RALEIGH, N. C., February 20, '97. Today was the 40th of the legislative session. There yet remains 20 more working days. The rush of business is trength and mealthfulness. Assures the now sure to be very great. The Repullicans are angry and desperate at the delays in putting measures through. Then constituents, particularly their negrconstituents are pressing them. A bolting Populist said last night at the session of the house that his line of policy was to do the reverse of anything which the Democrats do. This man is about tw removes from an anarchist.

The session of the Senate special comittee next Monday afternon to conside the bill to annul the lease of the N. C. i. R., will attract a great many people. i will exceed in interest the noted session of the House committee. The presencof President Hoffman of the S. A. L. wi. add a new feature.

The president of the North Carolin railroad declares he is more convicted | 41 6 4 1 now than ever before of the excelled business success of the lease. He say the Southern can if the lease be annulla build a link to Mocksville, or eise on build a link from Kernersville to Reids ville and make a route from Greensbor to Norfolk much shorter than the on | Arrington's charge. A new section has been put in the revenue act. It imposes a tax on legaciocollaterally (save for charitable uses 1 per cent. No admistrator or executor ito be permitted to file final account untisuch tax is paid.

It is said that next Monday a commission will be issued to B. S. Royster Oxford as inspector general of the Stat-Guard. He had for several years bec assistant inspector general.

There was some talk last night an today about Gov, Russell as a success ; to the late Judge Seymour as judge the U. S. district court. A Republicasaid that even if the position were terdered Gov. Russell he felt sure he wou. not accept it, as he would give up in position as Governor for only one other -that of U. S. Senator. He added that the Governor greatly desires to succee-

Butler as Senator. It is stated that the Seabour I Air Line proposes to build the recentiv charteres Moore county and Western rations from Aberdeen to Concerni, and that a will put a surveying party in the field next week.

Two negro clerks, Quick and Young are now in the enrolling clerk's officand last night the bolting Populists has a caucus and named 3 new clerks. There ! are now two chiefs, at $5 a day each and 13 assistants at the same figure. total expense of, $75 a day. The ex-enrole ing clerk A. L. Swinson files a demand for the whole session and notifies the president of the Senate and the Speaker of the House that he is ready to attento the duties, and is still enrolling clerk Swinson says that he dut not dertife to the time of 3 of the Populist assistants who were put on January 13, but that Hill King, principal clerk of the Senati certified them, and put them on as from January 8. Swinson swears to this before gressman-elect John E. Fowler, of the 8rd district, and Col. W. B. Rodman, of Washingtion, N. C.

The scramble of the Republicans for the position of railway commissioner is now livelier than ever, Some are drop ping out, but new ones conge in. At leas a dozen want the place.

While the House refused to take a day's holiday to attend the New Borns Pair, after the Senate had adopted a resolution to that effect, yet a great many members will got It is said only to a bills will be considered on Wednesday.
