

Crystals furnished and put on your watch for 10c. Baxter the Jeweler.

Call and examine Rountree's ladies roller tray trunk at J. J. Baxter's.

Sewing machine needles of all kinds can be had at Baxter's, the Jeweler.

The festive watermelon still continues to grace our market and some of them are very fine for so late in the season.

The railroad travel is fair to medium, being held up by the returning tourists who have spent the season at the various resorts.

The new steam laundry on Middle street is in full operation, and is receiving a good patronage from the people of the city.

A colored man named General Rouse was arrested and placed in the county jail, yesterday, on a serious charge.

The cotton men are getting ready for business, and the outlook is for a good trade here this Fall and Winter in this staple.

The death of Mr. Benjamin Taylor, a prominent citizen of Carteret county, living near Newport, occurred yesterday. Mr. Taylor was about 70 years of age.

The weather was quite oppressive yesterday, being a dry kind of heat. Sharp lightning in the North during the evening gave some promise of relief to come.

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Centenary M. E. church will be held at the residence of Mrs. L. M. Hendren this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Mr. A. J. Smith has consolidated his two stores by moving his stock in the building at the Market dock to his store further up the street, next to L. H. Cutler & Co.

A lady in this city succeeded in making 827 words out of the two words "The Columbian," which has been a matter of contest for a prize offered by a northern periodical.

Mr. William Dunn of this city has been appointed by Gov. Russell, a delegate at large from North Carolina, to the National Farmers Congress which meets this month at Minneapolis.

Mr. S. R. Ball, of Craven Lodge, Knights of Harmony, of this city went down to Beaufort, Monday, and established a lodge of the same order at that place. The lodge will be known as Carteret Lodge.

The presence of Maj. Graham Daves is announced from Wilmington where he is in attendance at the bedside of his wife whose condition is regarded as very critical from a stroke of paralysis.

The trial of the colored man known as General Rouse, accused of assault, was held before Justice E. G. Hill yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The man was held over to the Criminal Court under $250 bail.

The first bale of new cotton was sold on this market Wednesday. It was brought in by Mr. L. A. Hayward, who lives near Trenton. Mr. Hayward also sold the first bale last year, on August 17th, two weeks earlier than this year.

The schooner Annie E. Reynolds, Captain E. T. Hill, is loading lumber at the Clark Lumber Company mill for Tangier Island, eastern shore Maryland. The captain says the cargo he is after is a special order to build a church at the above named place.

Mr. Jim Simmons, heavy hitter of the New Berne ball club, left for Raleigh yesterday morning. He will remain at the Capital for some days before going on to the University at Chapel Hill, where he may be heard from on the foot ball team during the fall.

A Blahonest Buyer.
A tobacco farmer, Benj. Scott of Jacksonville, dealing with a dishonest buyer.

A "pinhooker" tobacco buyer met Scott on the street and offered him $10 for what tobacco he had, and the offer was accepted. The "pinhooker" then resold the tobacco on the floor but made a loss of about $1.50 on the speculation. He then met Scott on Middle street and handed him $5.00, saying that he would give him the remainder in a few minutes. Mr. Scott waited patiently but the buyer did not appear again, and he finally concluded that he was out the money.

The buyers name is unknown, but if found out he will suffer. Tobacco growers, if they do not sell their product on the warehouse floor, should be careful to know to whom they are selling, and if they are careless must not hold this market responsible for their loss.

Services at Pollockville.
Rev. B. J. Melton, State Evangelist of Christian church, will preach in the Disciple church at Pollockville on Saturday night, also Sunday and Sunday night, September 4th and 5th.

DIED.
In this city Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Sabra D. Stransbery, mother of A. T. Stransbery. The funeral services will be held at her late residence 201 Pollock street, this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances invited to attend.

Tobacco Market.
The tobacco sales yesterday were good and satisfactory to the sellers. Mr. J. A. Clark, late of the Asheville market, was on the floor yesterday. He is pleased with this market and is likely to locate here as a tobacco buyer. He made liberal purchases on the floor yesterday.

Fell Into His Own Hole.
The Kingston Free Press in its efforts to "make" news at the expense of a New Berne merchant last week, ignoring the ordinary rules of courtesy at the same time, fell into the mistake of giving its own town a boost at the expense of La Grange. His error in this was soon evident, and its attempts to creep out of the hole into which it fell.

