New Bern is the county seat of Craven County, and has a population of nearly. if not quite 12,00 (souls. Its people are law-abiding, industrious and comparatively thrifty. It is known as the "City of Elms," its shelled streets being beautifully shaded with the trees to which it. is indebted for that cognomen, and it abounds in preffy situations, attractive and comfortable homes, and driveways into the succounding country through thrifty track farms, and modern poultry vards in whi a the finest varieties of

There are three solid, well managed banks in New Bern, with a combined paid up capital of $225,000, and surplus and undivided profits aggregating $150 .-800. These banks are liberal and have plenty surplus cash, and every accomnodation consistent with sound banking can be secured by manufacturers at a low rate of interest. Sportsman's Paradise.

New Bern is de tined to become a favorite Southern winter resort. Health and pleasure seekers will find hunting and fishing excellent, and the climate is se mild and the air so invigorating that debilitated and weak persons would speedily improve and eventually te restored to health and strength. It is an ideal field for the gunner, angler and vacht-man
