MARRIAGE OF CANTA CLAUS.

Once Santa Claus so'ered and said with a sigh, while a tear added lustre to each twinkling eye. "Oh! Pur gett ag so lonely and weary of life, I need a companion, or, better, a wife But where could I find one to share my joy, and love, as I love, every girl and each

He thought and be pondered, this jolly recluse, then he shouted, "I have it, 'tis Old Mother Goose" tie was off in a jiffy, he whistled, his sled o'er the snow like the flight of a skyrocket And his rejudeer sported with heads high and haughty, and trotted along at the rate of two-ferty.
So be found the old fady, of course, very soon—she had just returned from a trip to

And was fixin her cap, slightly mussed by the ride, while the cobwebs were thick on the broom at her side, She was old, she was weszened, she had a great nose, yet her eyes were as bright as the plumage of erows, And her voice, tho' 'twas crucked, had a ring very sweet, and her dress, tho' 'twas queer, was most awfully neat.

And Santa Claus blushed as he said, "How de do?" The dame courtesyed low, and replied, "Sir, to you." "Will you have me?" he prays, "my darling confess." She besitates, murmurs, and "But my children," she cries, with the usual pause, "why children, I love 'em," said bloff Santa Claus, "Bring 'em out-where are they; I want 'em," cries he, so torth troop they all in a great company, First comes a fair maiden, and know her we should, by the wolf and her granny-"tis Red Riding Hood; While after them, fearfully blowing his born, is Little Boy Blue on his way from the

And the notes of the music he sweetly doth play, brings the piper's son Tom from the hills far away. And then with a jump and a roll down the hill with pails and with water bounce poor Jack and Jill.

Their crowns were both broken, and help they implore from Old Mother Hubbard and Margery Daw. As well as a nameless man, tattered and torn, who is kissing and kissing a maiden forth from berg ries, in a way quite contrary, with fruits and with flowers, Tien Simon the simple returns from the fair, with the pieman, most caution, in sell ing his ware; ille dragging their tails behind flock in the sheep, of the wandering shepherdess

A very old woman lugs up a great shoe, and out jump her children, a boisterous crew; Some sing and some dance, and some of them play. The Mulberry lush," and "Rain, But one fittle boy slin's off in the corner an I munches a pie-'tis greedy Jack Horner While poor Tommy Tucker expects some in vain, and bewails his fate with Tom

But music has charms, and they list to the song of that jolly musician, the young Then old King Cole and his fiddlers three bring up the rear of this vast company; The just what I want," shouts old Santa Claus, Mother Goose and her children ring out their applause. "Now all jump aboard-our new home we'll explore, on my sled there has ever been room for one more. With shouts and with laughter they tumbled within, and wrapped buffalo robes

The reindeer they gallop, the moon shone out bright as they hurried along in its And the fat, jolly driver clinckled often in glee at the sight of his wife and garding all care, Till they reached the great palace and through it to roam, and forever be happy bough.

mas be upon you.'

anything for Christmas?

enough in stock to suit you.

he merry Christmas bells.

mintle toe last night?"

ther's missile-toe

Detroit Free Press

Chinner-Ab?

soft o'er land and sea.

Christ who died for me!

And ring full long this same, sweet

"Through all life's gain and wrong, the welcome of the cross!

Through all its night, through all it

Holiday Reflections

awful bine who has overcoats to sell.

but the poet doesn't spell ear right.

Boss - Oh, yes; a few errands to do .-

CHRISTMAS JINGLES.

within their new home.

"Be thy Christmas replete With Bliss, Pure an . Seeet.

The Mistletoe hung on the cattle wal', And the holly brauch shone in the old And the Bar n's retainers were blithe Keeping their Christmas holiday.

Christmas times in New Berne, An' half the woods in blossom An' all the knives jes' sharp enough To carve the Christmas possum.

What are by gone days to me? As I think of the ending year With its past, f never again shall sec-It's the bay-some days I fear.

What sweeter music can we bring Than a carol, for to sing The birth of this our beivenly King?

Awake the voice! Awake the siring House, ear, and eye, and everything.

Our little Johnay has began Exceedingly good to be, And now he goes to three.

I beard an awful scandal On Senty, Christmas night, He wust have drunk too much, for he Was caught in a chimney right.

