

NO CONCEALED DAGGER.

A sentence appeared in these columns a little while ago which has been construed as a covert attack upon a Senator.

That is not our method. We wear no concealed weapons. We indulge in no unnamely innuendoes. When the time comes we shall use language that cannot be misunderstood and that will go directly to the mark.

We had much rather praise that censure, but we shall do neither unless in our judgement it is richly deserved.

The JOURNAL cannot be made the vehicle of malice, much less can it be made the bow from which poisoned arrows can be shot.

If personal issues rise, or have arisen, they will be adjudicated by another tribunal, while the JOURNAL pursues the even tenor of its way with justice to all and malice to none.

It will be no fault of ours if the standard of Journalism is lowered in the heated campaign that is evidently before us.

TROUBLED WATERS.

When a little while ago we wrote upon the tariff and predicted its passage, we had reference to the Wilson bill as modified by the Senate. We are now informed that it is proposed to change the measure incorporating new provisions and substituting ad valorem for specific duties.

We do not pretend to comprehend the situation, we only know that it is claimed that the freighting of the waters is for the healing of the nation.

Complaints are constantly heard on account of the delay in passing a tariff bill. Certainly there are evils attending delay, but it is much oftener that injury results from hasty legislation than from careful deliberation and the careful consideration of public measures.

A NORTH CAROLINA HISTORY.

It is often the case that one learns something that surprises him.

On the 30th of May the Memorial address at New Bern was delivered by William B. Lane, the present sheriff of Craven county. He was a gallant soldier, and has ever been a good citizen and a true gentleman. Captain Lane does not profess to be an orator, but he possesses the highest elements of oratory, strong convictions and the courage of his convictions.

But our surprise was occasioned by the facts that he brought out in regard to North Carolina. We do not profess to have read all the histories of North Carolina that have been published, but with an intense love of the old North State, we have searched for gems that glister all along her way from the landing of Raleigh to the present day, but the brightest of them eluded our search and were unknown to us until brought out on Memorial day.

We want a reliable history of North Carolina. One that our children will read and be inspired by its truths. One that our old men can read and feel as the sun of life is setting behind our western hills.

Here in this good state is to be found abundant material for a delightful romance.

If in this broad land there is a Washington Irving he could not select a better field for the display of his genius. But while romance charms, it is authentic history that we need, and must have if North Carolina is to her proper place and live in imperishable archives.

CONFEDERATE MEMORIAL.

Interesting Occasion—Good Music—Fine Address—The Floral Decorations.

Thursday morning's train, with several extra cars attached, brought up a very good number from Beaufort and Morehead and points below New Bern to take part in the Confederate Memorial exercises.

When the exercises commenced the court house was well filled with the visitors and our own citizens.

The speaker's stand was decorated with magnolias, lilies and other flowers, of white varieties exclusively—no perfect specimens of their kind.

On the stand with the orator were Rev. J. T. Lyon, the chaplain, Mr. J. F. Clark, the choir marshal, the choir was to the right of the stand, the Naval Reserve to the left. The music for the occasion was accompanied by an organ and two drummers, which, with a good number of selected voices, was very beautiful and impressive.

The opening prayer, by Mr. Lyon, followed the first song.

It was in accord with the solemn fitness of things that Capt. W. B. Lane was chosen as the memorial orator, yesterday.

His subject was "The Confederate Memorial." He has taken a situation as salesman in the dry goods store of Mr. D. F. Jarvis and entered upon the duties of the place.

In the loss record company contest last night, the New Bern Company made the following fine record: They ran 100 yards, laid 150 feet of hose and threw water in 35 seconds. Mr. Will Rue was the timer. The Atlantic were as well out, but never worked for quick time.

Sheriff Thos. Campan, of Pamlico, was in town yesterday on his way to Kinston to pay $2,200 on the judgment Craven county has against Pamlico for her share of the old railroad debt. The Sheriff says in two more years Pamlico will pay the last of this debt.

