According to their own statement they gave no slarm. When people got to the gar of the building Brooks and Cooper had put a trank out of the rear window and were trying to put out a desk. They were examined separately, one as soon as the other had testified, and their evidence was very conflicting. As soon as Commissioner Young had finished taking the evidence he made a statement that Cooper arrested.

The mayor was present at the examination. Young was assisted by ex-Judge H. G Connor, The mayor at once swore out warrants, returnable before a magis trate tomorrow morning. The evidence was all submitted by Commissoner dred dollars and had $2,500 insurance, $1,000 of which was taken a week before the fire. direction. In one instance, where fire had originated probably from spon-taneous combustion, in a pile containing several tons of cotton seed, and the interior of which was almost a solid body of live coal, a half gallon of ammonia completely smothered the fire. In another, which occurred at Sa

Insurance Commissioner Young suys he wirnessed an exceedingly sensational occurrence at Wilson. Not long ago Mr. E E Britton and his wife were divorced she being given the custody of their two children. She was departing for Fayetteville with her oldest child of 11, on a visit. Britton suddenly appeared at the tation as she was about to board the train and seized the child. Mrs. Britton screamed for help and the child also screamed, saying that she wanted to go with her mother. A crowd at once rush ed fu and took the child from Prof. Britton, and put her and her mother on the train. Britton also got on the train, saying that he too, was going to Fayetteville. His wife denounced him. The train was held nearly a quarter of an hour, so intense was the excitement Britton was advised at Selma not to go Young to some of the most conservative to Fayetteville, but said he would see a