AT TEN. Childhood's sleep has wrapp d her round, Shut out ev'ry sight and sound, And of Santa Claus she drams-Bright and clear the vision seems.

AT EIGHTEEN. Christmas Eve 16ts maiden seer. While she shumbers at her case. Leaves of joyous mistletoe. Dancing, gastigat, and a bean.

When you give present recall et-Il may to your advantage prove -Before you send them don't reglect The tell-tale price-marks to remove.

Know the Christmas time is here-Tin horns blowing far and near! Won't the country be in clover

When the awful blow is over !

You may rail at the nation -Say money is slin; But the Christmas relation Is still in the swim!

The doctor hangs up hid stocking With a gay and festive grace, For he knows that Christmus feesting

Will bring him many a case. Though snow be on the ground. Though cloud be on the hill, Christ's peace will in the kears be found Of all who love his will.

> Christmas came and Christmas went Had enough of it—content! Let the whole world go its ways— Thirty dollars, or thirty days!

O, chinning, rhyming Christmas bells, peal

THE CHRISTMAS STOCKING.

and drive my mamma erazy I want a doggie I con kick so he will not get lazy. I want a powder gun to shoot right at my sister Annie and a big trumpet I can toot just awful loud at granny. I by. I want a pony I can race around the parlor, maybe. I want a little hatchet, too, so I can do some chopping upon our ber ball to smash all into flinders the great big mirror in the hall an lots an' lots of winders. An candy that'll sick so ma all night will hold me an' make pa get the doctor quick an' never try to scold me. An' Santa Claus, if pa says I am naughty it's a story. Jus' say if he whips me I die and go to kingdom glory.

snow-man stands in the moonlight Smoking his pipe serenely.

or what cares he that the night is cold? hough his coat is thin and his hat is And the blustering wind blows keenly. Ie has heard the children telling in glee That Santa Claus would visit This night their beautiful Christmas

And it is not strange he should wish to How this can happen,-now is it?

And hears them merrily singing tound the Christmas-tree with its glory When out from the chimney, in bearskins white

Comes good St. Micholas springing! And the Snow-man laughs so hard a But breathe in every note that swells, the That when his laughter ceases,

Are all that is lest of the pieces!

One of the popular Christmas saluta-Old Brattleborough rang with glee; tions will of course be the mistletoe The windows overflowed with light: Joy ruled each hearth and Christma

A warm Christmas may not make a green graveyard, but it makes the fellow His soul with deeper joy was fraught. Christmas, the home day, the Christ He waited until the guests were gone day! May its lessons and its blessings He waited to dream his dream alone; And night wore on.

gladden all hearts and make a truth of the common salutation: "A Merry Christlone he stands in the silent night; A Georgia poet informs us that "there is a sound of Christmas in the sir." This is He piles the snow in the village square With space for chiscl, a statue white From the crystal quarry rises fair. a sure sign that the tin born has arrived. to light, save the stars, to guide hand. Office Boy-Are you going to give ure But the image obeys his sout's command The sky is draped with fleecy lawn, The stars grow pale in the early dawn. But the last toils on.

Jaysmith-I received one Christmas And lol in the morn the people came present before the day was an hour To gaze at the wondrous vicion there And they called it "The Angel," divining us name. Jaysmith-Yes; I got home about one For it came in silence and unware . m. and my wife gave me a piece of her seemed no mortal hand had wrought The unlifted face of prayerful thought:

"Romeo," she whispered, "will you get some mistletoe for Christmas?" "What for, Juliet?" he questioned, "Ob," she Its life went out ere the day was done replied, "merely as-as an excuse," And the had dreamed on. Lady-I want a dozen cigars for this And his dream was this In the years t Dealer-I'm afraid I've nothing good

I will carve the Angel in lasting stone n another land beyond the sea. Lady-Oh, yes. Ju-t any kind will do. I will toil in darkness, will dream alone;

They are to be given away as a Christmas While others sleep I will find a way "Did you take Miss Phair under the Ip through the night to the light of day There's nothing desired beneath star or "Yes, and then went out under her Which patient genius has not won.

