the vessel was caused by a torpedo. This has caused the wildest excitement in the city of Havana. It is believed here that a Spanish fanatic or a secret emissary of the Spanish government floated a torpedo under against the forward magazine of the battleship. That the torpedo was set with a detonating device, that, allowed the perpetrator time to escape.

It is stated that is the belief of Captain Sigshee of the Maine, and that he has communicated this view of the matter to the Navy Department.

The croiser Montgomery has been dered from San Domingo to Key West: The Key West bulletin regarding the hale found by divers to the plate of the Maine was hown to President McKinley. The President and that he had not heard the report up to that time and that he does not wish to make any statement but said that the administration had no advices concerning the report

Plans to raise the wreck of the Maine are being already considered. Wreaking crews are directed to proceed to Herana at once to go to work.

Admiral Sicard has informed the Naxy Department that he has appointed a board of inquiry to investigate the cause of the disaster.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17. (Special) The Evening Journal gives a special cable saying that the battleship Maine was blown up by a torpedo.

Details of the Disaster.

The list of those killed in the Maine disaster numbers 258, only ninety-aix of the crew of 354 men escaping. Among the dead are three North Carolinians. Trubic Finch of Raleigh, John Mass of Oxford and John Warren of Randolph Henry Williams of Elizabeth City es-
