

CITY AND V. INITY.

Messrs. W. H. Bray and Jno. French were the delegates elected to the county convention from the eight township outside the city.

Evangelist W. B. Gales has just closed a meeting in Marion with about 800 converts and reconsecrations. Mr. Gales will be in New Bern this fall.

The Carter county Populist convention did not secure a quorum. The cause was attributed to the rain. Another attempt will be made the last of this month.

A picnic and foot tournament will be held at Plank Landing, near Perfection, Thursday, July 19th. Mr. G. M. Lancaster requests us to state that all persons are invited to be present and bring baskets with them.

The excursion to be run from New Bern to Asheville on the 24th inst, promises a rare opportunity to visit the mountains.

Next week, beginning the 19th and lasting four days, district conference and quarterly meeting will be held in Tabernacle church, Onslow county. A large meeting is expected.

Sabbath after next and the Sabbath after that the annual meeting of the Northern Methodist of Harbor's Island will be in progress. There will be services all through that week and all are invited to attend.

From Beaufort county also comes news of good crops. Mr. E. S. Waters, of Pungo, says he has a prospect of a bumper crop of corn. There have been some very nice rains there, plentiful but not too much.

Big writes from Fayetteville that he will be in New Bern soon with the big bankrupt stock that he bought there and that the rumors of the JOURNAL will be fully informed about the mammoth deal and proposition that he proposes making.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Sadie Green, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Lackin C. Vass, of Savannah, Ga., to Mr. Robert Van Dyke, of the same city. From New Bern, Miss Sadie's childhood home, many warm wishes will flow out for heaven's richest blessings upon her in assuming her new relationship in life. The marriage is on the 18th inst.

Mr. W. H. Scott, of DeBrah, was in the city yesterday and informs us that they now have a shipping station in the vicinity where he lives, on the W. N. & N. Railroad. It is two miles beyond DeBrah and has been named Gun Row. The first shipment made were potatoes, by Mr. Scott, on July the fourth.

The Oxford Orphan's Friend says: "Joe Gordon, 13 years old, dark hair, dark eyes, and dark complexion, ran away from the Asylum last Thursday evening. Any information of his whereabouts will be greatly appreciated by the management of this Asylum. Exchanges please copy."

The life saving station at Portsmouth is completed and has been turned over to the inspector of new stations for him in turn to present to the authorities at Washington for final acceptance. It is considered the best station in the service. It is a duplicate of the one exhibited at the World's Fair, except that the president has been added. W. J. B. Shull was the contractor who built it.

Prof. W. K. Brooks, who has been conducting the John's Hopkins summer school of Biology at Beaufort has returned home. The Beaufort Herald says the students will remain several weeks longer. It says moreover that Dr. Brooks speaks in highest terms of the natural and climatic advantages of Beaufort as a health resort. He says it is much cooler there in summer than in places of resort further north.

The Typographical Union No. 6, of New York on Sunday last adopted a resolution heartily sympathizing with the Pullman strikers and with the sympathetic strike of the Railway Union and urged President Debs to stand firm until the Pullman Company agrees to arbitrate. Upon the election of the President of the International Typographical Union was called in that city.

Hon. B. H. Bonn, Congressman from the 4th district, is taking a few days off from official duties for rest and recreation and has come down to New Bern to spend the time, along with him are two friends, Mr. W. T. Briggs, one of the best of the city, and Mr. C. H. W. Finley, a New York capitalist, who are prospecting here. They took a drive out to Messrs. Wm. Dunn's and Hackman & Willett's farms, and planned a trip down the river today.

Mr. A. Hatcher who for a year past has been at Morehead and New Bern acting as news correspondent for several leading papers of the State, is now about embarking on a journalistic career himself. With that end in view he went up to Durham about a week ago and has now brought the entire outfit of the one of the Lynchburg (Va.) Daily Earth. With this outfit he intends to turn a live weekly at Durham, to be known as the Durham Times.

The following is the statement of the Goldsboro Argus in reference to the holding of the Third Party convention of Johnston county. "Only six participants attended the county convention of their party in Johnston, so we have been informed. Will, that is encouraging. It is an indication that the people here have been thinking the situation over calmly and deeply, and are getting right again. They are realizing that the ground Democratic party—their mother party and their first love—is the party of the people and for the people."