And the boy toiled on. The years go by. He has wrought with He has gained renown in the land of carry his fair prize to, we wish them But the thought inspired that Christmas Still kept its place in the sculptor's Matthew Gaskins, tither of the base. And the dream of the boy, that melted Is emboded at last in enduring stone, Snow angel in marble-bis purpose And the man tools on.

purchase for a Caristmas present will long happy life.

selecting a Christmas present. Price-What made Jenks take his wife to see that horrible prize fight? mas shopping and everything else seemed | quirements of our official dusies.

THE JOURNAL

NEW BERNE, N of 1 6, 1804

CITY AND V INITY. COTTON SALES

Weinesday - 68 Bales, 4,500 o 5,10 Thursday - 51 lades, 4.59 to 50. Friday = 92 Bales, 4.50 to 5 to

Merry Chr stnas to all. Let Christmas joy be everywhere t

Mrs. Sallie A. H. ou, well-of Mr. Son. Hudson, has been to raised post-master at Pollocksville, vs. J. H. Bell resigned, and Mr. E. C. Dewey, a matter of New Buchi hope some from that neighborho d will be britary 18th.

A merry Christmas to all friends, and foes, ton, if we have any. This is the world story which should emenate from ur bearts, and no vain repetition words could enlarge this clarity at fe ling, for principle and some inent. Mr. A. M. Biker is back in the edy for iwhile He has been spending it is a months at and near Cambridge Mel. He speaks of Cambridge as quite an eyslet town and says 800,000 bushers are openic there per year and the effect of the son in hard-slie or not sufformula -There will be the low round large that o' $1.00 from Marche of an (4 to 1 is from Riverdale to Now Barne New Yorks also

Ex-Mayor A. G. Ricau f of Wilmings "Dear Santa Claus," wrote the place of W. S. O'B Robinson, who was elected Superior court judge. Mr. Ricaud is a fine 'awyer and has the per-feet confidence of the people, so his selec-tion is an admirable one. He is a son of Rev. T. P. Ricaud, formerly pastor of Hancock Street M. E. Church this We are sorry to learn 1 or Mr. Ellis, : good and industrious farmer of Perfecpart of the State. He has chosen a farm near Asheville and will move to it carry next year. The removal of a good chizen | Rounto e. such as he is, is a loss to Univen country but we hope to hear of his doing well i is new home as we believe he will. Mr. D. L. Taylor was in the city had tells us of a very drawing chimney in the house of Mr. Mitt. Thorpe at Slocambis creek. The story is that a rouster got into the room and when he reached the centre of it the draft from the chimney was so strong that it drew him up the chimney and clear out at the top Thorpe is the one that tells it the mason in bei't the changes to chance to doubt it. To be Married.

youch for it, so or course there is no

the New Borne Knitting Mills, left yesterday for his home in Pulladel thin to spend important mission. Having conclude that it is not good for man to be alone h will take a lite partner before he return-On the 2d of January he is to wed Mis-Miriam P. Sellars of Philadelphia. They are to arrive in New Betne on

Geo. Fitzsimmons, the champion bicydist of the South, made another trip over the turnpike from Wilmington to sound Friday afternoon He rode the eight miles to Wrightsvil Flying on a Bicycle.

in 22minutes and 15 seconds He immediately rode back and completed the whole sixteen miles in 48 minutes and 33

Special Meeting County Commis sioners. STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, Cinven County nember of the Board of Commissioners

nent Office Here. Craven County, I hereby call a specia meeting of the said Board of Commission ers of Craven County to be held at the Court House, in the city of New Berna on Monday, December 31st, 1894 at 11 clock A. M. JAMES A. BRYAN, Chimin. New Berne, N. C., Dec. 24, '94. The Vanceboro Mail Steamer The large steam mail boat which Cant

M. Ipock is building at Vancetoro w e 56 feet in length, with 13 feet beam, ect on bottom. She will draw three fe She will have first and second class passenger saloons, and is expected to make laily trips between New Berne and Vanceboro She is likely to be on by Feb. ruary 1st.

Big Oyster Shipments.

Messes, Geo N. Ives & Son are no During the last two days they have show ped over 700 gallons. Yesterdays' ship nents were over three bundred gallons and they have orders now for 420 gal ons to to off Monday morning. They will (seg) and the shuckers are making good wages. Messrs, Ives and Son are working about 40 of the shuckers. The oysters are going all over the State nd also to South Carolina, Georgia and nee Miss Johnes Whittord, also met to had a very pleasant interview with the President, besides participating in the fo-

Young New Bernians and the Presi

MARRIED.

