OLD NORTH STATE.

Negroes Jailed To Save Them From Lynchers.

Another Foreign Corporation Files Charter. April and December Wed. Commissions Issued. Big Charters Granted. After Election Case.

RALEIGH, May 20.—Elijah Joyner and Cephas Langley, the negroes charged with murdering a young clerk named Tarnage and robbing and burning a store in Pitt county, were brought here and jailed to save them from being lynched. They were first taken from Greenville to Washington, Beaufort county, but were not considered safe there and so were brought here. Both are powerful men. Joyner fully confesses and says Langley struck the first blow. Their object was to get $2,000 which they thought was in a safe in the store.

The Old Dominion Steamship Company filed its charter with the Secretary of State, thus complying with the provisions of the Craig law. It is the sixth foreign corporation to thus domesticate itself.

Miss Dollie Holcomb, of Yadkin county, aged sixteen, was married to V. R. Gross, aged sixty, of Montezuma, Iowa. The groom is worth half a million dollars.

Two more large iron furnaces are to be built at Greensboro during the next ninety days. Material for their construction is now arriving.

Mrs. Margaret B. Shipp is allowed $17 a month pension. This will be all probably be increased by Congress.

At the Adjutant General's office it is learned that the election of the field officers of the new Second Regiment of the State Guard, W. B. Rodman, of Washington, colonel, and W. A. Johnson, of Wilmington, lieutenant-colonel, completes that regiment. The Third Regiment is far from complete. The First has yet to organize its various companies, and then the field officers will be elected. All this will require two or three weeks' time.

Commissions were issued to L. P. Aaron, of Mt. Olive, as assistant surgeon of the Naval Reserves Brigade; to the following officers of the Southport division of Reserves: Mark Farguson, lieutenant, Moody B. Mintz, lieutenant, junior grade, Frank Pinner, ensign, and to E. T. Nadal, as first lieutenant, and T. L. Pace, second lieutenant, of Company K, Second Regiment, at Wilson.

Two charters were granted by the Secretary of State. One was to the South Mountain Land Company, of Burke county, capital $50,000; stockholders, K. C. Menzies, J. M. Bernhart, H. D. Abernathy, A. Y. Signon, W. B. Menzies. The other was to the Delgado mills, at Wilmington, capital, $250,000, with $10,000 limit; stockholders, E. C. Holt, R. R. Bellamy, J. W. Norwood, James Bellamy, E. J. Powers, Marsden Chadbourne.

The Roman Catholic church here has purchased a farm ten miles southwest of this city and will have a boys' training school there.

A special from Greenville, N. C., says: At this place, full seven months after the State election, fifteen of the best citizens of the town and vicinity were arrested and brought before United States Commissioner Ormond, on the charge of conspiring to prevent the casting of votes by four negroes at a precinct about two miles north of Greenville in the election referred to.

The arrest was made on information apparently furnished by a negro who was so illiterate that his mark, instead of autograph, appears on the affidavit in evidence. The negro himself declares, however, that he did not know what he was signing, as the paper was not read to him; that he does not know the parties and is wholly ignorant of the affair in which the affidavit operates they figured. He says, in conclusion, that he was told to make his mark, and that he did so without any idea of what it involved. The case was called and has progressed slowly and will continue to drag along. Eight witnesses have been examined for the prosecution, seven Populists and one negro.

LUNA ARREST; ENVOYS.

Filipino General Dis-solves Peace Commission Appointed by Aguinaldo.

MANILA, May 20.—General Luna has dissolved the Peace Commission appointed by Aguinaldo. Two of its members, Buencamino and Arguellos, have been put under arrest at Tarlac, where Luna's forces are concentrated.

Four other commissioners have been appointed, who have come into General Luna's lines at San Isidro. Their authority is limited to asking a cessation of hostilities. The commission is headed by General Gregorio del Pilar.

Colonel French, with the Twenty-second Regiment, was sent down to the river three miles from San Isidro, by General Luna, where he met the natives, driving them out with loss of four Americans.