A Brilliant Season Daily the crowd at the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead, increases. Parties direct from the hotel yesterday morning informed us that there were 600 guests now at the hotel and that 60 arrived the previous night. Last night's train carried down a goodly number also. The only promise of a brilliant success is being well fulfilled.

The Third and Fourth regiments of the North Carolina troops were now encamped at Carolina City, two miles and a half from Morehead, and special trains are run at intervals between the encampment grounds and the hotels to give the other place easy opportunity to visit the latter. Tomorrow night a big military ball takes place at the Atlantic, and it is expected a be a great occasion. No doubt many more will go down to meet with the special intention of being present at this occasion.

THE GREAT RAILROAD STRIKE.

President Issues a Proclamation—Burning Cars and Sopping Trains—Wild for Vengeance—Firm on the Mobs.

(Special to Journal.) RALEIGH, N. C., July 7-9 p. m.—This afternoon at five o'clock the Illinois State Militia fired on the Chicago rioters. A number of the rioters were badly wounded, also several of the soldiers.

The Federal troops have taken charge of all depots and trains. The crisis is expected to night or tomorrow.

Debs, the President of the American Railway Labor Union, will be arrested. Mr. J. W. Moore received the following special telegram yesterday afternoon.

WILMINGTON, N. C., July 9.—The President has issued a proclamation warning all Illinois mobs to disperse by noon today.

The United States troops fired upon a mob near Chicago, killing one and wounding several.

Martial law is threatened.

BERNARD.

Sunday morning, the mob in the great railroad strike was transferred to Hammond Indiana just across the border line and from an early hour mob violence reigned supreme.

The mob at Chicago, overpowered life seen cars, set fire to a Pullman car and an incoming train was taken possession of and side-tracked.

A telegram for assistance was sent to Chicago for assistance to get the train out. A company of 31 strong was sent—one half took position at the rear of the train the other half at the front, then almost like a flash the crowd increased to about 2,000. A telegram was sent for more troops and for while the crowd was held at bay with bayonets.

In the afternoon other troops arrived, and about the same time a mail train came in and the mob attempted to block the further passage of the train by throwing a Pullman car by ropes across the tracks.

But there were regular troops on the engine on the roof and at the car windows waiting for the conditions of affairs then imminent. An officer gave the word and from all over the train a volley was fired, then the regulars made for solid earth and with fixed bayonets dashed for the mob on both sides of the track.

But the mob being scattered the mob as its members were fleeing like a flock of geese or lying flat on the ground, heedless of being run over. Most of the bullets had either gone over head or plowed the ground, but a few took effect. One man was killed instantly. Two wounded fatally and others more or less. And to say nearly all hurt were innocent spectators. The man killed instantly was a carpenter searching for wood.

WILD FOR VENGEANCE.

But presently the indiscriminate firing of the regulars created intense rage and excitement. Hundreds of the mob rushed to their homes and returned to the scene with revolvers and shotguns, filling the air with oaths and imprecations, and declared their intention of killing every man wearing an army uniform.

In the meantime a dead line had been thrown out. Beyond it Major Reilly mounted a box car and pleaded with and prayed to the crowd to be calm and commit no further violence. The crowd was unwilling to respond to the advice.

At this moment the regulars were reinforced by those companies that came in from Chicago on a special train on the Michigan Central. These were Company F of the Fifteenth Infantry, Capt. McDowd; Company A of the Fifth Infantry, Capt. Kendall; and Company E of the Fifth Infantry, Capt. Brown. The latter, as before named, was the senior officer in command of the troops.

On the arrival of these reinforcements details were sent out to patrol the crossings and to be kept to the highway. Overcrowd by the display of military force, the mob gradually thinned out, and at midnight the streets of the town had resumed their normal aspect.

A mass meeting of militant citizens held Sunday night protested against the shooting. Mayor Reilly and ministers made speeches which pacified the crowd but all declared the shooting unjustifiable and an outrage.