Westley Guthrie bel to the type by altar, Miss Addie, the presty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Taylor, Esquire Jus. B. Howard tving the knot. cage, a pretty dwelling on the Sound, to abund out success, and no special, the

Miss Nettie Gassars, in Mr. W. le and groomsme

TAXES MUST BE PAID.

POLLOGA STREET "IN IT" TO COLORED CAROLINIANS.

A GRAND PEROFECHINE DISPLAY. One of the Most Brilliant and Enjoy-

state Illumination | ver in the City the opte Witness It.

Policek St. w - "heit all over last hight when the two big teams, -Messrs, The managers of the Cotton States and will "hang out his shingle" in the continuous conditions of fire works. In to be place in troot of their stores, com- Atlanta in 1895, have given abundant evi- anybody gets law practice by hard werk in the high about seven well akk and lasting dence of their interest in the negro exhibit and ability be well,

Rev. B. H. Molton arrived from the

A. Patillo; Louisburg, Jao, H. William Senator Hill armed with an enormous son; New Berne, W. W. Lawrence, club is trying to knock these idols down. Aman from near Maysville, were in the city list week.

Mr. B. B. Hallon returned on the steam of the control of the city of the city list week.

Mr. B. B. Hallon returned on the steam of the city of the ci went on to purchase, Miss Maggie Hunter, of Havelock Emery; rt, non a New York dealer in oysters not clause, and Mr. C. L. Dickinson of which they may collect the largest and a New York and his son Mr. Clyde transport, Jr., wir has been buying for and Christmas in Beamart. Mrs. W. B. Goodwin, west on e me at tilen a Stock Farm yes-Gooding; Mrs. Guy and Miss ingu-ta Crapon went down for the day cturning last night. AN OUTTICE IN THE ALBERT.

Ir. Wm. Beard and Family will Move to New Berne-The Colonizing Company will have Perma-

Mrs. Wan. Beard addressed a number ies county citizens. Saturday in the ir colonization work and factorie intent that matters might b ien the time arrives for the com-She lims returned to the city and Hotel Albert. She has opened in a there which she designs to b restent, her husband and ann g decided to make New Berne their visit of Messes, Limbburg and Turner, e General Agent and the President of ic company to this city and will then I away for a short time preparatory to

THE PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

Georgetown Spreads Herself in Doing icongetown was ablaze Saturday wit

THE RIGHT KIND OF FARMING.

On Dec. 23ol, at the residence of Mr. First maid and greeness as Miss and Miss are as Miss and seed of the seed of the convenience of the convenie -Wallace Bruce.

-Walla wenting to buy from him than the tar- Thenkselving, keys he had would supply.

> was t crived for the large amount of w. B. Lane, Sheriff. tention to hogs, stock and poultry than there is in raising cotton.

An Address From W. C. Coleman, C. C. F. N. C., in Regard to Participating in the Cotton States and Interna--Its Relation to the Negro.

which is to form a special feature of their will be Senator. He says there may not substitute that is white and barst of Exposition. They, sometime ago re-bave been a written fusion contract, but the substitute of the sub nd ther pieces of mag-would in every way be commensurate with the proposed scope of the exposition are and fazzing bewards, itself, and the plans and specifications for better looking than his more able brother. Swanaaroa.

A number of ship-curpenters who lave been employed in Winnington 1488 d through to spend Christians which have been employed for Spend Christians which have been employed for Spend Christians which have been employed for Spend Christians which are spend to be a strong to spend Christians which have been deposed for the strong to spend Christians which have been deposed for the strong to spend Christians which have been deposed for the United States for or all expense for entitiance for and repts for exhibits. This space is to be used exhibits. a Morehead and Because to their inches of the pentifolines of good hogs—by those some from that neighborhood will be coming And Going.

Space is to be used exclusively by the sound this remark: "I see you two are soon time, and all other pursuits and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries. The exhibit to be made at the same time and industries the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries. The exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time.

The provided in the provided in the same time and industries, the exhibit to be made at the same time.

