streets. And Mr. Henry Archbell and family will remove to the house of Mr. J. T. Myers, just north of McMillen street.

MR. MANSFIELD, who is boarding house from the "Washington hotel" to the house on Queen street, just south of Mr. Clem Baker's jewelry store.

CHRISTMAS IS BEING CELEBRATED. The religious and social movements of the year have been occupied with the celebration of Christmas. In our city we have gained 1,500 converts, and holdings from three to five years of meetings a week we have gained 13,000 converts, and a total of 20,000 converts.

A few and better season is now upon us. There are no longer any "cold" days, and the weather is just what we need. The people are well and happy, and the spirit of the season is just what we need.

NEW BIRME FALLS. We, as a people, are now in the midst of a great industrial revolution. We have a new and better way of doing things, and we are now in the midst of a great industrial revolution.

So far as we know there is no present antagonism between Cleveland and Hill both have their duties to perform. Each moves in his own orbit. There is no need of a collision. If the Senator decides to be a comet and rush madly through the heavens, he may disturb some minor planets, but the central sun will be unaffected by the movement.

"Will Mr. Cleveland dare offend Tammany?" That depends on Tammany. If the bill will get on the railroad track the chances are that he will be known of by the engine. There is no sort of doubt about Cleveland's keeping the track. He is going to do his duty even at the risk of offending Tam-
