

General G. F. Johnson was again postponed by an advertisement in the Journal... The arena of the Crescent City Athletic Club of New Orleans...

Senator Teller says all the great editors are dead! What do the great Senators? Oh, don't mention it! The French government has sent fifty-one workmen to this country to inspect our industrial establishments.

Gen. R. F. Hoke has discovered a large bed of kaolin or porcelain clay upon his property on Browns Mountain, Stokes county, N. C.

Come, come: none of that! It said that Democrats, with the approval of the President, are assisting the Republicans at the House in opposing the repeal of the Federal election law.

One trouble with this country is that it pays too much attention to the doings of the stock market and not enough attention to enterprise and achievements of legitimate business men.

A writer in The Chattanooga Tradesman says that the mercantile rich in gold deposits from Virginia to Alabama... Nobody Knows how the silver question will end.

There have been ten cases of low fever at Browns Mountain and four deaths... The Rappahannock makes the initial trip of the new Chesapeake and Ohio steamship to the Chesapeake pool.

Senator Vance is at home... The Department of Agriculture is informed that there is a large increase in the number of fruit canneries in the western part of the State.

Very few United States Senators have read the speeches of their colleagues on the silver question. Question, question! The people of this country are getting tired of the windjamming that is going on in Washington.

Congress seems to be in a curious fix. Democratic repeal of the federal election law is opposed by democrats on the ground that it would stand in the way of undemocratic legislation.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 11.—Thirty thousand dollars was cut out yesterday by the State Treasurer. Being the full amount of the appropriation by the last legislature for pensions for ex-Confederate soldiers.

Judge Sauley, of the circuit court at Danville, Ky., has created a stir in the society circles of that place by instructing the grand jury that progressive justice is one of the worst forms of plumbing.

The Fayetteville North Carolina Gazette has just celebrated the first anniversary of the new session under the present management. We congratulate brother Wilcoxhead on the success he has won.

If it is a fundamental principle of the democratic party that the federal Government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties except for the purpose of revenue...

When the Democrats named the government by their name, they mean in 1890 the treasury was nearly $100,000,000 in surplus revenue the same, and the excess of gold above the reserve was $98,000,000.

There is, indeed, more ready cash in the rural districts of Georgia, says the constitution, than one might suppose.

Between worn out senatorial courtesy on the one hand, and on the other the test of physical endurance, which seems to be the only way of bringing the repeal bill to a vote...

Mr. Allen will be Secretary and General Manager of the Mechanics and Investors Union in the city arranging to organize a Branch of the Company in this place.

This Association was organized by a number of the leading business men of Raleigh as a National Association. It is a Savings Bank and a Building and Loan Association.

For all members, the most important of the welfare of the country is compelled to run a rather severe gauntlet.

The clearest object-lessons inculcated by the spectacle at Washington... The way to avoid temptation is to keep out of bad company.

The following is an extract from the address delivered by Col. E. D. Ransom at a reunion of the 27th Regiment North Carolina Troops at Littleton, N. C., on August 18, 1893.

"Now, my friends, while we all jubilate over the 80th anniversary and having given our best efforts to the world of which we are a part, we are here today to give glory to the land that was a part of our life. The 27th Regiment of North Carolina Troops, and especially those of us who belonged to it, are here to-day to give glory to the land that was a part of our life."

"I have great pleasure in the fact that you are here today on this anniversary of the 27th Regiment, North Carolina Troops."