> purpose in North Carolina is W. C. Cole-Die J. H. B. stand of tesspond Caristens | Maxton, J. C. Hooper, R. D. Rosen, Greenville, C. C. Forbes, A. J. F. Moore; | Front.

New Beine with fourteen horses which and Jas. E. Hamlin.

line, outlining and colle ing plans by Wednesday.

State has issued an address "To the the ablest and most useful citizens of the an at Southport passed, through to Colored citizens of North Carolina" in South has been re-elected President of the which he says: "Now it seems clear that a great duty dent of the entire Southern Railroad sys s upon us to seize this opportunity (the tem. I contend he has dore as much for best that has ever been given the negro as the material development of the section a race in the history of the world) to show south of Mason and Dixon's Line as far to mankind what progress we have made as Atlanta as any man in that part of toe in the industrial pursuits and in scientific country. He is very modest about it. but and literary development, in agriculture, | 1 k a sensible gentlemen he makes n the mechanic arts, in science, art, liter- work pay him as he goes along.

"The above should make every heart hrill and cause every loyal negro to resolve to do everything in his power to make the best possible showing for his North Carolinian, of negro descent, to ple lee himself to the successful carrying of this enterprise, and to tollow up his pledge with unabating zeal and in justry when the plans have been fully

State papers are requested to copy the

COTTON FACTORY MACHINERY. as to Requisites for Success-None

Whatever factories have been started n New Berne of late years have been fitvictims to matrimony, insists the Atchisor and very best, so we have but little fear wisdom born of experience. An effort is being made to build a cotton factory in Chattanooga and as the advice given the Time: will apply here as well as there. "The parties who have that commondble project in hand ought to proceed ery carefully. If a mill is started here ith anything but the latest and most proved machinery it will prove a fail-The Ruohs factory sought some machinery sixty years behind the times. and the failure of that factory killed all small enterprises in Chatanooga for ten which will about double its present capyears past. People say a factory cannot acity. It is also preparing to run night caused the failure. "For the past eighteen months a mill ton for $3 per sp nile which cost $15 per contrast to the abundence South spindle new, and yet nobody buys the With the very latest and best machinery and wise and prudent management, a cot-boad to the Europ an station as soon as

EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE. Its Annual Week of Prayer and the

The week of prayer appointed by the

Thursday, Jan. 10, "Foreign Missions." Friday, Jan. 11, "Home Missions." Saturday, Jan. 12. "Families and WASHINGTON DITTER

North Carolina Personal Miler Office-Governor Carr Still Here A Joke on Harry Skinner-Addragament-Today's Record.

Hon, John S, Headarso tetls in the i tional Exposition in Atlanta in 1895 | there is not a shadow of the action for the rumor that be will beave Salisbary, and come here to practice law. I never believed it for a minute. John Hend r on The managers of the Cotton States and will "hang out his shingle" in the con-Governor Cart sitts "our Mary Ann

Only the House was in session to-day

Smith, Rev. Dr. R. A. Rives and W. J. Friday morning. Two rude old itlols Mr. Ed. S. Hughes and family, of Abi-line, Texas, arrived to visit his brother C. H. Moore; Kinston, J. C. Hargett; the other "Unlimited Debate" are sitting Dr. Frank W. Hughes and other relatives | Littleton, H. P. Cheatham and Rev. W. in ancient chairs raised on a pedesral.

General W. P. Roberts, Consul Gone a Col. A. B. Andrews, foremost among Virginia Midland. I wish he was Presi-

Another Tarbeel of the same strip are put to the front, the whistle of locomoof money, the noon-tide or a permanent resperity, will take the place of cross ad politics, five cent cotton, and blatent paid campaign orators who have no pracice to keep them at home and who ride on free passes over the country or on tickets bought with "campaign money" got from contributions of hard-working honest Democrats, Tammany or Suga Trusts. In the tuture I hope there will be more men like Tom Holt, Alex. Andrews, Jule Carr, the Frieses of Salem, the Haine's of Winston, the George Allen's of New Berne, men like D. A. Tompkins of Charlotte and a bundred

Scylla of Radicalism and the yawning nonster of Popocracy into an open sea of Reckingham farmers are planting great deal more grain this year than previous years. Some few speak of fishing next year in preference to raising 5-cent

The Montgomery (Alu.) Cotton Mill is putting new machinery in its plant People in the drought stricken distri-Nebraska are starving to death and almost destitute of clothing. Wort a than fourteen contests for seats in the Legslature, and that only three of these are private but the crowd ran over the guard of fifty men and tore it down. Their crime was the dastardly murder of an old man, aged 91, and his wife aged 76 for purposes of robbery. The fither of one W.H. & R.S. TUCKER. &.CO. of the men surrendered them to secure the $400 reward.

