

Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was of any avail until he was cured by the advice of a friend who gave him S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, no one who knew of his former dreadful condition would have recognized him. All the sores on his body have healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health.

For real blood troubles it is a waste of time to expect a cure from the doctors. Blood diseases are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific.

reaches all deep-seated cases which other remedies have no effect upon. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral. Books mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Cannot Endorse Populists.

ED. JOURNAL.—I notice in your paper that the Republican Congressional Committee has called a regular Republican Convention to meet at Fayetteville, September 29th, and declared in favor of a straight Republican ticket. I desire space in this connection to make a few statements and to give a few reasons why, in my opinion, the Republican party should put out a straight Republican ticket for Congress in this the Third Congressional District.

Why the Republican party should endorse the Populist nominee, Mr. Fowler, in this District, is beyond my comprehension. He has done nothing for the Republican party, by whose votes he was elected, or for the District. The record of the present Congress is filled up with what he, the Honorable Mr. Fowler, did not do. He has not passed a single bill or done anything for the District, or the Republican or Populist party, and not only that, but dodged the vote on the Tariff Bill.

If a straight ticket is nominated by the Republicans the chances of the election of a Republican Congressman are good, as according to both the McKinley and Russell vote, the Republicans have the most votes in the District, and would vote solidly for their candidate. If Honorable Mr. Fowler is endorsed, it simply means probably his reelection, and no chance for either Republican or Democrat.

The promises made by Mr. Fowler in 1896 to the Republicans throughout the District were all broken, and none of them kept. And besides he used every effort in his power to defeat Senator Pritchard. Now why should Republicans endorse him, when they have a living, fighting chance to elect their own candidate?

Let us have a straight Republican candidate, and at any rate, we cannot afford to endorse a Populist.

J. M. H.

Must Come Down.

ED. JOURNAL.—We saw in a recent issue of the JOURNAL, where the white Republicans intended taking down or leaving off the Republican county ticket two of the regular colored nominees of the Republican party of Craven county.

Is it not due the colored voters that the names of the white Republicans who favor such action be given to the public? Since we hold the Republican party in Craven county, in North Carolina and in the United States it is constructively a joint stock company, that is every colored voter has one share of stock, one vote, every white Republican has one share of stock, one vote.

We say to the white Republicans to please take hands off.

We say again, if you will furnish as many votes on the Republican side as the colored voters will in this election, North Carolina will go Republican by eighty thousand majority.

If the colored voters who do the bulk of the voting were talking about taking down, or leaving off some of the white candidates, we could understand.

Mr. Editor, we say, we put it mildly, when we say it comes in hand and ungratefully late from white Republicans to talk about taking down, or leaving off two of the colored regular nominees, and put themselves on, for colored voters to select. If this is true, after the colored voters having proven true to them for thirty four years, then we say, let us grateful shame be added to such of them pleading guilty to the charge.

Mr. Editor, to make this matter short, we will never, no, never, submit to this intolerable insulting wrong to 120,000 colored voters of North Carolina.

Signed: Vox populi, vox dei.

Give Whites Their Rights.

ED. JOURNAL.—When a white man or a white boy takes a seat on the front steps of the public building, he is invariably told to get up by the negro junior warden.

Such incidents are of frequent occurrence, as many of our best citizens can testify. But when negroes are guilty of the same offense they are seldom noticed, if indeed they are noticed at all. Yesterday afternoon two half grown negro boys were sitting on the steps as contentedly as if they were at home, and to the best of my knowledge and belief they moved only when they got good and ready.

It seems that the negroes entertain the idea that every public building in the city is their exclusive property, and that no white man has any right, title or interest in the same.

Such things as these are extremely disgusting to all respectable citizens and is one of the thousand reasons why the white men should stand together at the coming election, and put an end to Russellism and all other such "isms" for once and forever. WHITE MAN.

Local Cotton News.

Capt. Matt Manly will this season represent Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son, the great North Carolina exporting cotton house, of Wilmington, in the New Berne market.

Yesterday, there were sales of thirty bales of cotton in the local market. The New Berne Cotton Gin Company will commence ginning cotton, next Monday.

Truth wears well. People have learned that D. Witt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. F. S. Duffy.

After Describers.

Sergeant Major Robt. Gurganus, now of the Fourth Wisconsin Regiment, originally of the Goldsboro Rifles, has been in the city for several days, looking after deserters from the army.

Major Gurganus was from Jacksonville Fla., and said that the plans were for the First Regiment to go to Cuba on October 7th. He also said that some of the New Berne boys expected to come home soon on furloughs.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in its merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. F. S. Duffy.

Wagon Was Endorsed.

