Smith Island Suit Settled, Winston's Postmaster, Congressman Skinner on That Collectorship Question, Supreme Court Decisions.

JOURNAL BUREAU,
RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 9, 1907.

There is a suit pending in the United States court known as the Government vs. P. P. Deyoung, Trustee and others, concerning the ownership of Smith's Island at the mouth of the Cape Fear river opposite Southport. This case was heard before Judge Parnell at Wilmington last week and today he writes his decision in the case in favor of T. P. Deyoung and the others connected with him.

Prof. Massey of the A. M. M. college resigns as biologist and etnologist to the post commission which commission meets here next week.

It is said that Senator Pritchard and Congressman Lantry have both endorsed F. H. Lybrook for postmaster at Winston. Lybrook was chief marshal at the last State Fair. The Raleigh postmaster question is still unsettled.

Miss Jessie Ackerman of Chicago will give a talk on "The Women of Ireland" at the Governor's mansion tomorrow afternoon.

There are 18 prisoners in the jail here of course the crowd will be reduced as Judge Parnell attends to their cases before the U. S. court here.

Governor Russell has again gone to Wilmington. He intended giving the Methodist conference a reception at the mansion on Monday night, thinking that they would not adjourn until Tuesday.

Reports from the Auditors office say that it is probable that the tax receipts for this year will probably exceed the amount expected. In many counties, the principal list is being very much reduced. Many persons, who have not paid taxes for years are coming forward and paying now. This is one possibility for fear of imprisonment for non-payment of taxes. In Rowan county the sheriff has collected $20,000 against $10,000 this year last year.

It is said that George Caldwell Elizabeth City still hopes to get the editorship for this district, although there seems little doubt that E. C. Duncan of Carteret will be the man.

Reverend Mr. Stronghold who is the Baptist agent for collecting funds for the Baptist Female University has gone to the convention at Oxford with his report. He has this year collected $12,000. He will require fully $50,000 more to complete the work. He hopes to make good collections at the convention.

Judge Parnell has transferred all criminal actions from the U. S. Court to the U. S. District court. This is done so as to give more fees to his appointee, J. B. Fortune as clerk of the district court. Of course clerk Rutledge is not well pleased.

Mr. Sam Watt who comes here, being his life by the street cars one week ago has so far recovered as to be carried from the hospital to his home here.

Keeper Burns of Capital square farm is preparing to make the ground under his care a perfect rose garden. He is putting out 150 rose bushes.

George Cuth who still hopes for the editorship of this district to Harry Skinner's man. Skinner has been putting his claims and eyes of Cuth to rest by pointing that it will mean a Democratic Congressman from the 1st district and a Democratic legislator.

The N. C. Exposition it will soon be filled and then a few of facts will be changed to see it. This will go to the St. Luke's Circle of King's Daughters for the benefit of the 72nd Ladies Home that is under that circle.

Supreme Court decisions were handed down as follows:

State vs. Senner from Lenoir, judgment affirmed by consent, State vs. Pate from Yadon, affirmed, Ross vs. Roberts, from Davie, reversed, State vs. Graham, from Catawba, new trial, State vs. Wilson, from Yadon, new trial, State vs. Austin, from Yadon, remanded for proceedings below, Raboy vs. Hines, from Forsyth, affirmed, Osborne vs. Furniture Company, from McDowell, error, Gillan vs. Insurance Company, from Burke, action dismissed, Howell vs. Sims, from Yadon, reversed, State vs. Simmons, from Wilkes, affirmed, State vs. Williams, from Alleghany, affirmed, State vs. Byrd, from Mitchell, affirmed.

As Viewed in Cuba.

HAVANA, Cuba, Dec. 5. A summary of President McKinley's message, published in the afternoon papers, exercised a distinctly calming effect on the sentiment of vague unrest which has prevailed Havana during the last few days.

Expressions of satisfaction because of the dignified, conservative tone of the message are heard on all sides. On the part of the autonomists it was greeted as an assurance that the people of the United States hold friendly sentiments toward Spain, and that no fears need be entertained that every consideration will be accorded to the government in its efforts to pacify the island by the speedy establishment of an autonomic regime.

Judge Buck a Suicide.

Special to Journal.
DICKENS, MONTANA, Dec. 7. Judge Horace Buck, of the Supreme court, committed suicide here, today.

European Criticism.

London, Dec. 6. The London morning papers not little to comment on the President's message. The comments are various and it is considered too patronizing to Spain. The message is unfavorably contrasted with Mr. Cleveland's utterances. The Times says that Mr. McKinley seems to still be following the silver Will-o'-the-Wisp. The Standard says he represents the new tariff again in a confessedly a failure.

PRESIDENT AT CANTON.

