RALEIGH, Oct. 25 .- The shooting seaso i in this State will begin November 1. It is safe to say that not in many years have there been more partridges. It was feared by many persons that the extreme cold weather and the deep snow last February would destroy them The birds are in all that part of the State east of the Blue Ridge and extending to the large Boer forces. tler of countles bordering the sounds. From Danville to Greensboro, thence as far west as Morganton and eastward to Goldsboro there are hirds in abundance. Greenville County offers good sport, and so does Person.

The Legislature, at its last session, entire British force by three to one. acted a law for a number of counties, requiring hunters to have the written permission of landowners when hunting on is much enthusiasm. the latters' lands. This was aimed at "pot hunters." In parts of the State mainly in the High Point and Hickory ections, Northern sportsmen, to a very large extent, pay the taxes on the lands and have all the privileges. Fast of Guilford county this is not done. The front. large landowners make things particularly pleasant for sportesmen, but some of the smaller one gives trouble some times.

It is not permitted to ship birds out of this State. The law is violated by taking investing Matching. birds away in trucks and in such pack ages as would not be suspected to contain them. It is said there are more wild proclamation defining the district turkeys in the lower Roanoke river north of the Vael river, including Beencountry than elsewhere.

The Commissioner of Agriculture has gone to Atlanta to attend the cotton growers' convention. The State farmers' organization here takes the name of the North Caroling Branch of the Cotton Association of the South County organizations are to be formed.

It seems that the State Farmers' Alliance, which last year nearly ceased to exist, is now gaining rapidly in membership. It is assorted by members that in six months it will be doubled. In 1891 it had 105,000; last year hardly 5,000