Gov. Matthews has ordered fifteen companies to mobilize at Hammond, directly after the regular train pulled out. There were fourteen companies and two bands. The bands were the 2nd regiment band, sixteen members, from New York, and the 4th regiment band from the Cherokee reservation, eighteen men.

The troops were those composing the 3d and 4th regiments.

THIRD REGIMENT. Col. B. H. Bono, of Oxford. Co. A, "Raleigh Rifles," Winston, Capt. J. C. Bessington, 40 strong. Co. B, "Roanoke Light Infantry," Capt. A. J. Ellington, 37 strong. Co. C, "Voice Guards," Henderson, Capt. F. J. Jones, 42 strong. Co. D, "Durham Light Infantry," Capt. T. W. Weston, 45 strong.

Co. E, "Franklin Guards," Oxford, Capt. W. W. Lankford, 42 strong. Co. F, "Durham Light Infantry," Capt. A. L. Isley, 42 strong. Co. G, "Raleigh Rifles," Capt. G. W. Howlett, 31 strong.

FOURTH REGIMENT. Col. J. F. Armfield, of Statesville. Co. A, "Frolic Blues," Statesville, Capt. M. Hill, 35 strong. Co. B, "Richard Hill," Waynesville, Capt. P. E. Hill, 38 strong. Co. C, "Queen City Guards," Charlotte, Capt. F. Franklin, 40 strong. Co. E, "Asheford Light Infantry," Capt. W. G. Smith, 35 strong. Co. G, "Charlottesville," Capt. W. S. Bingham, 31 strong.

Co. H, "Light Infantry," Shiloh, Capt. E. H. Bunker, 37 strong. Co. I, "Antony Drum Corps," 18 men.

A Household Treasure. D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if it were possible. A Dykeman Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy that he has used in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so often tried and tested. Trial bottles free at F. S. Dunn's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Hardware of all kinds to be sold for the next sixty days at cost and less in some cases, on reasonable offer refused, call and see me and be convinced, this is a unique sale. P. M. Draxler, South Front St.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS PROCEEDINGS.

Monday, July 2, 1894. The Board met at 11 o'clock a. m. and for want of a quorum took a recess till next morning at 10 o'clock. Present, Commissioners Meadows and Brewer.

Tuesday morning July 3, 1894. The Board met pursuant to adjournment. Present, J. A. Meadows, M. H. Carter and W. C. Brewer.

J. A. Meadows was called to preside in the absence of the chairman.

Ordered, That Thomas Wilson and John Bowen be and hereby are appointed inspectors of the road for the city of New Bern and that they be notified to appear before the Board and tender their bonds and qualify according to law.

J. W. Bowdler and Thomas Wilson presented their official bonds as wood inspectors of the city of New Bern which being examined and found sufficient in the security thereof, it was ordered that said bonds be approved, accepted and ordered to be recorded and filed, Commissioners Meadows, Carter and Brewer voting to approve the same.

Ordered, That upon payment of the proper tax to the sheriff, be granted to J. W. Haver, colored, and to W. B. Cox to retail liquor for six months ending Dec. 31, 1894, at their places of business in the city of New Bern, they having complied with the law regulating the granting of liquor licenses.

Ordered, That the sheriff notify the board of supervisors of No. 1 township of the establishment of said road and to appoint lands to be sold.

The jury summoned by the sheriff for the purpose of laying out a public road upon the lands of R. W. Smith and others, No. 1 township, having filed their report, it is ordered that said road be in all respects confirmed and the said road is hereby established and declared to be a public road as follows:

Beginning on the lands of James G. and James L. Wettersington to Pitt county line.

Ordered, further, That the clerk notify the board of supervisors of No. 1 township of the establishment of said road and to appoint lands to be sold.

The jury summoned by the sheriff for the purpose of laying out a public road upon the lands of R. W. Smith and others, No. 1 township, having filed their report, it is ordered that said road be in all respects confirmed and the said road is hereby established and declared to be a public road as follows:

Beginning at a point on the road heretofore made, in direct line with said road across West Branch, just above the old crossing then at a left angle as marked out to the old road, then along said road across the lands of H. B. Willis, then along the division line of B. I. Willis and Nathan Willis, thence through the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Three Catholic Priests. Father Murphy, of Canada, made an eloquent, witty and forcible address, insisting that it is the imperative duty of the Christian church to immediately abolish the liquor traffic.