The Tough and Ready Hook and Ladder Fire Company, of New Bern, intend to run an excursion to Wilmington on Thursday, May 24, at the exceedingly low price of $1.25 for the round trip, children 70 cents. That is cheap riding.

A recent ordinance of the authorities of Winston, makes it a penalty of $25 fine for each time a minor is allowed in a saloon. In addition, no back doors or side entrances are allowed, and the bars must be closed between 10 p. m. and 5 a. m., under a penalty of $50 for each offense.

Mr. Rudolph Duffy, of Onslow county, who has been several days in the city, is prominently spoken of as the Democratic candidate for the Legislature in the coming election. They say he knows the "Annie Laurie," his singing of which has drawn the mocking birds out of Onslow in mid-january.

Mr. J. J. Street, Vice-President and Gen'l Manager of the mills of the Goldsboro Lumber Company at Dover, left for his home yesterday morning after a brief stay in the city on business. Mr. Street is desirous to move to New Bern and only awaits the sale of some property here in Goldsboro to do so. We will be glad to hear him come.

Two vessel loads of expert shells about twelve hundred bushels have arrived from Beaufort for the New Bern Water Works Company. They are now lying at the foot of Craven street. They will be used on the streets wherever needed so that they will be left everywhere in as good order as before any digging on them was done for Water Works construction purposes.

The commencement exercises of James High School, Grifton, Pitt county, will take place May 17th and 18th. There will be an entertainment on Wednesday May 17th at 7:30 o'clock. On Friday morning at 11 o'clock the annual commencement address will be delivered, the examination and children's exercises will take place in the afternoon and the commencement exercises at night.

Mr. Thos. Robinson, of Portsmouth, N. C., died Thursday night, May 10th in this city at the residence of his sister Mrs. J. E. Parker, who he had been for about five years. He was 53 years of age, and leaves no family. He has a brother at Portsmouth. He was buried yesterday afternoon from the residence of his sister by service being conducted by Rev. G. G. Harley of Hancock street Methodist church.

MR. McDOWELL'S WORK.

Philadelphia Journal of Commerce and New Bern,—A Fine Advertisement for this City.

Mr. W. C. McDowell who is in the city for the Philadelphia Journal of Commerce to furnish that paper a proper writing about industrial lines and possibilities of progress and development, has submitted an article to Mayor Ellis which he has already prepared on the subject. It is surprising to see how well posted Mr. McDowell has become in regard to what New Bern is doing, its outlets, etc.

He will remain in the city a few days longer at Mr. W. T. Lane's and it behoves those of our citizens who are interested in anything calculated to induce capitalists to invest and develop any of our many resources to see Mr. McDowell and place the facts before him. He is making a short tour of Eastern North Carolina and is not only hearing but seeing for himself and we are glad to see so.

Mr. McDowell represents a syndicate that wants to go into manufacturing and it may result in direct goods through them but whether it does or not that which by the way is as fine an advertisement as New Bern wants and yet costs us nothing will be seen and read by thousands and it cannot fail in doing its proper work in increasing the wide attention New Bern is receiving and thereby adding to the progress that can be seen by every month that passes.

Married—A Disappointed Congregation.

On Wednesday evening the 9th inst., Mr. Geo. H. Simmons, of Dover, was united in marriage to Miss Agnes W. De Bruhl, at the residence of Mr. Susan De Bruhl, the bride's mother, at De Bruhl's, Jones county, Rev. A. L. Ormond of Craven circuit officiated.

The marriage was intended to have taken place at the church at Tuscarora, about four miles distant, and preparation had been made accordingly. The church had been well decorated for the occasion by friends of the contracting parties, and as the hour for the ceremony drew near it was filling up with people from the surrounding country to witness it.

But the assembly was doomed to disappointment. The minister, who had been time was almost at hand discovered that the marriage license had been purchased in Jones county, while the church was located in Craven county, and according to law the marriage must be performed in the same county in which the license is issued. So informing the congregation of how matters stood, Mr. Ormond started in the direction of the bride's home and met the party on the way to the church.

They immediately went back and were married at the residence in the presence of the family and a few friends of the immediate neighborhood and the crowd at the church departed for their homes.

