The penitentiary debt muddle is as great as ever. The courts will have to settle it. The State Treasurer says he wants that course taken. The executive board, E. L. Travis, W. H. Osborne and W. C. Newland, sent the following strongly written circular letter to each sharn same with William I. Bryan and of the 300 debtors of the penitentiary, to sharp issue with William J. Bryan and whom they had sent the warrants covering the $119,000 of debts:

"Replying to your letter informing us that the State Treasurer refuses to pay interview strongly against the anti-exour warrant sent you, we beg to say: That on the 7th day of March, 1899, the pansion plea. the issue of State bonds to the amount of $110,000 to raise a fund to pay the now outstanding' indebtedness of the State prison. These bonds were sold for $120,202.50, which is now in the Treasurer's hands. Section 5, of said act provides that the Treasurer shall hold this money as a separate and distinct fund for the payment of the aforesaid indebtedness.' It further provides, 'said fund shall be paid out by the said State Treasurer only upon the warrant of E. L. Travis, W. H. Osborne and W. C. Newland, constituting the executive board, * * * who are to audit and pass upon all claims and accounts against said State's prison."

"In compliance with that statute, we have audited all these accounts and drawn our warrants upon this fund placed there subject to our order, and sent them to the parties entitled.
