It has been several years since New Bern has had a spiritual awakening that was feit throughout the entire city, feit in every department of its life. There are hundreds of Christians here who feel profoundly the need of an old fash ioned, heart crushing, life renewing revival. They long to experience it themothers. The echo of it we hear in conversation and in the public prayers of fered in our churches. We want a revival that will reach three classes of persons: It will atimulate the faithful in their work, it will reclaim the wayward tongue. from their errors, and it will lead the unregenerate to a saving knowledge of the Christ To somewnat particularize, feelings the revival which we desire is,