Three More Fountains in Position.

Three more drinking fountains were put in yesterday—one on Broad street, one on Middle street, and one on Gravel street at the junction of Middle and one by J. H. Hackburn's store at the junction of Broad and Queen streets.

One more remains to be put in, the one on the macadamized road, the one at first proposed to be placed by the Fair ground, but which is more likely to be put a little lower down, probably by the western gate of the cemetery.

The fountain near the junction of Broad and Middle streets is the one first intended for the junction of Queen and Pollock (McCarthy's store). The present arrangement was deemed better than the first as it puts one fountain in each of the five main roads of the city.

The one on Broad street and the one at the junction of Middle and Gravel, are in the center of the street. We think the placing of them thus was a mistake. Though useful, and handy for such a position as drinking from, the hydrants in such a position are obstructions, and drive-ways are here, and it is more likely to be an accident should occur from their being placed where they are the city would be liable for damages.

The Insurance They Carried.

The ice house building owned by the Morehead City Ice Company, was insured in the Virginia Fire and Marine Insurance Company, represented by Mr. H. H. Howard for $1,000.

Mr. Daniel Bell's store had $150,000 insurance, $1,000 of it was in the Etna, $250 in the Teutonic, both represented by Mr. W. H. Oliver. The remaining $250 was with the London, Liverpool and Globe Company, by W. G. Brinson.

Mr. Bell's stock was insured as follows: Messrs. Caldwell and the Charlotte Oil, server, Sales and Hoshamer of Statesville are here, as usual, touching matters of importance to Charlotte and Statesville.

The Senators have agreed on a tariff compromise but they keep on talking. The bill amended out of all shape, will be voted on perhaps by June 15th.

The River and Harbor bill which passed the House last week will be considered by the Commerce Committee of which Senator Ransom is chairman, next week. The House appropriation for the Cape Fear, will be doubled. The others will be largely increased.

The supervising Architect of the Treasury is making the drawing of the New Bern public building. He tells me the work on it will be commenced soon.

Miss Hen. W. C. P. Brockington is receiving visitors in Kentucky a great many persons come here asking that she be expelled from the House of Representatives for her alleged infidelity.

Coxey's divorced wife says she intends to have him arrested the moment she puts her foot on Ohio's soil for "adultery," she daughter, the girl who rode the white horse at the head of the alleged army.

The divorce was granted Mrs. Coxey for "extreme cruelty" and the two children in Cedar Grove cemetery yesterday. It is to the memory of our late townsman, Mr. James C. Harrison.

The monument has a panel die, and the shaft, also pannelled, rises 10 1/2 feet high.

MORHEAD WINS.

First game of base ball between the first nine of New Bern and of Morehead City came off yesterday morning and resulted in the victory of the New Bern team.

The score was Morehead City, 21; New Bern, 15, being an difference of 6 in Morehead's favor.

The manager of the New Bern team was C. J. McSully, of the Morehead City team W. M. Webb, D. B. Fay captain of the New Bern team and N. B. Piner of the Morehead team.

The Morehead City team was composed of J. H. Wade, pitcher, Capt. S. H. Piner, catcher, S. L. Arthur, 1st base, J. W. Wallace, 2d base, Ed. Falford, 3d base, Will Howard, short stop, Fred Royal, left field, Thomas Piner, center field, W. H. Jackson, right field.

Piner and Arthur of the Morehead team played their positions well.

Jordan and Neal, the battery of the New Bern team, deserve special mention. Jordan pitched the game, not well—not more than four or five balls were knocked out of the diamond's reach. It was on the eighth innings that Morehead made their largest score. The New Bern boys batted heavily but errors caused the defeat.

The following is the score of the game by innings:

New Bern	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Morehead	2	1	1	0	2	2	2	2	2	21
New Bern	0	2	1	0	2	0	2	2	0	15

It will be seen by the above that at the conclusion of the seventh inning New Bern was ahead; the score then stood New Bern 13, Morehead 12. The next two innings changed the result so that the game closed with Morehead 6 ahead.

