WILL PICK CLEAN.

Officials Promise To See All The Cotton Is Picked.

Roster of Soldiers in the Spanish War. Flag Flying For Dewey. The Southport Railroad. College Debate. Decision Under Craig Law.

RALEIGH, September 30—Penitentiary officials have sent from here to the Caledonia farm, which the State purchased this month, thirty convicts to pick cotton. This brings the number of pickers up to 500 convicts. There are also 150 hired pickers. The officials say that this season they will gather all the cotton. Last year much was lost, owing to carelessness of the fusionists. The present crop is variously estimated at from 2,500 to 3,500 bales.

Four convicts from Perquimans county arrived at the Penitentiary today. Will dogs from a large forest two miles from Raleigh made a raid night before last and killed and partially ate nearly fifty turkeys.

As yet the roster of the North Carolina troops in the Spanish-American war has not been completed. Work was begun a few months ago, but only a few of the 3,000 names have been transcribed from the voluminous muster rolls.

National and State flags were displayed on the capitol today in honor of Dewey. The Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth and Fortieth regiments are now full and today Lieutenant Daniel Johnson, who has been recruiting, was ordered to rejoin his regiment.

There is much interest felt in the proposed road to be built from Danville, Va. to Southport, N. C., at the mouth of the Cape Fear. This plan is being pushed by the incorporators of the Black Diamond road, and is in the hands of Albert E. Boone, of Zanesville, O. He wants to build a road from the immense coal fields of Kentucky, Virginia and Tennessee to tidewater. Southport, with its magnificent harbor, which will be the deep-water terminus.

The new machinery recently purchased for work at the rock quarry is being carried through the city, and is of much interest to the "small boy" especially. The immense steam road roller is the power which carries this machinery to the quarry.

Wake County Superior Court has finished its work. The collegiate debate between Wake Forest and Trinity Colleges has been arranged by committees from the two institutions, to be held in Raleigh on Thanksgiving day.

There was a notably large ex-Confederate reunion at Lenoir, Caldwell county, at which Julian S. Carr, of Durham, the new major-general of the North Carolina division of the United Confederate Veterans, was one of the chief speakers. He was given an ovation.

Judge Moore, in the important case of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association against the Secretary of State, in involving the question whether that company, which was domesticated under the Craig law by an agent against its wishes, can withdraw decided.

First, that in order to bind the company under the Craig act it is necessary that the company should authorize the filing of its charter and by laws.

Second, that the company's general counsel did not have the power to file or direct the filing of the charter with the Secretary of State.

Third, that the filing was without the knowledge and consent of the company's directors.

Fourth, that the incorporation by or under the direction of the general counsel, under the conditions in this case agreed, was not efficacious in constituting the company a corporation in North Carolina.

It is therefore adjudged that the filing of the said charter and by-laws was nugatory, and the company is not a domestic corporation; that the alleged incorporation be vacated and annulled; that a copy of this order be filed with the Secretary of State, with the company's charter and by-laws; that the defendant shall pay for the costs in this proceeding.

It will be noticed that the judge does not pass upon the other question—whether the insurance law repealed the Craig law so far as insurance companies are concerned.

The "Plover Boy Preacher," Rev. J. Kirkman, Belle River, Ill., says, "After suffering from bronchial or lung trouble for ten years, I was cured by One Minute Cough Cure. It is all that is claimed for it and more." It cures, coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. F. S. Duffy.

Water is Early. Special Journal. JAMESTOWN, N. Y., September 30.—Three inches of snow fell here today. Such a fall of snow in September is unprecedented.

Est plenty, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat. It cures all forms of dyspepsia and stomach troubles. E. R. Gamble, Vernon, Tex., says, "It relieved me from the start and cured me. It is now my everlasting friend." F. S. Duffy.

GREAT SCENES.

Unheard of Demonstrations in New York In Honor of Admiral George Dewey. Special Journal.

New York, September 30—The great land parade in honor of Admiral Dewey is considered the finest New York has ever had. It ended without accident.

The head of the parade started on the Riverside Drive at 11:01 o'clock and reached the Dewey arch at Washington Square at 2 o'clock. There were thirty-five thousand men in line and it is estimated that there were three million and a half spectators. They extended in an unbroken line eight miles long.

The southern troops attracted great attention. A brigade of United States troops were in line and there were seven battalions of the naval brigade.

Admiral Dewey was simply overwhelmed by the tremendous cheers that greeted him. The sailors from his flagship Olympia led and were received with hearty applause. It was a beautiful day.

In the morning, at 9:30 o'clock, Dewey was presented in front of the City Hall by Mayor Van Wyck with the loving cup given by the city.

SENTENCE STANDS.

The President Has Approved the Finding of the Court Martial Against Capt. Carter. Special Journal.