In the recent Democratic primary meeting of the 24th Township, W. M. Watson, Esq., was unanimously endorsed for clerk of the Superior Court of Craven county.

This was unintentionally omitted in reporting the proceedings.

A stubborn cough or tickling in the throat yields to One Minute Cough Cure. Harmless in effect, touches the right spot, reliable and just what is wanted. Acts at once. F. S. Duffy.

Correction.

Mr. W. B. Pearce, is the Democratic chairman of the 3rd township. In reporting the proceedings of this township, the name of Mr. M. H. Carr was hastily and incorrectly signed by the secretary of the meeting. Mr. Carr being the previous township chairman, the mistake was very easily made.

For broken surfaces, sores, insect bites, burns, skin diseases and especially piles there is one reliable remedy, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. When you call for DeWitt's don't accept counterfeits or frauds. You will not be disappointed with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. F. S. Duffy.

Always In Want.

"What a great thing it will be for our 'want' columns," said the chief advertising man, "if we can get those Calans and Filipinos annexed."

"I don't see why that should affect our want columns," replied the business manager.

"You don't? Why, those people spend three fourths of their time wanting things."

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them. F. S. Duffy.

What The Said.

Her Little Brother—Set down in the parlor. She'll be here as soon as she gets through givin' her face a swipe with the powdered rag.

Mr. Sipping.—And what did she say when you told her I was here?

Her Little Brother—She said she knew when the window come down on her thumb Monday mornin' that it was goin' to be a unlucky week for her.

Enthusiastic.

"And, the new star's friend asked, 'was the audience very enthusiastic?'"

"Enthusiastic," she replied. "I should think so. Why, when I had to say, along toward the end of the first act, that I was going away to drown myself, nearly everybody in the house just rose right up and cheered."

ECZEMA FROM BIRTH

Our little daughter had eczema from birth. The parts affected would become terribly itchy, and water would soon ooze out. We tried all kinds of ointments, but they did not help her. After looking her up in Craven County, I applied DeWitt's Ointment freely, and gave her CRAMER'S BLOOD PURIFIER. She improved at once and is now well. The physicians I have made see evidently she was not misdiagnosed in any way.

Substantiating the Copper.

It was a bitter cold night, and a night policeman in Lombard street noticed a light in the bank window, and going to the door, rapped.

"Is that you, policeman?" asked a voice from within.

"Yes," was the reply.

"Come in and have a drink," said the policeman, stepping inside and encountered a dapper little fellow sitting at a desk.

"I've been detained tonight straightening up accounts."

The policeman warmed himself at the rousing fire that blazed on the hearth and went out again on his beat. An hour after the policeman came that way and, still seeing the light through the window, rapped again.

"Is that you, policeman?"

"Come in and warm yourself."

The policeman accepted the invitation.

"It's a howling cold night," said the clerk.

"You're right, sir," said the policeman.

So he got another drink and returned to his beat. He was rather surprised next day to find that his friend of the night before had got off with some $50,000 of the bank's funds.—London Success.

An Attack on Sevastopol.

From where I was stationed I could see the dense masses of the attacking columns advance up the slope. Then the torrents of grape which met them would obscure their ranks for a moment and hardly a man would be seen to remain. I at one time saw a body of men many hundreds strong so completely swept away by one discharge that only a few of the rear rank remained when the iron storm went past! The dead and dying could be clearly distinguished lying in piles on the hillside, and over their prostrate bodies fresh troops crowded on to meet the same fate. Many a manly heart and nervous arm went down in the deadly struggle on that green hillside. No valor availed. The cannon's force was greater than the strength of man.

How many ardent hopes were extinguished! How many homes circles destroyed and lives rendered miserable by the havoc of that hour none can tell, no more than they can imagine the bodily agony or the grief for home and friends which was there endured! What would be the value of what is called "glory" if weighed on the field of battle among the dead?—Good Words.

Atlanta or Altamaha?

There can, I suppose, be no doubt that in the lines in "The Deserted Village"—

To distant climes, a dreary scene,
Where half the forces would have labored,
Through tortuous tracts with fainting steps they go.

Where wild Altama murmurs to their woes— (Goldsmith is alluding to the River Altamaha in Georgia, the colonization of which had taken place not long before. But his expressions are not very accurate. So far from being torrid in the strict sense of the word, the latitude of the mouth of the Altamaha is more than 31 degrees. No part indeed of the present United States is located within the tropics. But, besides this, although there are certainly rattlesnakes and, I believe, scorpions of a certain species in Georgia, there are no tigers there; "wait their hapless prey," which the poet reckons among the horrors of the Auburn where some of the inhabitants of Auburn have gone.—Notes and Queries.

Most Curious Phenomenon.

