

SYRUP OF FIGS
NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not grip or nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

A DAY IN THE CITY.

HOW IT WAS PASSED.
Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day was variously spent in this city, the only single and united observance being that every family so far as possible had a turkey dinner and other suitable dishes on the side.

Morning services were held in the Episcopal, Methodist and Presbyterian churches, and at night in the Middle Street Baptist church. Large congregations were present at the services.

The Thanksgiving weather was very harsh, after the recent mild temperature. It was dark and raw in the morning, and towards night it cleared with sunshine, but the temperature ranged close to 40 degrees all day.

Numerous hunting parties were out during the day, but results were not divulged last night.

Mr. W. B. Blades gave pleasure to a number of his friends by taking them on a hunting trip on his hog, the Parkins.

Stores were generally closed nearly all day, and those remaining open did not have any business of consequence.

The news of the University boys' victory at Richmond caused some enthusiasm here, and the white and blue ribbon was seen on the streets.

The customary take your best girl to drive was in effect, and in the afternoon a number of couples were seen driving around the city. But the cold made driving rather a dismal pleasure.

Some early risers reported seeing a few snow flakes falling in the morning, but there was nothing that could be called snow, visible to the ordinary observer.

THE WILMINGTON RACE RIOT.
Blame Placed Upon the Editor Manly
By a Colored Officer.

John C. Dancy, colored, the Collector of the Port at Wilmington, N. C., is in this city. He left Wilmington last week during the progress of the race war in that city, but he denies that he left for fear of being a victim of the wrath of the white citizens of Wilmington. Yesterday Mr. Dancy talked of the present perturbed condition of affairs in his State. He said:

"Manly is responsible for the whole unfortunate condition of things. When he published his editorial reflecting upon the white women of the State, I with other leading colored men of Wilmington held a conference with him and urged him to retract the article. We even went so far as to write an editorial retracting the one written by Manly, but he would not take our advice and publish it. If he had done so there would have been no race war in Wilmington. He accepted the advice of others, and the folly of his course is shown by the events which followed. The intelligent colored people of the State did not endorse the utterances of Manly, and if he had acted wisely there would have been no bloodshed in Wilmington. And then, too, the committee of colored citizens appointed for the purpose of suppressing Manly's paper blundered in not making at once their disapproval of Manly's course, and their determination to get rid of him. I do not believe that it was the intention of the white citizens to wreck or destroy his office, but when the committee of colored citizens were apparently indifferent to the suppression of Manly, this enraged the white citizens, and the wreck of the office followed.

Prior to the recent regrettable occurrences the relationship existing between the white and colored citizens of North Carolina was most cordial and amicable. I believe that peace will be secured permanently, and that the former pleasant relationships will be restored. But the white men of the South will not tolerate any reflection upon their women, and it is a mistaken idea to reflect upon them, whether it be by Mr. Manly in North Carolina or by Mrs. Granitis in New York, but fortunately for Mrs. Granitis she was in New York while Mr. Manly was in Wilmington.—New York Post, Nov. 21st.

A THANKSGIVING
Lucky Smith's Pen.

The wind blew yesterday, and its chilling blasts selected from all objects, those things that were loose and carrying them from street to street.

It was during one of these sharp gusts that the noddie was blown against the street window of the Times, a Shock-Fisher, and persistently staying there.

The noddie's letter was not on duty, it was his day "off," but some feeling made it not possible to let the noddie go. The noddie had studied his attention, and he was not to be easily won over.

The noddie was in the paper, and the editor had to give it a place. He ever tried with thoughts of business, which even a beautiful Thanksgiving dinner could not complete, he opened the paper and read as follows:

YEAGROUS GENERAL STATEMENT.
I have studied for twenty years from an ingenious, logical and philosophical standpoint, the appearance of God in nature, the course pursued, the differential loving care and respected protection, the white men of the earth give to their fair women.

I have decided that on this line the white men make their appearance on the scene as gods.

Do you know, or has it ever occurred to you, that this is the first lesson for a Christian, an intelligent, civic citizen who claims to represent and reflect the image of God, to learn?

Then, who ever fell in Wilmington, upholding a pure and an undiluted worship of God, fell in the arms of Jesus.

It is true that the Manly editorial was slanderous against the women of the colored.

It is equally true that the colored ministers of Wilmington erred religiously and otherwise when they approved of and endorsed the said slanderous editorial.