Major Kobbe, with the Seventeenth and Nineteenth, expects to meet Colonel French at Arayat. The Rio Grande will then be clear of Filipinos.

MANILA, May 20.—Two military and two civil Filipino commissioners, appointed to co-operate with three residents of Manila in negotiating terms of peace, arrived here today.

They have submitted no new proposition, but want an armistice pending the session of the Filipino Congress.

General Otis has refused to entertain the proposal.

MANILA, May 19.—General Luna is reported to be making desperate efforts to restrain the educated Filipinos within the limits of his jurisdiction from communicating with the Americans, even to the point of arresting Encarnacion and Herrera, two of the most influential officials, while on their way to Malolos to join those who are coming to Manila by way of San Isidro.

This, and the removal of the seat of government to Tarlac, thirty miles north of San Fernando, may lead to complications and delay in the pacification. This change of capitals has just been made known. But it is generally conceded that further opposition to American sovereignty will be useless. Neither General Luna nor General Pio Del Pilar, it is said, has sufficient force to resist.

General Whelan has been relieved of the command of the second division for a special assignment and General Fannin has been assigned to his brigade.

A board, consisting of Colonel French of the Twenty-second Infantry, and Major Cabell and Captain Randolph, of the Third Artillery, has been appointed to proceed to Batavia, for the purpose of investigating the European methods of providing for the health of the troops there and to report on the subject for the benefit of the Americans here.

Little, neglected scratches and wounds frequently result in blood-poisoning. Better heal them quickly with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a thoroughly antiseptic application with a record of always curing piles, old ulcers, sores, cuts, wounds and skin diseases. F. S. Duffy.

Late News Items.

The American Line steamer Paris struck a rock of "The Manacles," near Falmouth, England, early yesterday morning. She is still fast on the rock, but her passengers and crew are safe.

A monument to the late President Carnot was unveiled at Dijon, France. It is now considered certain that arbitration will have the chief place at the international peace conference.

Many prominent persons attended the funeral of the Earl of Stratford in London.

Cuban officers, though accepting the disarmament plan agreed upon by General Brooke and Gomez, are bitter against the latter.

The question of restricting the vote in the suffrage when Cubans are entitled to vote is being discussed in Havana.

Filipino commissioners from Aguinaldo direct had a conference with the American commission.

The Nebraska regiment in Luzon has been allowed a thirty days' rest.

There are four active candidates for the speakership of the House of Representatives—General Henderson and Representative Hopkins, from Western States, and Representatives Sherman and Payne, both of New York.

An official of the Treasury Department says trust stocks are a ready sale because standard securities pay so little upon the investment.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Industrial Movement Continues in Cotton Mills.

Smallpox at Morganton. The Greenville Election Case. Eleven Year Old Murderers. No More Convicts Wanted.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 22.—The High Shoals Manufacturing Company has bought for $50,000 1,200 acres of land on the Catawba river, near Lincolnton, and will build a $150,000 cotton mill and electric power plant. The water power at High Shoals is particularly fine. Work on a 10,000 spindle cotton mill will begin next month at Forest City, Rutherford county. This mill will have 300 looms.

A dispatch from Morganton, says: "This town has smallpox. Fourteen cases were examined and passed on by Dr. Long, State smallpox agent, yesterday. He says it is confluent smallpox. The board of aldermen have ordered compulsory vaccination after Wednesday, May 24, and a shotgun quarantine has been established around all cases. So far two deaths have resulted, both white. The town is considerably excited. All cases so far are confined to the suburbs. The authorities hope to keep it under control. A pesthouse has been opened."

A special from Greenville, N. C., says: "The case against the citizens of Greenville before United States Commissioner Ormond, at that place, on charges of election offenses in November last, that started Friday morning, dragged on until the middle of the afternoon before the testimony for the prosecution was all in. Assistant District Attorney Spears arrived Saturday morning to assist in the cases. When the government rested its case, counsel for the defense stated they had testimony to offer. The commissioner announced that the defense must finish its side Saturday or he would hold the case until midnight. Counsel stated it was impossible to introduce all the evidence for the defense at that time and that such decision by the commissioner was an injustice. The associate district attorney recognized this injustice and declined to be put to it, and as he could not be here next week the case was postponed to June 22."