The game was witnessed by about 300 people and was watched by them with close interest, each club getting a good share of cheering as the game proceeded.

After the game was over the New Bern boys took the visiting team to Hotel Albert and entertained them handsomely, a fruit banquet following the dinner.

The New Bern team, though defeated are not cast down. They intend to go on the occasion of the Methodist picnic next Thursday and give the Beaufort team a trial. A little later, possibly in June they expect to go down to Morehead and give the Morehead "band fidlers" a chance at their own native heels.

Simmons Confirmed.

A telegram to THE JOURNAL from Washington at 9 o'clock last night is as follows:

"Simmons was Confirmed."

Brief as it is, it tells very satisfactory news. We are glad to know the same. Simmons, who did a man's work more faithfully or more energetically in a campaign than did Mr. Simmons in the last one. When the campaign opened clouds of threatened defeat hung heavy over the State by reason of defection to Third party ranks, but election day showed the councils of the enemy were in June they expect to go down to Morehead and give the Morehead "band fidlers" a chance at their own native heels.

The office which has been bestowed upon him is small enough recognition of his faithful and successful services.

Our Naval Reserves.

The New Bern Naval Reserves is getting to be a fine organization and deserves special mention.

The Massachusetts movement now extends through every sea board State from Massachusetts to Texas. There are also organizations on the lakes and all of them receive liberal support from the States in which they are located.

Our boys are now recognized by the State authorities and stand in the same line as the men of the other companies of the State Guard; but so far as the County of Craven and City of New Bern are concerned, no support whatever is given. Wilmington and New Hanover Co. we are informed, contribute some $1,500 per annum and in company to their military organizations. An error has been made in our report as to the location of our organizations, but our company, the only one within sixty miles, receives nothing.

The good conduct and efficiency of the boys is all the more commendable under such circumstances.

LIFE IS SWEET.

CALEDONIAN.

This world would be a dreary world if there were not pain and sorrow. And dull would be the passing hours, and unperfected the sweet flowers.

But dim the stars above us.

I often think, when I see of the world, how sweet and how dreary would be life if there were not pain and sorrow. And dull would be the passing hours, and unperfected the sweet flowers.

But dim the stars above us.

How cheerless and how dreary would be life if there were not pain and sorrow. And dull would be the passing hours, and unperfected the sweet flowers.

But dim the stars above us.

How cheerless and how dreary would be life if there were not pain and sorrow. And dull would be the passing hours, and unperfected the sweet flowers.

THAT AWFUL BORROWER.

The Greenville Reflector truly says: "There are people who will not subscribe for their county paper because they happen to disagree with its politics, yet they always read it, even if they have to sponge on their neighbor and worry him almost to death by continually borrowing his paper."

Yes, there are plenty of just such people, and the JOURNAL has had experience with a few of them. In fact not very long since one of our good paying subscribers advised us to discontinue his paper on account of these "Dinah's like" kind always borrowing it.

The reason for stopping the paper, said the good paying subscriber, was that he thought the borrower would subscribe himself, and then he would take it again.

We thought it would work like a charm but it didn't. The said borrower just went across the street and immediately warmed in with another subscriber and though continuing to abuse it, actually wanted to borrow the paper before the real subscriber had finished with it. These kind of "Dinah's" are dandies indeed.

At Morehead.

The News-Observer-Chronicle gives the following Morehead City news:

Mr. B. L. Perry, proprietor of the Atlantic Hotel, has opened that famous resort to the public with many rooms already been engaged this month by fishing parties from this State and Tennessee. The hotel is a lovely sketch a portion of her history, the narration of which will give us some light on what we might expect from her in this lamentable year.

The month of May is said to be decidedly the best season for this sport.

THE SILENT HOSTS.

FRANK L. STANTON.

No more the storm of battle glooms
Above the waving flags;
No more the cannon's thunder booms;
But earth with blossoms blooms.

The soldier breasts that braved the fight,
Beneath the laureled sword,
The silent hosts on the bright night
Of glory and of God.