Gentlemen's Social Club.
A club composed of twenty-two charter members has been formed in this city, which will have for its object the closer social union of the gentlemen who have no members of it, and also a club to entertain visitors who may be in New Berne, on pleasure or business.

Rooms on Middle street, opposite the JOURNAL building have been rented, and will be handsomely furnished.

The club has not been named, as yet, but it will be given one before its quarters are ready for occupancy, which will be in a few days.

The Trent River Bridge.
The County Commissioners have received notice that the place, Metcalf road, from where it is proposed to build the bridge over the Trent river, will conflict with the law, as it will not allow enough space between it and the railroad bridge.

At their next meeting the commissioners will take some action on the matter, and make a new contract for this bridge that will not conflict with the law.

Back From Black Mountain.
Mrs. E. H. Meadows and Major Cartaway returned last night from Black Mountain where they have spent most of the summer. They report the "Social Whirl" at the Mount Mitchell hotel as vigorous and intense, that they really had to leave for a "much needed rest."

Card parties, book parties, quotation parties, and many other parties were the order of the evening, and on Wednesday evening, Mrs. F. G. Mitchell was to give an Anaconda party which was likely to eclipse anything that had gone before.

In all these social contests, prizes were awarded to the most successful.

In this matter New Berne has held a good hand. In a book party Mrs. J. L. Gomer came off victor, in a conundrum contest Miss Virginia Simmons won the prize. But the best of all was that in a quotation contest, Mrs. J. G. Hughes, was the victor.

In one card party the successful knight was Mr. Peter Knowles who had passed seventy six summers at this and other places. And the gentleman's prize in a conundrum contest went to Rev. Dr. Wallace of the Theological Seminary at Alexandria.

While all this was going on the Spiritual temperature may be indicated by the presence of four Episcopal clergymen, three of whom are D. D.'s, and one day five were present of whom four bore that degree.

The promoters of amusement were much of New Berne. Misses Manly, Oliver, Bryan and Benton doing a full share. But by common consent the banner of grand promoter has been awarded to Miss Mary T. Oliver.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The buyers name is unknown, but if found out he will suffer. Tobacco growers, if they do not sell

SWANBORO.
Mrs. E. H. Barnum and children of New Berne, who have been rusticated here for the last month, left today for E. R. Hargett's at Silverdale to spend a short time. Then they will go to Richlands to visit Mrs. Julia Stephens, mother of Mrs. Barnum, before returning to their home in the city.

Luther Provow of Florida, is in town. He came here from Baltimore, Md., where he has been at John Hopkins University for two months, under treatment for rheumatism. He has improved considerably so he says. Mr. Provow was born and raised in Pamlico county, and left here for Florida some six years ago. He has made money at his trade there, that of a mechanic.

Miss Josephine Kent of Wilmington is visiting J. T. Bartley here, who is her cousin.

Last Saturday was a big day here, Lodge day and Sunday School Conference. Several speeches were made on Sunday schools. Rev. I. N. Henderson, Dr. J. W. Sanders and Mr. David S. Aman, (principally) the latter was the humorous orator of the day, and kept the audience with their mouths spread all the time.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Aman, Miss Viola Provow and Robt. O. McLean of Palo Alto, Mr. and Mrs. Nash Mattocks and children, and Mrs. E. B. Hargett and children of Silverdale, were visitors here last Saturday and Sunday.

John A. Weeks and his pretty daughter Emma, Misses Isora Jones and sister Mamie and Miss Gertrude Moore of Cedar Point, Carteret county, were here last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Misses Henrietta Jarman and niece Lena, of Jacksonville were visitors here last Friday and Saturday.

Lots of people in town this week, mostly to attend to the Baptist meeting now going on. This meeting spoken of before, is still going on under the powerful preaching of the Rev. D. C. R. Taylor, the great "boy preacher." Every day and night the large roomy church is crowded with interested listeners, and every day and night members ask for prayers, and some join the church every day, up to date, Sept. 1st, 33 have joined, 35 have already been baptized, and at the close of the meeting which is supposed will be tomorrow, more will join and 10 or 12 more will be baptized. Bro. Ben Ward administers the rite of baptism.