Many recruits from here are joining the regular army. In a party which left here yesterday was a grandson of the late Maj. John C. Winder.

At Durham Cora Hicks, a negro girl only eleven years old was convicted of murder in the second degree. Her victim was a negro infant she was nursing. She became angry with it and deliberately placed it on a fire in an open fireplace, holding it there until it was burned to death. Only her youth saved Cora from the gallows.

The alleged counterfeiters arrested in Wilmington Friday morning, Nicholas Politz and Walter Silvy, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Collier and at the conclusion of the investigation were held for trial at the United States District Court, which meets the first week in June next. The bond of Politz was fixed at $2,000, and that of Silvy $500.

Elijah Joyner and Cephas Langley the negroes who are in jail here to save them from certain lynching in Pitt county, are to be tried in a fortnight at special term of court which Governor Russell will order.

The State chartered the High Point Table Company, with $10,000 capital. True meridian posts and standards of length have been established in forty counties.

Notice has been given that no more Federal convicts are to be sent to the penitentiary here. This gratifies the prison officials, and they will be further pleased if the government removes all its convicts now here. Superintendent Day left for Washington. He says he does not want and will not have Federal convicts unless they are to be amenable to precisely the same discipline as State convicts.

It makes no difference how bad the wound if you use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve; it will quickly heal and leave no scar. F. S. Duffy.

All Talk at Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The return of the President has brought a swarm of politicians to Washington, and speaker-ship talk and arguments for and against an extra session of Congress are again heard in hotel corridors and other places where men congregate.

There is also much talk about the unsatisfactory condition in Cuba, owing to the delay in disbanding the Cuban army, and about Aguinaldo's persisting in sending Commissioners to negotiate for a cessation of hostilities. In the face of the repeated refusals of Gen. Otis, the last refusal has just occurred. There is little that is new in any of the talk for the simple reason that the situation has not changed materially in either of the cases mentioned during the past week.

FAREWELL TO MANILA.

Sailors in The American Fleet Give a Parting Cheer For Their Commander-in-Chief.

MANILA, May 21.—As the Olympia, with Admiral Dewey on board, steamed away yesterday the Oregon, Baltimore and Concord fired an Admiral's salute. At the first shot the band on the flagship's afterdeck played a lively air and her white-clothed sailors crowded the decks and gave a tremendous cheer.

When the Olympia passed the Oregon the crew of that battle-ship gave nine cheers for the Olympias, who responded by throwing their caps so high that dozens of them were left bobbing in the wake of the cruiser. Then followed the loudest half-hour known in this harbor since the battle which linked its name with that of Dewey.

The din of guns and brass bands echoed through the smoke, a fleet of steam launches shrieked their whistles, the musicians of the Baltimore played "Home Sweet Home," her flag signified "Good-by," and those of the Oregon said "Pleasant voyage."

Merchants vessels dipped their flags, the ladies on the decks of the vessels of the fleet waved handkerchiefs and the great, black British cruiser Powerful, which lay the farthest out, saluted the Olympia. The latter's band then played, "God Save the Queen," and to this the crew of Powerful responded with hearty cheers for Olympia. The last music heard from Admiral Dewey's ship was "Auld Lang Syne," while the guns from the forts at Cavite and from the Monterey, on guard off Paranaque, too far to be audible, puffed white clouds of smoke.

Admiral Dewey was enthusiastic over his homegoing. When mention was made of the welcome to be extended to him he said he appreciated the friendship of his countrymen deeply, but hoped they would not be too demonstrative. He said that he intends to go directly to his home at Montpelier, Vt., and live there.

On it being said that people wanted him to go home by way of San Francisco and across the continent the Admiral replied:

"If I were twenty years younger and had political ambitions I would not miss that chance."