A Phristmas Song.

It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious sor From angels bending near the earth to touch the "Peace on the earth, good-will to men, from H The world in solemn stillness lay to hear the Still through the cloven skies they come, with And still their Heavenly music floats, o'er all Above its sad and lonely plains they bend on ho And ever of rats Babel sounds the blessed angel Bur wi woes of sin and strife the world has war with man, hears not the love-song the noise, ye men of strife, and hear the Viewe, beneath life's crushing load, whose forms o toil along the climbing way with painful ste look now! for glad and gol len hours come swiftly of Oh, rest beside the weary road, and hear the angels sing ! For lo, the days are has eneng on, by prophet-bards forefold. When, with the ever-circling years, come round the age of go When Peace shall over all the earth its ancient splendors flar angel strains have rolled two thousand

And the whole world send back the song which now the ar THE BROWNIES' CHRISTMAS SPORTS.

When Merry Christmas time comes 'round and all the world is gay, The Brownies hold high revelry from dark till dawn of day. And chief among the r Christmas sports 'tis coasting holds high place. As down the bill the fly pell-mell in reckless, joyful race. Then up again they bravely tog to try once more the fun, Fill morning comes, and with the dawn their Christmas joys are done. So we, like Brownies, should enjoy this happy Christmas Day, When Santa comes with gifts for all, and peace and mirth hold sway.

BIG IKE

The Great American Bankrupt

Has Returned from the North where he Purchased his Stock at

Greater Sacri

In Prices than ever before heard of

HIS STOCK OF CLOTING

Willis pass all through ear route from the Sec. Rev. G. W. Cherk. Fexas, N. but will receive u $2,100 chief place here. New Berne, and Second to None in the State.

> Reader let me say to you safely---Let me whisper in your ear-see me before you spend your hard earned dollar, come down and examine my stock before you buv.

BIG IKE

is thankful for past favors, and wishes to say to the people it will be to their interest

E. W. SMALL WOOT Under Gaston House, South Front Street, New Berne, N. C.

Stoves, Carpenters Tools, Cutlery, Table Ware, Barbed Wire, CALVANIZED PIPE, PUMPS.

CAR LOAD

mil Mules to suit all purposes-ages range

AUTUMN Dress - Goods.

Cloths, 2 distinctly new, rippled Bril-

THEY HAVE GOT TO GO. AND I HAVE PUT THE PRICES TO MAKE

have just arrived home from New York where I have spent six long weeks in looking up Bargains. Clothing Department A good Man's Suit for $2.98, worth $5.00. A Better Man's Suit for 4.00, worth 7.50.

A tuil line of Men and Boys' Pants to suit Special bargains in Rubber Clething Men and Ladies' Macintosh Cape Coats, Men's from $3.50 up, Ladies' from 980 up. My Underwear & Hosiery Dep't. is larger and better assorted than ever be-fore. Men's and Boys' Undershirts from the apleae up to the finest to be had. Men's Red Flannel Shirts 35 cents up. A White Lam-dried Over Shirt for 40 cents.

-A FULL LINE (OF-Dry Goods, Boots and Shees, Hats, Comforts, Blankets, & Gents' Furnishing Goods. For prices to suit the Hard Times. A lage supply of Gents' Neckwear will be sold at reduced prices.

JUST Received 500 CORSETS which will be sold yet cheap

NEW BERNE, N. C. VALUABLE · CITY · PROPERTY

WM. SULTAN, AGT.

89 Middle St., next to Berry's Drug !

One House and Lot situated on Met-Both pieces of property in excellent eighborhood.

P. H. Pelletier, s8tf Office over F. & M. Bar

It hangs upon the old elm tree In clusters high with berries

Mrs. Newlywed-How I love to hear

Mr. Newlywed-I'd like to hear them.

too, if Christmas bells were not so con-foundedly suggestive of Cristmas

MISTLETOE.