Next Sunday the M. E. Church here will commence a series of meetings conducted by Rev. W. Q. A. Graham, J. L. Stephenson and others. It looks like Swansboro is getting better and we think it high time.

J. A. Pittman went to Pollockville this week on business. Capt. M. E. Bloodgood, schooner G. Taulam leaves tomorrow for Charleston S. C., to engage in the rice trade. Schooner Geo. A. Hawes, beverage master, arrived in port yesterday to load with lumber from the saw mill here. The little steamer Onslow was launched last Monday all O. K., the big one is in here in mid stream yet.

Alfred Martin Dead.
One of Wilmington's most prominent citizens, Mr. Alfred Martin died on Wednesday last. He died at the age of 85 years, and leaves four children, Mr. Eugene S. Martin, the well known lawyer, Mr. W. A. Martin, Mrs. Emma Maffitt, widow of Capt. Maffitt of the Confederate Navy, and Mrs. Kate Maffitt, widow of Capt. Maffitt, an officer on the famous "Alabama." Mr. Martin lived in New Berne in his early years and was mayor of Wilmington for several terms. The funeral was held yesterday from St. James Church.

Picnicing Yesterday.
A party of young people went on a picnic yesterday across the Neuse, at the attractive grounds of Oak Grove and enjoyed a fine dinner under the trees.

In the afternoon the party went sailing down the Neuse on Mr. Jim Duffy's yacht, with Capt. Allen Bragg of New York as skipper.

Among those who made up the merry party were Misses Nettie Davis of Wilmington, Mollie Credle of Swan Quarter, Mamie Tolson, Maude Foy, Mamie Berry, Vidie Gaskill of New Berne. Mrs. A. Alphin made a very pleasant chaperone.

The gentlemen were: Messrs. Howard Styron, Tom Kehoe, Fred Alphin, H. R. Royall, Cecil Taylor, John Tolson, of New Berne, and Mr. Edwin Davis of Wilmington.

Mrs. Elizabeth Phoebe Key Howard, only surviving daughter of Francis Scott Key, author of the song "The Star-Spangled Banner," is seriously ill at her summer residence in Maryland. She is nearly 1 1/2 years of age.

CAUSES COMMENT.
That a Wilmington Bank Should Hold N. C. R. R. Funds.

Shook in the Congressional Race. Populist Open a Campaign. Low Death Rate. Delegation to go to Winchester. More Printing Bills Presented.

For some time there has been work going on at Fort Caswell at the mouth of the Cape Fear river where the old fort is being thoroughly renovated and equipped. Mr. T. C. Harris of this city has been there in the capacity of draughtsman. Mr. Harris is here now, but will soon go to West Point where he has a good position.

Riding on the train from the freight depot to the passenger station here is quite a pastime with a number of boys, white and colored. Yesterday a negro boy 17 years old swung on to a ladder of a box car, lost his hold and fell between the cars. Both legs were nearly cut off and his shoulder torn. He was taken to the hospital and both legs amputated, but he died before night.

The news of the failure in New York yesterday of Cutler & Co., brokers, was a surprise. It is said the failure caught a good many in this State.

There are many comments on the fact that the National Bank of Wilmington has been made the depository of all funds belonging to the N. C. R. R. Wilmington is not any where near the line of the North Carolina road. The fact that the directors of the road, some of whom are connected with the bank, have created the office of assistant secretary of the board with a $600 salary and given the same to a son of State Treasurer Worth.

Mr. J. Wiley Shook says he will be in the race for Congressional honors from the 9th district, the district Hon. Richmond Pearson has been representing. He declares against the civil service system and says he will make no comments on Mr. Pearson's works. He clubs Governor Russell "as a creature of Republican incident."

The Baptist State convention has been beset with $7,000 for home missions by a Mr. Carpenter of Yadkin county. There is a child who it is said will contest the will.

The Southern R. R. yesterday paid its taxes amounting to $337,492 to the State Treasurer.

The Populists have begun their campaign in the State. Speakers are badly needed.

The city board of health gives a report of only 14 deaths in the city during the month of August. There has been only 40 deaths here for June, July and August this year, while in July 1896 there were 40 deaths.