The faded flags no longer stream
Above those breasts so still;
The red swords of the lightning gleam
Are sheathed by vale and hill.

And Peace unfolds her banners white,
And the soft music of the lute,
While Memory's tears in drops of light
Are rained above the brute.

After the fight the hero sleep
In God's unbroken rest,
And still the South in honor keeps
Her loved and glorious best.

For sacred is the blood they shed,
For South still bears her glorious dead
With her memorial tears.

It is surprising to see how well posted Mr. McDowell has become in regard to what New Bern is doing, its outlets, etc.

He will remain in the city a few days longer at Mr. W. T. Lane's and it behoves those of our citizens who are interested in anything calculated to induce capitalists to invest and develop any of our many resources to see Mr. McDowell and place the facts before him. He is making a short tour of Eastern North Carolina and is not only hearing but seeing for himself and we are glad to see so.

Mr. McDowell represents a syndicate that wants to go into manufacturing and it may result in direct goods through them but whether it does or not that which by the way is as fine an advertisement as New Bern wants and yet costs us nothing will be seen and read by thousands and it cannot fail in doing its proper work in increasing the wide attention New Bern is receiving and thereby adding to the progress that can be seen by every month that passes.

Married—A Disappointed Congregation.

On Wednesday evening the 9th inst., Mr. Geo. H. Simmons, of Dover, was united in marriage to Miss Agnes W. De Bruhl, at the residence of Mr. Susan De Bruhl, the bride's mother, at De Bruhl's, Jones county, Rev. A. L. Ormond of Craven circuit officiated.

The marriage was intended to have taken place at the church at Tuscarora, about four miles distant, and preparation had been made accordingly. The church had been well decorated for the occasion by friends of the contracting parties, and as the hour for the ceremony drew near it was filling up with people from the surrounding country to witness it.

But the assembly was doomed to disappointment. The minister, who had been time was almost at hand discovered that the marriage license had been purchased in Jones county, while the church was located in Craven county, and according to law the marriage must be performed in the same county in which the license is issued. So informing the congregation of how matters stood, Mr. Ormond started in the direction of the bride's home and met the party on the way to the church.

They immediately went back and were married at the residence in the presence of the family and a few friends of the immediate neighborhood and the crowd at the church departed for their homes.

Three More Fountains in Position.

Three more drinking fountains were put in yesterday—one on Broad street, one on Middle street, and one on Gravel street at the junction of Middle and one by J. H. Hackburn's store at the junction of Broad and Queen streets.

One more remains to be put in, the one on the macadamized road, the one at first proposed to be placed by the Fair ground, but which is more likely to be put a little lower down, probably by the western gate of the cemetery.

The fountain near the junction of Broad and Middle streets is the one first intended for the junction of Queen and Pollock (McCarthy's store). The present arrangement was deemed better than the first as it puts one fountain in each of the five main roads of the city.

The one on Broad street and the one at the junction of Middle and Gravel, are in the center of the street. We think the placing of them thus was a mistake. Though useful, and handy for such a position as drinking from, the hydrants in such a position are obstructions, and drive-ways are here, and it is more likely to be an accident should occur from their being placed where they are the city would be liable for damages.

The Insurance They Carried.

The ice house building owned by the Morehead City Ice Company, was insured in the Virginia Fire and Marine Insurance Company, represented by Mr. H. H. Howard for $1,000.

Mr. Daniel Bell's store had $150,000 insurance, $1,000 of it was in the Etna, $250 in the Teutonic, both represented by Mr. W. H. Oliver. The remaining $250 was with the London, Liverpool and Globe Company, by W. G. Brinson.

Mr. Bell's stock was insured as follows: Messrs. Caldwell and the Charlotte Oil, server, Sales and Hoshamer of Statesville are here, as usual, touching matters of importance to Charlotte and Statesville.

The Senators have agreed on a tariff compromise but they keep on talking. The bill amended out of all shape, will be voted on perhaps by June 15th.

The River and Harbor bill which passed the House last week will be considered by the Commerce Committee of which Senator Ransom is chairman, next week. The House appropriation for the Cape Fear, will be doubled. The others will be largely increased.