Another McKinley Growing Weaker Every Day.

Special to Journal.
CANTON, O., Dec. 7. The President's party left Washington last night at 7:20 and arrived here this morning at 8:45.

Another McKinley's condition is unchanged, except she is weaker.

Mexican Treaty.

Special to Journal.
WASHINGTON, D. C., December 7. The President has sent the Mexican treaty to the Senate.

The treaty is for one year within which time the boundary line is to be determined by an International Commission.

Latest News Items.

The Hague, December 7. Wilhelm, King of the Netherlands, will take the oath of accession to the throne on September 6, 1898, in the new church at Amsterdam.

San Francisco, December 6. John W. Sims committed suicide yesterday evening by shooting himself. He left a note stating that he had killed his wife at Caldwell, N. C., on June 29, 1895, and had been sent to the Morganton Insane Asylum since that time, but subsequently escaped.

Atlanta, Ga., December 7. Governor Akers today sent to the Legislature his veto of the anti-foot-bill. Starting in vigorous English his objections to the measure. He holds the bill to be purely physical and mental, which the student derives from the game, and begs the Legislature to reconsider its action.

Washington, Dec. 7. Senator Butler today introduced an amendment to the postal savings bank bill providing for the introduction of savings banks at beginning, at first, second and third-class postoffice, and only suggesting various other changes.

Washington, Dec. 7. A new member in Mr. H. Desno Money, of Mississippi, was introduced in the Senate today, and after some brief criticism of the form of his credentials, the oath of office was administered to him. Mr. Money was assigned to the seat formerly occupied by Mr. Daniel of Virginia, the latter securing the seat in the center of the Democratic side which was occupied by the late Senator George.

Washington, Dec. 8. Secretary Gage has submitted to the Department of State his report upon the action of the Treasury Department in suppressing filibustering expeditions to Cuba, in violation of the neutrality laws. The secretary points out the fact that during two and a half years only six American vessels, of an aggregate of 1,443 registered tons, are alleged to have successfully landed expeditions from the United States in Cuba.

Berlin, Dec. 8. The official account of the collection of an indemnity from Hayti accompanied by a salute of the German flag at Port Au Prince on Monday last, owing to the alleged illegal arrest of Herr Emil Landers, says that after the ultimatum of Germany had been delivered to the Haytian government, the German cruiser Stein cleared for action.

Financial Legislation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 8. The House Committee on Banking and Currency, which will have the shaping of a considerable portion of the financial legislation before the House, held its first meeting this morning and outlined its general plan of action.

In view of Secretary Gage's recommendation of a comprehensive revision of the currency and banking affairs, a resolution was adopted inviting the Secretary to embody his views in a bill. The committee was informed that the Secretary was now at work on a measure and that it would be available for the committee in about a week.

Secretary of the Treasury Makes His Report.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7. The annual report of the Secretary of the Treasury sent to Congress today shows that the total receipts for the year ended June 30, 1907, were $480,378,167, and the expenditures $448,480,022, leaving a deficit for the year of $31,898,145. The receipts for the year 1906, by $30,911,730. The customs, it is shown yielded $176,554,126 and in internal revenue sources $146,688,574.

As compared with 1906 this is an increase in the customs of $16,322,874 and in internal revenue of $4,342,731.

The Secretary at some length argues the need of a reform in the currency and in conclusion makes a number of recommendations.

ASYLUM REPORT.

Superintendent Kirby Makes a Favorable Showing.

Morganton Bank Matter New Trial in Insurance Case. The Boy Pate to Hang. Yankin Railroad Bonds. Popu Lists are Sick.

JOURNAL BUREAU,
RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 9, 1907.

The board of directors of the Insane Asylum here were in session yesterday. Superintendent Kirby gave a most excellent report for the year. There had been 181 patients received, 90 had been sent out cured, 10 as improved, one as incurable and there had been 25 deaths. The ratio of deaths to the number treated 5 per cent. The improvement of the grounds, the yield of the garden and farm were all shown. The per capita for maintenance has decreased since 1893 from $192 to $143 per year. The inadequate appropriation by the legislature has made it necessary to incur a debt of $5,500 for heating, lighting and furnishing the building annex. J. C. Harris appeared before the board with a message from the governor, that he thought provision should be made for the receipt of all meritorious cases, even though the appropriation be inadequate. The governor did not want it said, that during his administration, a single meritorious case had been refused admission.

Dr. Kirby said to comply with requests for all such cases it would put fully 400 patients in the hospital daily with an appropriation of $55,400 and that they could not be cared for with that amount. There was no change made in any of the officials.

When Federal court adjourns on Monday it will adjourn to meet again the 3rd of January. Clerk Fortune took charge of the book and records of the criminal cases of the current court.