The L. O. B. Branch Camp of Confederate veterans met last night and decided if possible, to send a big delegation to the laying of the corner stone of the Confederate monument to North Carolina soldiers buried at Winchester, Va. The headstones for the graves there, over 400 will be formally dedicated on September 17th. These headstones were secured by the N. C. Ladies Monumental Association of which Mrs. Armistead Jones of this city is the efficient president, and through whose efforts was raised the magnificent Confederate Monument here in Capital square.

Stewart Bros., ex-public printers have presented a bill against the State for $6,711, saying the State owes them over that much more.

State Superintendent of public instruction will deliver an address at the laying of the corner stone of the public library to be built in Durham. He responds to "The State and the Public Library."

Work on the big Sunday School room of the Presbyterian church has been resumed.

Durham county has fallen into line of macadamizing the public roads, using convict labor.

Tobacco King Coming.
Richmond, August 31. Isadore Gluckstein, of the firm of Salmon & Gluckstein, known as the tobacco and cigar kings of Great Britain, and having 300 retail stores in London and the provinces, is in the city. The result of his visit is sure to be of great value to America. His firm is building a bonded warehouse, one of the largest in England, and will be a very heavy importer of American tobacco. He visited Louisville and made large purchases of tobacco there. He will make heavy purchases here, and for the same purpose he will go to Richmond and Lynchburg, Va.

While in New York he contracted for a number of cigarette machines and placed an order for 30,000,000 paper cigarettes.

Mr. John Drew Dead.
New York, August 31.—Mr. John Drew, the actress, died this afternoon at Larchmont.

With the passing of Mrs. John Drew, there has parted one of the few links that unite the present generation with the grandest galaxy that has ever illuminated the Arctican dramatic firmament. She was contemporaneous, and appeared upon the stage in leading parts with the elder Booth and Forrest, with Macready and Edwin Booth, with Florence, Clarke and Owen, of those who have passed away, and with Jefferson and Coulter, who still survive.

NOT MAD ARE YOU?
Two Points of Resemblance.
She—"Oh! Is that Miss Gotroff? I understand she's as rich as Klondike."
He—"Yes; and they say fortune hunters find her just as cold."—Puck.

Up to Date.
A little fresh air child saw a herd of cows for the first time, and, after watching them chewing their ends, in amazement he said deprecatingly to the farmer, "Oh mister, do you have to buy gum for all those cows to chew?"—EX.

Out of Practice.
Farmer Clovertop—Wot did that there boy o' yours learn at college?
Farmer Hayrick—Well he learned Greek, an' Latin, an' foot ball, an' fencin', an' lot o' things.

Blood Will Tell.
"The Quoniam Republican" recounts the case of a widower down there with two children, who married a widow who also had two children. To this union was born two children, and the other day the man went into the house and said to his wife: "Sarah, your children and my children are thumping the stuffing out of our children."—Kansas City Journal.

A Necessary Operation.
The physicians in charge had decided that an operation should be performed.
"Do you think," asked a relative, anxiously, "that the operation will do any good?"
"Well, I should say it would," replied the doctor confidently.
"And he'll live?"
"Oh, dear, no; not at all. But it will settle a medical point that has been in dispute for the last fifty years."

Tobacco Warehouse

For the sale of LEAF TOBACCO.

E. M. PACE, NEW BERNE, N. C.

SIZE 90 X 150 FEET. BASEMENT FOR GRADING 70 X 150.

This market commends itself to the growers of Tobacco, where you can have it handled right and sold right, for as much money as any market.

Here are some of our reasons: Because, we are determined to have a tobacco market.

Because, we are familiar with what is necessary.

Because, we are going to pay best prices. Because, we are going to bank by our say. Because, we are not going to be outdone by any.

Because, we are not unmindful of the wants of the raisers, and that it is prices that builds a market. The grading department will be under my personal supervision and shall be done right, at the lowest price consistent with good work. We want your trade, and promise you in advance top figures.

We have secured the services as Auctioneer of Jno. Y. Barber, my old patrons know him, and knowing him is to say, he is first-class and can't be driven away from a pile until he has gotten the last copper there is in it. Bring or ship your tobacco to New Berne, prompt returns by mail, by check, or currency by express.

Any information on the subject given for the asking. Your Friend truly, E. M. PACE, Manager & Salesman.
