CONGRESS ASSEMBLIES.

The President's Message—He Recommends Changes in the Tariff Act and Agrees to Withdraw from the Financial Question—An Elastic Currency Needed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—Congress is again in session.

The President's message has just been read. The tariff and the financial questions are given the most prominent place. Cleveland says that the tariff needs changing. He wants coal and iron on the free list, and he favors the popgun bill.

The President endorses Secretary Carlisle's financial policy. He says bonds cannot be depended upon to support the gold reserve, and that there must be an elastic currency.

Thought Season Tickets to the Fair. Mr. Charles H. Henshaw, Sec'y & Treasurer of the East Carolina Fair had an application yesterday for four season tickets. It is needless to say that he sold them.

This is the earliest that any tickets to the Fair have ever been sold, and as the Fair is yet nearly three months off it shows the interest that it is bringing to it.

PREPARING FOR THE FAIR.

A VERY BRIGHT OUTLOOK. Increased Premium List—Large Preparations for Advertising—Look Out for Your Exhibits in Time So as to Have the Best.

Everything is now moving nicely for the rapidly approaching exhibition of the East Carolina Fair in this city, and the advertising arrangements are being perfected in keeping with the lines of advertisement to be given.

Doubleless acting somewhat on the principle that the pen is mightier than the sword, one of the novel plans for advertising the fair is to have a list of exhibitors distributed in the city.

The list will be placed in the hands of the proprietors and will be ready in the hands of the exhibitors in a few days.

A CHANGE IN COTTON VALUES.

The Difference in the Worth of Raw and a Manufactured Bale—Losses on the Futures.

Mr. H. W. Humphrey of Currier county has recently been informed that the Beaufort Herald's attention to the great increase in value between raw cotton and manufactured goods of the same material.

Mr. Humphrey's notes put the matter in a striking light. It is an error to suppose that a very good reason why cotton manufacturing should be more largely engaged in.