Speaking of the situation here Admiral said:

"I believe we are near the end. The Filipinos are fast going to pieces. The sending of a third commission shows that they believe the United States means business."

Captain Walker, of the Concord, the only remaining commander who took part in the battle here, went to the Admiral and said:

"Don't leave me behind."

So he was relieved and started home on the Olympia.

A Fine Sense.

How's this? Here's a picture entered without any title.
Yes; the young woman who palmed it said she wouldn't name it until she found out what the public thought it was.

Who's Frightened?
Tramp—Can I get a bite to eat?
Lady of the House—You can get a bite but Tige will do the eating.

Surprised.
Mr. Wash—Do you think the North Pole will ever be found, Miss Olive?
Miss Olive (of St. Louis)—Why I didn't know it was lost.

DIG FIRE AT DAWSON CITY.

Loss of a Million Dollars Caused by a Drunken Woman Upsetting a Lamp.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 21.—News has just been received here that the main part of Dawson City, Yukon Territory, was destroyed by fire April 26, causing a loss of one million dollars. In all 111 buildings, including the Bank of British North America, were burned.

The fire occurred in the city's business centre, beginning near the opera house on the water front. It was driven rapidly by a strong north wind, destroyed the water front-buildings, crossed the street burned through and spread over to the second street. Every building that was touched by the fire burned like tinder, as the logs were dry as powder. The fire spread so rapidly that the people were panic stricken and unable to save anything.

Among prominent concerns burned out were the Royal Cafe, Donohue & Smith, McLellan & McPeely, the Parsons Produce Company, the Madden House, Hotel Victoria, McDonald block and the Bank of British North America.

The fire came at a time when mills and dealers in building materials had exhausted their supplies and were waiting the opening of navigation to replenish them. The result is a "famine" in all kinds of building material and furniture. Doors are selling for $5 each, door locks $5 each and other articles in proportion.

The fire was caused by a drunken woman upsetting a lamp. There is no shortage of provisions.

Geographical Attainments.

The agitation of the question of territorial expansion has led to a greater knowledge of geographical matters, especially among the young as shown in the following story, which, if slightly exaggerated, at least shows the drift of the times.

"Now that we have these vast possessions in the antipodes, Johnnie, I think—"

"Father, I'm astonished! Our antipodes are somewhere among the fishes southwest of Australia, which is a fact from the Philippines."

"Well, I was just going to say that this hump they grow in Manila—"

"It isn't hump at all, father; travels under false pretences. Manila hump is a variety of the banana family."

"Dear me, is that so? It's good cordage all the same. Why, when I was out in the Sandwich Islands I—"

"Father, no educated person says Sandwich Islands now; 'the Hawaiian Islands' is the official and accepted name. Besides—"

"Well, I suppose you'll be asking me to say 'Puerto Rico' just because the Spaniards do."

"Not at all. Porto Rico has been good English usage for several centuries. It's all right."

"You're very kind. But speaking of Manila here, they say that in Borneo, the largest island in the world—"

"It was when you studied geography, father, but they've learned since that New Guinea is larger than Borneo, and Greenland is larger than New Guinea."

"Young man, you make my head ache with your erudition," said the father. "Keep still, I want to read the paper."

Nice Little Boy.

"Mamma, said the sweet, small boy, before admiring friends, 'I knew as soon as I came in there was folks visitin' here.'"

"Did you, darling?" said the fond mother, trying to fix him with her eyes, "how did you know?"

"Oh, you had your company voice on."

Proved.
Mrs. Boosey—My husband is really generous to a fault.
Mrs. Gaddson—Yes, I know it. James was telling me last night that your husband borrowed $3 from him the other day and then wanted to spend half of it buying drinks for the party.

A Fictor.
"Enough champagne is drunk yearly," said the statistical person; "but that the Oregon."

"I once hosted a $5,000,000 trust," said the promoter, "on only three dozen quarts."

No Commiseration.
The Artist—See here, how often must I tell you to stand up straight! Imagine yourself an officer in the army.
The Model—An' how can I imagine myself an officer in the army wid you orderin' me around like that.
