The dispensary question has been fruitful of debate, but of all the bills passed for dispensaries the Charlotte bill capped the climax. Hundreds of the cutizens of that beautiful town were present to uree the passage of the bill. They came in a special train and wore billian badges of blue. The ablest pleaders of the city were with them to he committee to give them the law .without submitting it to the people to Elected by Board Internal Improvevote on the question. The huge petitions had the names of 3,160 white men of Mecklenburg. They considered it a new declaration, and tilled the chamber with appliause and cheers, scarcely to be checked by the chairman. The advocates of the dispensary had things their own way by force of numbers. The speeches were largely directed against Senator Oshoruc, who represents Mecklenburg county and who was against the bill. The Senator sat quietly the was referred to again and agair The committee were evidently almost and H. P. Dortch, State Proxy. manimous'y favoring the bill. There was a great scattering of blue badges and in a few minutes the wires to Charlotte were laden with a tale of woe. The minority report will come before the Senate and if the present prospect comes true, there will be a battle over the report of integer interest.
