THE ATLANTA EXPOSITION.

It Will Rank Next to the World's Fair—Organization of the Enterprise.

From all that has been said in relation to Atlanta, and concerning the magnificent country of which she is the natural commercial center...

If the impression prevails anywhere in the vast territory covered by the circulation of The Chicago Herald that Atlanta's exposition of 1895 is to be southern, or merely an American affair, the impression will be very speedily dissipated.

The American Missionaries in China have called the President to take measures for their protection. Consul General Jernigan is active in doing what he can to aid them.
