That Rev. W. E. West of Ocrakee was Frank in New Bern—A Surprising Acquittal.

New Bern, N. C., Aug. 23.

Dear Sir:—I learn that at a recent conference of the Northern Methodist Church at Hartness, N. C., the committee appointed to investigate the charges against Rev. W. E. West, of the church at Ocrakee, N. C., a list of witnesses who in New Bern, testified that the charges were false.

Several people, men, of high character among them three of them ministers, came up here to investigate and get statements and did give statements from men of the best character who saw Rev. West in his frankness on each of the charges. Each of the ministers who came up here to get statements saw Rev. West in his frankness on each of the charges. Each of the ministers who came up here to get statements saw Rev. West in his frankness on each of the charges.

HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY.

Chas. Swanwick, a prominent citizen of the city, died at his residence on Monday morning at the age of 80 years. He was a native of England and had resided in this city for many years. He was a member of the Methodist Church and was highly respected in the community.

Arrangements have been made for the funeral of the late Mrs. J. H. Smith, who died on Monday morning at the age of 75 years. The funeral will be held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Smith, on Main Street.

ANNUAL CRUISE.

The Naval Reserves in their glory. The Naval Reserves are now full in the midst of their annual cruise at Southport.

On Monday all hands on the monitor were off at 6 o'clock a. m. Breakfast was served at 7:30 o'clock a. m. and then the fleet proceeded to Southport. The fleet consisted of the monitor, the tugboat, and the launch.

THE BURGLAR CAMPBELL.

Put Under Five Hundred Dollar Bond—Mr. Reese's Goods Recovered.

C. C. Campbell, who was arrested in New Bern under a charge of larceny, is now in the jail at Southport. He has been released on five hundred dollar bond.

Mr. Reese's goods, which were stolen from him by Campbell, have been recovered and returned to him.

"NEWS ADRIIT."

"Picked-Up" by The Journal. Always in "The Swain".

Our young townsmen, Mr. J. H. Howard, has been appointed one of the marshals for the State Fair.

Mr. J. E. Patten, of the New Bern, has been appointed one of the marshals for the State Fair.

THE EMPIRE FARED BAD.

Immediately after the coronal base ball game between the New Bern and the Empires, the Empires fared badly.

The Empires were defeated by the New Bern in a game played on Monday evening at the Empires Club.

REFORM NEEDED.

The Expenses of the Government and Some of the Ways in Which They Should be Cut Down.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Much has been said and written about the expenses of the Government. It is a fact that the Government spends more money than it receives.

The expenses of the Government are too large and they should be cut down. There are many ways in which the expenses of the Government can be reduced.

GOV. CARR AND GEN. CAMERON ARRIVE.

Enthusiasm over the Nantuxet. From the Wilmington Star and Messenger we gather the following about the Naval Reserves at Southport.

Governor Elias Carr and party arrived in the city Wednesday evening at 5:30 p. m. They were met at the depot by a large number of citizens.