However, it is gratifying to learn through the press that when the gods put their government in operation, that through and by it, ample and adequate protection is now being given the men, women and children of my race.

In the course of things, it is approved of by the law of nature, governing the stupendous sun, moon and stars that had the colored ministers of Wilmington passed of resolution condemning the slanderous editorial, I do not believe that there would have been cause for the shedding of one drop of blood, nor a single life lost in the recent race trouble in Wilmington, N. C.

This one act on the part of men of God would have moulded an entirely different sentiment, hence a different feeling, and therefore a different result.

I trust this open statement may do some good in the future.

DOVER ITEMS.
November 22d.

Mr. G. K. West, wife and little one from Wilmington were visiting relatives here last week and returned home Monday. George said Wilmington was getting white fast.

A double wedding occurred near here yesterday. Mr. Seymour Carpenter to Miss Ada D West and Mr. Charlie Daugherty to Miss Zsna L. West, your humble scribe officiating. A good many friends and relatives were present. Both grooms were promptly on time and at 4 o'clock four hearts were made to beat as two. Mr. Carpenter will locate in our village and Mr. Daugherty near Cross Our very best wishes go with each couple.

Our farmers are nearly through housing their crops and are trying to settle down on what kind of a crop to pitch for next year. Good many say they are done with cotton.

Some of our people have not stopped rejoicing over the election yet. They say we will have Charles B. Aycock for next Governor and James A. Bryson in the United States Senate and N. M. Jarmey next A. N. C. President.

Mr. Dan Richardson went up to Kingston this morning on his bike.

Mr. Lon Taylor from Trenton was here today. He reports things moving along quietly in that section.

After Negro Emigrants.
Captain R. A. Williams, widely known as Peg Leg Williams, the famous emigration agent, who had many a lively experience while hunting up lands in North Carolina to take to the west or to the Florida turpentine fields, arrived in the city yesterday smiling all over his jolly face. He is after 1,000 or 2,000 negroes whom he wants to go to Mississippi, Tennessee and Arkansas to pick cotton. He offers to take them out and let them pick cotton at 50 cents a hundred to repay their passage. He says the fields out in the State named are white with cotton and it is wasting in the fields out in the states named.

We are told by Captain Williams that the Delta Cotton Company alone has 5,000 bales of cotton yet to be picked. The jolly emigration agent thinks he will be welcome to North Carolina, now, judging from the talk about scattering the negroes during the election time. He laughingly tells of the time, in 1891, when a committee at New Bern gave him 30 minutes to dig out, but he gave them 15 minutes back and waved his hand at them from a friendly train which came by. Peg Leg knows what it is himself to be asked to move on.

Captain Williams informs us that he has signed up fifty negro families at Greenwood S. C. They are going to make their homes out west—Wilmington Messenger.

Naval Reserve Election.
At the meeting of the Naval Reserve held last night for the election of officers for the Division, Lieutenants T. C. Daniels and W. T. Hill, and Ensign T. D. Carraway were elected to their respective offices.

At the request of Commander Morton, the Division raised funds to pay the expense, and requested Lt. Daniels to attend the meeting of the officers of the Naval Divisions in the United States, to be held at Philadelphia, on December 2nd, next; this meeting is called by the Secretary of the Navy to get the Reserves of the United States, to suggest unitedly their needs for presentation to Congress, so that the various Reserves may be more fully equipped and instructed.

An order was read from Inspector General B. S. Royter, of the State Guard, Calling the Annual Inspection of the Division for Tuesday night, November 29th, next.

DEAR SIR:—Perrina and Man-in have cured me of one of the worst cases of catarrh any one ever had. My case was so severe that I was compelled to discontinue my business, that of conductor on a railroad, but I am now entirely well.

Ordinary treatment of catarrh is for local relief. Cures are not expected. Dr. Hartman's method eradicates catarrh absolutely. Get his latest book and learn how to combat this insidious disease. The Perrina Medicine Co., Columbus, O., will mail Dr. Hartman's books free on application.

H. A. Scott, Burt, Tenn., writes:
"I feel very thankful to my Maker and your great medicine that I am cured. I would not be without Perrina in the house."

Perrina has been curing catarrh for forty years. It plucks out the roots of catarrh and builds people up. All druggists sell it.