Mr. E. H. Busby yesterday returned from Morganton. He says that General Cowles did not try to force himself in the bank, but that he made demands for the bond in the usual way. Wilson is now in possession of the bank. Both claims will be heard, and then it will be seen whether the creditors or the State Treasurer will have the naming of the permanent receiver.

It will be remembered that J. L. Graham of Newton, who was chief clerk in Superintendent of Public Instruction office was charged and convicted of burning his home for insurance money was fined $400. The Supreme Court yesterday granted him a new trial.

In the case of Bibby Pate a young boy 18 years old who in a drunken row killed his companion a boy of 15 in Yadon county the Supreme Court sustained the opinion of the lower court, and the boy will give his life for that of his companion.

One of the important cases before the Supreme Court is the one in which the commissioners of Stanley county against the county treasurer for paying interest on the Yankin railroad bonds. The commissioners claim that the railroad did not come to the terms of the contract. The sum involved is $100,000.

Under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy, the National Corp. Band of Baltimore, will give a concert here on the night of the 14th.

Mr. L. O. Branch, of this city, has presented to the N. C. Room in the Union tobacco Museum at Richmond, an oil portrait of her husband Gen. Lawrence O. Branch.

Inspector General Royster today inspected the State arsenal. In the arsenal is kept camp equipments for 2,000 men.

It is said throughout the county that the Populists are so disgraced with 5 cotton and present administration that they are going to back the Democrats largely.

Many cotton growers are indignant at the effort on the part to regulate the cotton acreage and say they will not submit to it.

There are complaints that the S. A. E. are not following the R. R. commission's schedule made for freight rates on cotton.

The State association of city school superintendents will meet in Greensboro, Dec. 28.

Dr. R. B. Ellis has resigned as county coroner. His health has not been good for some time.

Trouble in Hayti.

Port of Prince, Hayti, Dec. 8. The trouble between Germany and Hayti as a result of the arrest and imprisonment of Herr Landers, an alleged German subject, has been raised to a new height.

Two German consuls entered the port during the morning and an ultimatum from the German government was delivered to the Haytian government, giving the latter eight hours in which to grant the demands of Germany for an indemnity to Herr Landers.

In a quiet way of trouble the citizens of German nationality sought to figure out a way to avoid the ultimatum which was at the port and the French steamer Y. de Marsailles has been requisitioned by the French Minister to make a voyage as a place of refuge for French citizens.

The population of this place is in a state of great excitement, but the Haytian government has strong forces of troops at its disposal and is resolved to maintain order.

John D. Cameron, Dead.

Special to Journal.
RICHMOND, Dec. 9. John D. Cameron died today in Asheville. He was the oldest telegrapher in N. C. Cameron was 81 years of age. He was an editor and conducted newspapers in 19 cities of Hillsboro, Durham, Raleigh and Asheville. He took a leading part in all matters pertaining to the press, and he presided over the Press Association. In public life he was nearly 50 years president of the lower House of the State and was always a prominent political partisan.

Democrats in Caucus.

Washington, Dec. 8. The Democracy of the House will caucus soon on party policy. Representative Richards, the caucus chairman, said today that he was consulting with members as to what day would suit them, and he expected the meeting would occur the later part of this week or the early next week.

Restlessness in Havana.

HAVANA, Cuba, Dec. 8. In spite of the effect of President McKinley's message, the attitude of the Havana volunteers continues to cause considerable anxiety to the government.

During the last week there has been a large force of regular troops concentrated in the forts and barracks, prepared to suppress a demonstration. The volunteers are in a sullen mood, but their animosity, it is now believed, is directed rather at autonomy than at American rule.

They declare that if Spain cannot protect them they desire American rule, but that they will never submit to be ruled by Cubans. In this movement the circumstances are apparent, as the circumstances have declared their intention of wearing a white feather on their hats.

Spain is Pleased With the President's Message.

Madrid, Dec. 7. The cabinet today considered dispatches from Senor de Lome, Spanish minister at Washington, containing extracts from President McKinley's message to Congress.

The ministers agreed in considering the message generally favorable to Spanish interests. It has produced a good effect in official circles, but it is pointed out that the paragraphs relating to the alleged rights of the United States to intervene in the Cuban question are calculated to displease the Spanish people.

The Hawaiian Treaty.

WASHINGTON, December 8. It is stated by those in a position to know that the reason the Hawaiian treaty is not pushed in the Senate is because the friends of the measure have grave doubts as to their ability to secure the necessary two-thirds vote to pass it. The impression prevails that it may be necessary to pass a joint resolution and annex the islands by legislation. It has been found that a number of senators who were confident they counted on for the treaty are against it, while others have expressed doubts about their own vote.
