TEN THOUSAND SLAIN.

Reports of the Turkish Atrocity Confirmed.

Pestilence Has Followed Death—Stench of the Frightful Carnage Has Brought on a Virulent Attack of Cholera—Origin of the Massacre.

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—Three private letters received in Boston today from a high official in Constantinople, confirm the reports of massacres by the Turks. They are as follows: "The Armenians here have not yet signed it, though in four districts similar papers have been secured properly sealed. The effect of such papers on foreigners will be much modified, when they know the means used to procure them. Mr. Cole got in from Bolognec last night, but is obliged to stay in Constantinople twenty-four hours. Sword, famine, pestilence, all at once—Pity this poor country."

WHY THE MASSACRE WAS ORDERED—"CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 31.—We have word from British that the destruction of life in Samsoun, South of Moosh, was even greater than was supposed. The brief note which reached us says: 'Twenty-seven villages annihilated in Samsoun. Six thousand men, women and children massacred by troops and Kurds.'"

"This awful story is only just beginning to be known here, though the massacres took place early in September. The Turks have used infinite pains to prevent news leaking out, even going to the length of sending back from Trebizond many hundreds from the Moosh region who had come on this way on business. The massacre was ordered from here in the sense that some Kurds having robbed Armenian villages of flocks, the Armenians pursued and tried to recover their property, and a fight ensued, in which a dozen Kurds were killed. The slain men were sea-fortified robbers, i. e., enrolled as troops and armed as such, but not under the Armenian flag, and they did not enquire here that Armenians had killed some of the Sultan's troops. The Sultan at once ordered infantry and cavalry to put down the Armenian rebellion, and they did it, only, not finding any rebellion they cleared the country so that none should occur in future."

FOUR MEN CARRIED OFF THE FIELD
Fears Entertained That One Football Player is Internally Injured.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Today was a perfect football day and about 4,000 people witnessed the annual game for the championship of the District of Columbia, played between the Georgetown College eleven and the Columbia Athletic Club team. The Columbia boys will keep the handsome silver trophy for another year, winning by scoring 29 and shutting the college boys out.

The game was very rough and four men were carried from the field. Harder, the clever little Columbia players, however, had collar-bone on the first 15 minutes play. It is feared that "Shorty" Baber is internally injured.

Shields and Callahan distinguished themselves, the former for his brilliant all-around play, and the latter for his unnecessary roughness and slugging, receiving a black eye from Dickenson. At no time was Columbia's goal in such jeopardy as when time was called in the first half, the ball was on Georgetown's one-yard line. The Georgetown boys were plainly out of condition, as shown by their numerous accidents and the fact that all scores were made in the second half, the Columbia boys standing the rough play much better than their opponents. The teams weighed just about the same.

NO MORE FORCE BILLS.
There Will Hardly be a Republican in the Next Congress Who Will Favor It.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 28.—The Manufacturers' Record will print this week reports from several leading Republicans who were asked if the recent victory of their party would result in any attempt to revive the force bill, or any other measure that could be put in its place. The answer was in every case, out reason, be regarded as inimical to the South. The verdict of the writers is that there will be no further attempt at interference with elections anywhere by the National government.

Congressman J. H. Walker, of Massachusetts, the senior Republican Representative on the committee on banking and currency, says: "I claim there is no Republican in Congress who knows any more thoroughly than I do the sentiment of the Republican party in this country upon this question. There will not be three men in the 54th Congress (and I do not believe there will be one), who will sooner propose to enact any kind of a national election law than they would propose to put the national troops at the points in the Southern States from which they were removed by President Hayes in 1877."

The feeling at the North is precisely the same as that revealed by the leading newspapers at the South on the question of elections, viz: that electing at the polls by any party must do now and forever, but accomplished by the local attorneys. Furthermore, the determination among Northern Republicans is as strong as among the honest Democrats of the South in favor of absolute home rule in all matters whatsoever respecting their own designated in the constitution requiring national legislation.

So far as the attempt will be made by Congress in this generation, or the next, to re-enact any national election law whatever."

THANKSGIVING BIRTH.

O God! Eternal Being! Omnipotent, all-wise Creator, by Thy blessing Lord of the earth and sky! The glory that ministereth unto Thy saints on high, and Thy grace and love to those who are lowly and lowly.

Behold with deep contrition For wrongs which we have done Today our hearts petition We lay before Thy throne, Lord! all our faults forgiving, Let Thy stern chastening cease: Whom Thou dost smite, Hereafter—pledge us Thy grace.

Grant to our earnest pleading The richest of Thy grace: Our prayers for mercy heeding, Show us Thy loving face. Thy mercies are unnumbered, Thy love will never cease—On these our faults forgiving, Hereafter—pledge us Thy grace.

Our sorrow and our weeping How richly dost Thou bless! Thy heart with joy is leaping In every Thy best gift. Thy mercies are unnumbered, Thy love will never cease—On these our faults forgiving, Hereafter—pledge us Thy grace.

Our nation's sins confessing, Lord! Thy dark stains remove From us, Thy sins forgive, Recrown us with Thy love: Protect Thy people, Master! From all that would us harm, Shield us from all disaster, With Thine almighty arm.

Should avarice or faction—Foul spawn of hell and hell—Dare try to wound our land, To wreck our ship of state, Then, Thy stern face availing, The traitors overthrow, And such our hearts destroy: Thy hand upon the helm—Charles W. Hildner.

LET US GIVE THANKS
"Let us give thanks," the old man said, In earnest tones and low. As reverently he bowed his head—Whence the words he drew.

THE IMMIGRATION WORK.

The Kind That Will be Brought By the International Company.

The Desirableness of Such Immigrants—The Effect Their Coming into a Community Will Have Upon It—How to Proceed to Secure Them.

Immigrants—So many in our country have been made to feel in reference to immigration to the South that I have hardly time to reply to each as I should wish and to refer to you the privilege of answering through your journal.

There is no doubt that its lands are the most fertile and the products of its soil the most valuable of any lands in the world. Its winters are short and mild; its summers long and pleasant; and its soil rich and fertile. It is a section of the globe where the facts of the same grade as low in price and products of the ground are cheaply raised, yet with all these advantages, it is not so well known to the people of the North.

I think as to others that now is the proper moment to take and secure a proportion of the same sturdy and energetic element that has turned the barren and unfruitful prairies of the West into grain and stock raising sections. It is a section of the globe where the facts of the same grade as low in price and products of the ground are cheaply raised, yet with all these advantages, it is not so well known to the people of the North.

On the other hand, serious competition might be expected if the attempt of the Nicaragua government to collect taxes on land owned by British subjects should result in a war with Great Britain, the despatch of which will be to the United States government of that territory.

The United States government will not be to Great Britain in their collection of taxes. This government will also recognize the right of Great Britain to collect taxes on land owned by British subjects. It is not surprising that the State Department officials regard the matter from a Managua as decidedly grave.

THE WAR SCARE.

The Serious Situation Between the United States and Great Britain as Outlined by the Washington Post.

The Situation is declared by a gentleman thoroughly acquainted with the part played recently by this government and Great Britain in reference to the subject. The seriousness of the situation is in this, that the United States government has been called to see that that part is not neglected by any European power.

Great Britain having notified Nicaragua that she does not recognize the government in that territory, it will undoubtedly devolve upon the British minister in that country to demand that any British subjects who may have been or may be arrested for violation of Nicaraguan laws be released, and that an explanation be made by the Nicaraguan government for the arrest.

Should the Nicaraguan government decline to release such prisoners, the armed force of Great Britain may then be brought into the country to compel obedience to the British minister's demands. This will be the time for the United States government to act.