A most curious phenomenon in the northwest of Canada is the appearance of millions of minute black insects whenever a thaw occurs.

During the winter the snow is dry and crisp like sand, and nothing whatever can be discovered of these insects, but as soon as a thaw comes they are found everywhere in large patches, looking like a dusting of soot.

They are generally known as snow fleas or snow lice and have slight hopping powers, being able to leap some three or four inches. They entirely disappear when it freezes again, and not a trace of them can be found.

They do not fall with the snow as there may have been no snow for a month or more before their arrival and are probably analogous to the "red snow" of arctic regions.

Second Time Is Out.

The hotel stood on a corner of a main street and a comparatively unfrequented side street. One evening I overheard the little old black man talking very savagely with another around the corner on the side street, and among other things he said:

"Yes, sah, an' of I hits you dey woud be bet two his trunk. I'll hit you an' you'll hit de ground."

"You dono heah what I say."—Denver Post.

Her Liquid Voice.

"Your wife has such a liquid voice," said Mr. F. admiringly to Mr. T.

"Yes; that's a pretty good name for it," replied Mr. T.

Mr. F. looked up inquiringly, and Mr. T. asked immediately: "Don't you understand? Why, it never dries up, you know."—London Fun.

DROWNED THE SHERIFF.

Sheriff and Deputy Put to Flight by Amazon Women.

To get the best of Sheriff J. L. Hagan in any kind of matter takes unusual qualities, but on last Wednesday, the exalted Sheriff was doused for once himself and Deputy coming out second best in a lively fight with some stalwart Amazon wenches.

Mary Ann Simpson was the first to arrest, and Deputy Payne, who had been sent to make the capture.

Entering the house of the Simpson woman, Payne presented his warrant, with the result that he met with resistance. He seized the woman and at once a light ensued, several colored female helpers joining in.

The affair was becoming serious for Payne, when Sheriff Hagan breaking down the door, appeared on the scene.

The attack turned against the Sheriff, and in trying to put handcuffs on one woman he was bitten in the hand, and his head was saved from a blow from an axe by his Deputy Payne knocking the axe to one side.

Sheriff and Deputy had to retreat, both men being pretty badly used up.

JONES COUNTY DEMOCRACY.

Remains a Straight Ticket. Exposed List of Candidates. Fusion Proposition Discarded. Address by J. F. Thomas.

The Democracy of Jones county met at Trenton Saturday and put out a ticket that will command the strength of the Democracy and will gain accessions from white men of the other parties who can no longer stand negro rule. There are many of these men and they are good men.

Mr. T. C. Whitaker, county chairman, called the convention to order. Mr. Henry Brock was elected permanent chairman of the convention, and Mr. G. G. Noble was made secretary. Mr. A. E. Stevens of the New Berne Journal was made assistant secretary.

There were a number of candidates for a number of the offices. The vote of the delegate was taken by the precincts. The ticket put up is as follows:

County Commissioners, W. B. Hargett, J. H. Bell, John W. Mallard, Sheriff, E. H. Hardy, Treasurer, M. N. Harriett, Register of Deeds, Furney Brock, Clerk of Court, A. H. White, Corner, Isaac H. Barrows, Surveyor, J. F. Noble.

For Representative to the Legislature, G. G. Noble.

The nominations were all made unanimous.

There was a large attendance and the greatest of interest was shown in the success of the ticket. The best of feeling was manifested and good order prevailed.

What created much stir and discussion was a written proposition sent in, signed by W. W. Pollock, from the Populists, asking for fusion. The request of the Populists was that they be given the nomination of S. E. Koonce for Clerk, Lewis King for treasurer, and two of the County Commissioners.

The matter excited some debate. Mr. J. C. Parker spoke some strong words against the proposition, saying that the manner of submitting it was irregular and that no time had been given for consideration. He opposed it heartily.

Mr. W. B. Hargett made a motion that the proposal be tabled which was seconded.

Mr. Jesse Vance made a speech favoring fusion which did not seem to be favored by the convention. Mr. Parker enquired of him, "If the Republicans had a-keed the Populists to fuse with them on these some terms would the Populists have come to us?"

As the matter was under discussion and about to be voted on by members, the Populists sent in post haste and withdrew the proposition, apparently to save it from being turned down.

After the nominations the convention was addressed by Mr. Chas. R. Thomas, candidate for Congress from this district. Mr. Thomas made a fine address with good government and white supremacy as a leading argument. Mr. Rodolph Duffy, nominee for Solicitor 6th district was also announced to address the convention.

Next Wednesday, the Democracy of Jones county give a barbecue at Trenton and a great time is expected. It looks like old times in Jones and a rallying to good government and white supremacy.