FOR THE JOURNAL

While underneath, the memory Suggests sweet lips like cherries, For on an 'eve not long ago, Some modest dames when Misses. Were caught beneath the mistletoe With tips right full of kisses. And still we have the mistletoe. But not the times of long ago,

It connot be-Oh, no, no, no! That muidens now deny it, Or men, forsake the mistletor They like too well to try it. 'Tis rather that the methods change, O'd customs do not strike 'em-The boys prefer a nearer-range, And yet the girls still like 'em. Teo long to wait for mistletoe-Between each kiss a year's too slow.

little Will in letters truly shocking, I'se been a good hoy so please fill a beapen up this stocking. I want a drum to make pa sick want a dreffle big big false lace to scare in fits our bagrand piano new when mamma goes a shopping I want a nice hard rub-

THE SNOW-MAN.

He sees through the window the children pipe, a cost, and an old straw hat. we loops of ceal and a flannel cravat.

THE SNOW ANGEL. The sleigh belis danced that winter night

But its features wasted beneath th

We have endeavored to give all pardic state | still some who have not responsed, we quark vand engerly because their excellare compelled to institute proceedings once was known. Isn't there more money Wheaton - She had finished her Christ- for the collection of same as per the re- in such farming as this, p aying good at-the various States to take enarge of the colored people. The Chief Commissioner for this Lander States and Lander States Mr. Joe Spelling arrived from N. 15 dk. | man, Concord. N. C., the entire commis-Mess I, the Roberts, Millimer, of Beauty sion for this State is as follows: at, while his temployed in the store | Rocky Mount, W. L. Pearson; Wallesof Mrs. B. Wheney for several months boro. Rev. J. S. Settle and M. Ingram; Monroe, Rev. A. A. Crooker Rocking-ham, W. H. Quick; Kittrell, Prof. Jno. R. Holiday Recess—A Splendid Record Hawkins; Norwood, Prof. H. S. Sellars; In the House—Fooling in the Senate

The Chief Commissioners in other Secretary Gresham today, urging the ap-Miss Vivian Wood is visiting friends States are: Alabama, Pres. Booker T. pointment of Walter R. Henry to some Washington; Arkansas, Rev. W. O. good position, They were very conrteous pend Coristmas with her nucle Mr. Sam'l jana, Rev. Dr. A. E. P. Albert; Missis- Fuller were the other speakers. Secresippi, Pres. I. T. Montgomery; North lary Gresham promised to present the Willis passed through on route from the Sec. Rev. G. W. Chark: Texas, N. North to spend Christmas at their homes, W. Cuney; Virginia, Prof. I. Garland,

Chief Commissione: Coleman of this behind or wanting in this matter.

"Information in full and in detail will e issued from time to time."

Practical Advice by a Practical Man but the Latest Improved Will Anred out with the correct idea that no mathinery is fit to be used except the latest that if a cotton factory is ever determined upon by our citrzens it will be equipped according to the same plan. However, i is well to strengthen correct ideas, with run here, and point to this ruin, and day to keep up with orders. whe eas not the place but the machinery my in the country.

Sunday, Jan. 13, sermons.

FULL LINE OF General Hardware.

Lime, Plaster and Cement.

DEVOES PURE READY MIXED PAINTS. Personal attention to the prompt and correct filling of a me3ar w, down from 4 to 7 years old, all of which he will Call and sec him.

----tt-o-tt----

Twilled Cloths and large Plaids for Skirts, "on of self colored and fancy mixed Suitings.

RALEIGH, N. C.

For price and particulars, apply to

FOR SALE. One House (Eight Rooms) and large Lot situated on East Front Street. calf Street.

In the light of the sun that winter day, be interested to know that a locametive which cost $30,000 ten years ago can be bought to lay for $9,000. A reduction of $21,000 is a big item to consider when

Better than Cotton.

