CITY AND VICINITY.

The Falcon Economist mentions that very fine oysters are now brought to the factories in Elizabeth City from Ocracoke and Edenton, N. C. Mrs. Mary Dennis, wife of Mr. A. H.

Dennis died very suddenly at her home on Bogue Saturday. The cause of death is supposed to be heart disease. Hicks predicts that there is going to be very hard and stormy weather, through the months of March and April. He says heavy snow storms and much cold may be looked for.

The Wilmington Star tells that Sylvaone shot. He continued his hunt until he had bagged 82 ducks.

Monday night was the coldest yet. The meter registered 6. The lowest before was 7 1-2. The highest point reached Tuesday was 29 1-2, a difference of 23 1-2 degrees during the 24 hours.
