IN SUSPENSE

The country is in painful suspense as to the condition of affairs at Chicago. In this writing, Monday morning, nothing has been heard from the great metropolis of the West since last Saturday.

NOTES AT RANDOM

A Norway, Me., farmer is in the habit of putting his cattle into a ditch to pasture every evening. He says they have learned to take the right course on the morning of the change without any guidance.

TWO NEGROES HANGED

James Allen Executed at Marlboro and William Jackson at Centerville. MARLBORO, Md., July 6.—James Allen, colored, who committed a felonious assault on little Cora Simson, a twelve-year-old schoolgirl, last February, was hanged in the yard of the jail here this morning.

THE STRIKE SPREADING

Nashville, Tenn., July 6.—At 6:30 o'clock this evening 133 switchmen of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis went on strike. Only members of the American Railway Union are out.

INDUSTRIAL WORKS CLOSE DOWN

Chicago, July 7.—An exhaustive canvass of the industrial concerns of the city yesterday reveals an appalling state of affairs and warrants the statement that tonight 75 per cent of them will stop their machinery and leave until the embargo traffic is raised.

CHICAGO IN THE HANDS OF A FRENZIED MOB

The 350 cars in the yards were completely destroyed, and when the mob returned the stock yards they destroyed the small engine and separated among the big packing houses.

On its return march the mob set fire to four cars standing on the Grand Avenue tracks just west of Ashland avenue.