WASHINGTON, September 30.—The President has approved the sentence by court martial of Captain Carter to five years imprisonment and a fine of $5,000. The dismissal from the army was approved yesterday. The Adjutant General today promulgated the sentence and it will be published in the State whence Carter came or where he actually resides.

Carter was arrested at the Athletic Club in New York today and sent to Governor's Island where he will be held until sent to the military prison at Fort Leavenworth.

COL. CARR SAYS SO.

Is a Live Candidate for Senator. A Friendly Contest. Does not Believe in Cotton Mill Combine.

RICHMOND, Sept. 30—"Yes, I am a candidate for the Senate to succeed Butler, and am in the race to win," said Colonel Julian S. Carr, of North Carolina, at the Jefferson last night. "I have some fine men against me," he continued; "there's F. M. Simmons, chairman of our State Democratic Committee, and a thorough-going, astute politician; ex-Governor Jarvis, twice Governor of North Carolina, and a former congressman, and Mayor A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, who has also served in Congress, and whose part in the late troubles give him a good place in the hearts of the white people."

"If I win I shall feel that I have been greatly complimented, for all of the other aspirants are high toned, Christian gentlemen, who stand well with the people."

"Our campaign will not be characterized by a display of acrimonious feeling—certainly so far as I am concerned. My opponents are my personal friends."

Colonel Carr felt confident that he could win in a contest before the people, but he was not so sure the opportunity would present itself for such an expression of the popular will.

Speaking of the campaign in Virginia, the distinguished North Carolinian said: "I haven't the honor of an acquaintance with Governor Tyler. But I have met Senator Martin, whom I consider the best politician in your State. I go to Washington occasionally, and in making political inquiries I naturally prefer to seek Democratic sources. Both senators from North Carolina, you know, represent opposition parties. Senator Butler is a Populist, and Senator Fritchard is a Republican. What information I may want I get from Senator Martin. I find him well posted on North Carolina affairs, as he is on the affairs of his own State. He is a great worker, and one of the best men Virginia has recently had in the Senate."

Colonel Carr took no stock in the reported effort to combine the cotton mill interests of the south. He said: "The mills are paying such handsome dividends that a syndicate cannot offer enough to induce stockholders to give up a good thing. I have stock in eleven cotton mills myself, and every one is paying well. No effort, if it is made will not succeed."

WAR IN AFRICA.

Boers Armed And On The March Ready To Fight.

Struggle May Begin Any Moment. No Reply Made To England's Last Note. Kruger Says Peace Is Impossible.

Special Journal. PRETORIA, Sept. 30.—The wildest excitement prevails in the Transvaal. Vice-President and commandant General Joubert go to Volksrust on the border today. Twenty-six ammunition trains have started for that point.

It is believed that all the Government High Courts of Justice will close at once and martial law be proclaimed. Notice is issued that the mines may continue work, reasonable protection to be afforded, all gold mined to be deposited with the government out of which the expense of the war will be paid, any balance to be returned after the war is over.

The women and children are being sent away from Bloemfontein. Artillery is being loaded for the front and great activity is displayed at all points.

JOHANNESBURG, September 30.—Both sides are concentrating forces at Living's Neck. Breast works are being thrown up and the strategic points in the neighborhood have been occupied.

LOEDOS, September 30.—No reply of the Transvaal government to the last despatch of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain has been received. One reason assigned is that there has been a breakdown in the wires of part of the South African land service.

Sir R. Buller, who will command the British forces in Africa in case of war leaves for the Cape on October 14th.

LOEDOS, September 29.—The Cabinet adjourned at 3:15 p. m. The ministers were heartily cheered by the waiting crowd. It is said from Boer sources that Mr. Chamberlain's proposals submitted to the Cabinet included an indemnity for the cost of sending out troops, the disarmament of the Transvaal forts, judiciale and legislative independence for the judges, the equality of the English and Dutch languages, and full and complete admission of the supremacy of British interests throughout South Africa.

A dispatch to The Times from Pretoria says: "It is generally expected that a state of war will be proclaimed at any moment. President Kruger granted an interview today and declares he had done all possible for the sake of peace. He had accepted Mr. Chamberlain's own offer of a common inquiry, but Mr. Chamberlain deliberately broke the thread of negotiations. Troops were massed on all sides and war was forced upon him. It was impossible to accede to the dispatch of the 12th."

The British colonists of Rhodesia are organizing a volunteer corps, have formed a cycle detachment and have constructed an armored train with an engine plated with steel rails.

A telegram received today says two batteries of field artillery and five hundred Burgers have started for Volksrust and that another 500 men go there today.

DEWEY IN WASHINGTON.

Pays His Respects to the President. His Future Home. Will Take Long Rest.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—No President of the United States ever received such a greeting as was given to Admiral Dewey on the streets of Washington this evening, and it is doubtful whether any President ever will, unless one gets elected by unanimous vote, which isn't probable. The ovation to Admiral Dewey was participated in by everybody else eager to do honor to the man who had done so much to honor his country.