The supervising Architect of the Treasury is making the drawing of the New Bern public building. He tells me the work on it will be commenced soon.

Miss Hen. W. C. P. Brockington is receiving visitors in Kentucky a great many persons come here asking that she be expelled from the House of Representatives for her alleged infidelity.

Coxey's divorced wife says she intends to have him arrested the moment she puts her foot on Ohio's soil for "adultery," she daughter, the girl who rode the white horse at the head of the alleged army.

The divorce was granted Mrs. Coxey for "extreme cruelty" and the two children in Cedar Grove cemetery yesterday. It is to the memory of our late townsman, Mr. James C. Harrison.

The monument has a panel die, and the shaft, also pannelled, rises 10 1/2 feet high.

MORHEAD WINS.

First game of base ball between the first nine of New Bern and of Morehead City came off yesterday morning and resulted in the victory of the New Bern team.

The score was Morehead City, 21; New Bern, 15, being an difference of 6 in Morehead's favor.

The manager of the New Bern team was C. J. McSully, of the Morehead City team W. M. Webb, D. B. Fay captain of the New Bern team and N. B. Piner of the Morehead team.

The Morehead City team was composed of J. H. Wade, pitcher, Capt. S. H. Piner, catcher, S. L. Arthur, 1st base, J. W. Wallace, 2d base, Ed. Falford, 3d base, Will Howard, short stop, Fred Royal, left field, Thomas Piner, center field, W. H. Jackson, right field.

Piner and Arthur of the Morehead team played their positions well.

Jordan and Neal, the battery of the New Bern team, deserve special mention. Jordan pitched the game, not well—not more than four or five balls were knocked out of the diamond's reach. It was on the eighth innings that Morehead made their largest score. The New Bern boys batted heavily but errors caused the defeat.

The following is the score of the game by innings:

New Bern	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Morehead	2	1	1	0	2	2	2	2	2	21
New Bern	0	2	1	0	2	0	2	2	0	15

It will be seen by the above that at the conclusion of the seventh inning New Bern was ahead; the score then stood New Bern 13, Morehead 12. The next two innings changed the result so that the game closed with Morehead 6 ahead.

The game was witnessed by about 300 people and was watched by them with close interest, each club getting a good share of cheering as the game proceeded.

After the game was over the New Bern boys took the visiting team to Hotel Albert and entertained them handsomely, a fruit banquet following the dinner.

The New Bern team, though defeated are not cast down. They intend to go on the occasion of the Methodist picnic next Thursday and give the Beaufort team a trial. A little later, possibly in June they expect to go down to Morehead and give the Morehead "band fidlers" a chance at their own native heels.

Simmons Confirmed.

A telegram to THE JOURNAL from Washington at 9 o'clock last night is as follows:

"Simmons was Confirmed."

Brief as it is, it tells very satisfactory news. We are glad to know the same. Simmons, who did a man's work more faithfully or more energetically in a campaign than did Mr. Simmons in the last one. When the campaign opened clouds of threatened defeat hung heavy over the State by reason of defection to Third party ranks, but election day showed the councils of the enemy were in June they expect to go down to Morehead and give the Morehead "band fidlers" a chance at their own native heels.

The office which has been bestowed upon him is small enough recognition of his faithful and successful services.

Our Naval Reserves.

The New Bern Naval Reserves is getting to be a fine organization and deserves special mention.

The Massachusetts movement now extends through every sea board State from Massachusetts to Texas. There are also organizations on the lakes and all of them receive liberal support from the States in which they are located.

Our boys are now recognized by the State authorities and stand in the same line as the men of the other companies of the State Guard; but so far as the County of Craven and City of New Bern are concerned, no support whatever is given. Wilmington and New Hanover Co. we are informed, contribute some $1,500 per annum and in company to their military organizations. An error has been made in our report as to the location of our organizations, but our company, the only one within sixty miles, receives nothing.

The good conduct and efficiency of the boys is all the more commendable under such circumstances.

LIFE IS SWEET.