The same price per pound, 121 cents, versil.

trikeys and gesse have been specially a malent, and among the firest that were a the market were those brought in by Jan. 6th. All the Churches of our Lord Jesus Christ are juvited to unite their upon which the Republicans base their V. T. J. B. Ellis of Perfection, along with supplications at the beginning of the new claim that they will have more members of the same high qual- year for the common interests of the than the Populists. The faul a two-horse wag on load of Church of Christ. The general subjects | While children at Elberton, Ga., who | Now on sale carefully First maid and gradual gradual gradual and gradual gra

N. C. Christian Advocate.

Most W. Limberake went up to Kinthe distriction of the plans to make this department of the Congress adjourds to morrow to meet

Bill will be passed after the recess in which the National Binking System, Other changes are contemplated

....Personals....Business Men to the on account of the am on pullou proclama- with r or v - a samp-on County. Washington, Rev. O. L. W. Smith, Prof. The adjournment of Congress today, tion celebration by the example the same proper to the plant of the control of the same proper tion.

Mr. who, Allows in the crystor the larger than a section of the control of the contr ton, has been appointed receiver at the First National Bank of Wilmington, in Mr John S ymour is also home Dudley, Rev. L T. Christmas and Rev. Hon, John S. Henderson, and carrying A. F. Moore: Wilson, Prof. S. H. Vick $196,000 for the fast southern mail is Mass Annie May Ringles came in on and Rev. Dr. W. J. Moore; Winston S. G. master piece. The Committee on Bank and R. E. Cle- ing and Currency recommended a substi-Femrie College, to spend Christmas with ment; Edenton, R. M. Lee and McDonald; tute to the Carlisle bill in which the Plymouth, Rev. H. S. Hicks and Prof. National Banking system will be con-H. C. Crosby; Winton, Rev. C. S. tinued. Other changes are suggested. Brown and W. T. Newsome; Henderson, The Senate has been three weeks fooling of Lexington, Ky., en route a his home near Polloksville, for the W. Alston and Th. S. Leatherwood; Beaulution be adopted or not." His is in holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Maine, of Brooklyn, arrive to spend the Christmas season with their daugher Mrs. Wm. M.

Department of the Christmas season of the Christmas season and R. B. Fitzgerald: Favette-spend to take care of themselves. The Pearson and R. B. Fitzgerald; Fayette- able to take care of thems-lves, Miss Larra Dickinson, of New York, ville, Bishop J. W. Hood, Geo. C. Scurtrue situation in the Senate is outlined in arrived to visit her sister Mrs. J. F. lock. P. N. Melchor; Goldsboro, E. E. a cartoon in the able Washington Post of > Mr. Beni, Hulm returned on the steam- Chas. N. Hunter, Rev. Dr. N. F. Reberts Ransom, and compose t of Congression Prof. W. H. Crogmen; Louis; which of their call. Mr. Aycock and Mr. C. Coleman; Such matte, to the President. I have reason to The statues of John Sack and Daniel Some of these already have a eir States in Webster were unveiled in Statuary Hall > > progress already occupied by the negro. ex-Governor Thomas W. Holt, who with t is also an opportunity to demonstrate every one of his progressive brothers are to manked what we are in our present men of a calibre the entire South ought publicies and what we prophesy for the to be proud to honor. When such men "North Carolina cannot afford to be tives, the whirl of machinery, the influx > > > others I might mention somewhere on to see him. deck when the Democratic Ship of State sails triumphant between the dangerous

HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY. After all ex-President Harrison may onclude that being Secretary of State is nore to his taste. If men didn't get sick and tired of boarding-houses there would be very few narriages. Stewed prunes drive lots of Rudyard Kipling, after sending his fir promoters by a correspondent of the two or three stories to nearly every pub lisher in England, finally sold them for $15. His last story brought him $1,000 for the English rights alone. Robert J. Aldrich was found dead on ail; ead track near St. Augustine, Fla. It is supposed he was killed by a passing rain while drunk and as eep. His mother lives at Barnell, S. C.

retary Herbert to send the cruss r Marb e- the WEST with a car load of fine Horses It has been practically decided by Secto a mill in Chattanoaga can compete with she can be made ready for a three yearruise It is understood that the present sell cheap for Cash or Negotiable paper. lury is given to the officers of the sleep as eward for their Summer stay at Blue-

Four thousant people attended the exe Tuesday, Jan 8, "The Church Uni engine of two murerers at Maynardsville Tenn. Saturday. A stockade had been At 50; per yard, an extraordinary collec-Wednesday, Jan. 9, "Nations and their erected with the intention of having it