Henry B. Ryan, chairman finance commission of No. 7 township, having filed his report estimating two hundred dollars to be the amount required to pay indebtedness and to carry on the duties of the office, that a tax of one per cent be levied upon the real estate in said district for such purpose.

Washington Tariff Bill in Conference.

The tariff bill has at last gone over to be a subject of negotiation and irritation for the people of every section of the country. It is ordered that L. V. Lancaster be and is hereby appointed to fill said vacancy, and to carry on the duties of the office as the board and file his official bond and qualify according to law.

Ordered, That George Tillington, township No. 7, be and is hereby appointed to fill said vacancy, and to carry on the duties of the office as the board and file his official bond and qualify according to law.

Henry B. Ryan, chairman finance commission of No. 7 township, having filed his report estimating two hundred dollars to be the amount required to pay indebtedness and to carry on the duties of the office, that a tax of one per cent be levied upon the real estate in said district for such purpose.

NOTES ON THE STRIKE.

Several More Companies of Troops Ordered to Chicago.

At least ten people have been killed in the Chicago riots, and seven more fatally wounded and about fifty injured, more or less.

A passenger train of Wagner palace cars was run to Chicago Sunday. There were sleepers, but there was only one passenger on the whole train.

California strikers and their wives are preparing to resist the military to the death and it is said a fight will most certainly follow the sending of troops west to Oakland.

Chicago passed a comparatively quiet Sunday, but the city is still in a state of nervous uncertainty. The lawlessness was confined to the houses of the rioters and some minor encounters Saturday was worse than Sunday, especially as to incendiarism.

Seventh Township Democratic Primary. The Democrats of No. 7 township met at Rivendale July 7th, 1894, at 12 o'clock.

M. Porter and O. H. Perry were elected delegates to the county convention.

The following were elected township committee: J. S. Foster, O. H. Perry, A. D. Fisher, H. R. Cowan and B. W. Ives.

A card in favor of five free at the rate of 16 to 1 was read and adopted. This meeting related to endorse the acts of the present administration and delegates were instructed to do so.

INTERN'L TEMPERANCE CONGRESS.

Summary of Proceedings—Temperance Results in the Union—Good Future Outlook.

The International Temperance Congress recently held at Prohibition Park on Staten Island, was a remarkable gathering, whether considered in reference to the occasion which fixed its date, the nineteenth birthday of Hon. Neal Dow, one of the very chief apostles of temperance, and for more than half a century one of the most successful temperance and conspicuous fighters in our country—or in respect of the immense audience, the momentous questions discussed, the large number of men and women who had gathered from nearly every quarter of the globe to discuss the same.

GENERAL NEAL DOW. At 10 o'clock Neal Dow, one of the most prominent temperance workers in the world, was welcomed to the platform by the whole audience to a warm and cheering ovation, and he addressed the assembly in a most eloquent and inspiring manner. He said that he looked younger than many of the old men who sat before him, that his voice was clear and strong, and that his rapid speech was as pertinent and vehement as ever.

ORGANIZATIONS REPRESENTED. Aaron M. Powell, editor of the National Temperance Advocate, spoke for the National Temperance Society, as an agency for the dissemination of temperance literature, and the hundred million people, Mrs. Susan S. Fessenden, of Boston, represented the W. C. T. U., an ally of the same cause.

Mr. Ellen J. Phinney, of Cleveland, Ohio, represented the Non-Resistant National W. C. T. U., of which she is President.

Hon. Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science, 1810, when Lyman Beecher launched the thunderbolts of the church against temperance, 1826, when Justin Willis was laid out, through the American Society for the promotion of temperance, to the Washington monument, 1840, the Washington monument, Hon Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, represented the Independent Order of the Good Templars, largest temperance organization in the world; the W. C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. C. Newark, represented the Sons of Temperance of North America of the same city.

Rev. Joseph Cook made an eloquent and powerful address, rehearsing the progress of temperance work and reform, and pointing out the path to be followed, from 1760, when John Wesley denounced the traffic, 1785, when Dr. Irish had led the first temperance movement in the name of science,