After being escorted from this railroad station to the White House by a company of United States Cavalry and paying his respects to the President and the entire Cabinet, Admiral Dewey and the President proceeded to the stand erected for them to review the civic parade where they stood side by side, not only while the parade proper marched by in a blaze of fire works and red light, and amid continuous cheering, but while thousands of men, women and children, following the parade, marched by. The latter was an innovation much appreciated by the crowd, as it enabled thousands to get a good near look at Admiral Dewey who would otherwise only have seen him from a distance.

Although he will make his home in Washington, Admiral Dewey will not be permanently settled until the committee buys the house for which ample funds have been donated. He is at present the guest of Mrs. Washington McLean, who lives near the White House and the Army and Navy Club, which is one of the Admiral's old haunts. Before settling down he will go to some quiet place—probably to Vermont, his native State—for a long rest.

"It did me more good than anything I ever used. My dyspepsia was of months' standing. After eating it was terrible. Now I am well," writes S. B. Keener, Hotelling, Kas., of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. F. S. Duffy.

RALEIGH.

Fraudulent Klondike Stock Sold To Investors In This State.

Arrested In Kansas City. Dr. Lacy Is Better. New Plan At St. Mary's. Bad Affair At Winton. Methodist Orphanage.

RALEIGH, October 2.—Postoffice Inspector Fulton here from Kansas City to see Secretary of State Cyrus Thompson. The Postoffice Department has discovered another fraud and has lodged the swindler, B. M. Morse, in jail at Kansas City. Morse sold stock in the Alaska Klondike Improvement and Manufacturing Company, Capital $500,000, chartered by the State of North Carolina. He did a rousing business, his receipts being largely by means of registered letters. The inspector wanted to know if such a company held a North Carolina charter. He was told no, and that no person in this State had ever before heard of it. Two of the certificates of stock were shown. They are beautifully printed in Chicago, in imitation of engraving, and are for $10 each. That was the denomination of all of them. It appears that they caught a great many widows and small investors. Morse, while doing so extensive a business in selling the stock in this bogus concern, had not been long at it. It is desired that the Secretary of State go to Kansas City to testify against him. He may go, but if he does not one of his clerks will do so. The government is very anxious to convict Morse. The certificates are signed "John Mitchell, president; J. B. Morris, secretary."

President Alderman, of the State University, is here. He is greatly gratified at the large attendance. There are nine young women students.

Rev. Dr. William L. Lacy, who, by reason of ill health, was compelled to resign the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church, is now here, having been brought by his brother, Labor Commissioner Lacy. He is better, though it was feared he would die at Baltimore, while on the way home. He is more hopeful of recovering than he has been in many months, and his physician here gives him encouraging news as to the prospect.

The old tobacco year closed at Winston. Winston sold over 18,000,000 pounds of leaf during the year and shipped 1,663,904 pounds of manufactured tobacco. The revenue stamp sales on the tobacco aggregated $1,996,793.08. These figures are considerably larger than for the previous year.

Charges are made that a professor named C. W. Eppes, colored, in the negro State Normal School, at Plymouth, is an ex-convict. There has been a convict of that name in the penitentiary. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction, to whom the charges are made, has directed the school board to make a complete investigation. This is done by the consent of the State Board of Education, which is in session.

There are 130 students enrolled at the Baptist Female University here. Tuesday evening President Blasigane and the faculty will give a reception to the public.

Lieutenant T. O. Smith, of the Asheville Light Infantry, resigns, having become a lieutenant in the Forty-seventh Infantry.

There were granted by the State Board of Public School Examiners five life certificates to teachers.

The McCall case, involving his title to various and sundry county solicitorships, comes up in the Supreme Court today.

St. Mary's School here adopts a new rule as to holidays. Saturdays are now study days and Monday is a holiday.

The aldermen here, having made a successful campaign against signs overhanging the sidewalks, have now begun one against telegraph, telephone and other poles in the streets. These poles are so numerous as to be dangerous.

Masked parties broke into the county jail at Winton, Hertford county, Friday night and shot Robert Vaughan, who was arrested under suspicion of barn burning. He was committed several weeks ago by a justice of the peace on circumstantial evidence. The act is greatly deplored. Vaughan will probably die.

The executive committee of the directors of the Methodist Orphanage here has accepted designs and plans for the cottages. The material will be brick, with stone trimmings, and the buildings will be two and one half stories in height, each accommodating a matron and 25 children. Work on the first of these cottages will begin next month. It is decided that they shall encircle the main building. The design for the latter is not yet prepared.

The Aberdeen and Rockfish Railway is now 26 miles long, and 20 miles are now being added, so it will reach the large cotton mills at Rockfish.
