THEIR HOSPITAL.

Old Confederate Veterans Will Now be Comfortably Provided For.

Wrecked Church Sold Cheap. Artisan Well Sinking. Farmers Will Hold Cotton, Restraining Order in Force.

RESEARCH, September 19. - It is said that Senator Marion Butler proposes to locate here, and practice law. A Republican official says Mr. Butler is smart. He will go to some city in the west.

The wrecked Methodist church, destroyed by the cyclone this week at Youngsville, was sold yesterday for $74. The Baptist church is as completely wrecked.

The hospital at the Soldiers' home here is 10,000 feet, with 4 wards, each 3,500, a sun parlor 45x50, and a dining room, lobby and reception room. All the interior is fitted in place, in the natural color, and polished. It will cost about $100,000 to equip the building, as 100 iron beds will be required. The legislature gives the home $10,000 a year. It will be asked for $20,000 a year, so that 150 to 175 veterans can be sheltered.

The artisan well company of Richmond, which is driving the well at the blind institution here, has reached a depth of 120 feet. It is not expected to get a flowing well. It is said they do not flow in this State except near the coast. The company has 13 machines at work in the State. It has contracts to sink 18 wells along the Seaboard Air Line in this State.

The farmers say they intend to hold every bale of their cotton they can hold. They are looking for a price as high as 12 cents.

The roof from the Melrose Knitting mill here. By January 1st, it will be in operation.

President Alderman of the Tulane University was here yesterday on his way from Winston, N. C., to Chapel Hill. He goes to F. D. Sept. 25th. It opens Oct. 1.

D. D. Blue of Aberdeen, files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy here.

The order to restrain the State for collecting the $500 assessment of Western Union telegraph property is continued in force.

Is This Cuba Libre?

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, September 18. The elections for delegates to the Constitutional Convention have resulted in favor of the black party throughout this entire Province, and the whites now openly declare themselves to be annexationists.

Ten thousand colored men, who have worked themselves up almost to a frenzy and wearing badges, containing a skull and cross bones, signifying death to the Republican party, paraded through the principal streets of the city last night, carrying yellow candles and torches. A mock funeral of the Republican party was held today and was attended by about one thousand colored persons. The white people are cautious and are avoiding conflict.

Norfolk Lumber Strike.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 18. Those Norfolk playing mill operators who struck yesterday are still out and it is believed that union carpenters will refuse to work on houses where the material used is furnished by these mills. One mill owner said today that men to fill the strikers' places will probably be imported.

A New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railway car float with 22 cars aboard, bound from Cape Charles for Norfolk, last night broke adrift in a gale and drifted out to sea. Nine hours after ward the tug Delemar, which last night towed it safely to Norfolk.

Paul Leicester Ford Weds.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18. Paul Leicester Ford, author, and Miss Grace Kidder, daughter of Edward Hartwell Kidder, of Brooklyn, were married today at noon in the Kidder residence, 118 Roman street.

Only near relatives and friends were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Burgess, rector of Grace church on the Heights, and a novel feature was the presence of the vocal choir of the church.

While the wedding of Miss Kidder and Mr. Ford unites two well known Brooklyn families, their engagement, announced last spring, was a distinct surprise to society there.

"The Story of an Untold Love" is the first piece of literary work that brought Paul Ford before the public. This was followed by "The Hon. Peter Sterling," a story which is said to deal with the life of Grover Cleveland. "Janice Meredith," Ford's latest story is said to have been written with Miss Kidder as the heroine. Intimate friends of both say, however, that our only Miss Kidder's beauty has been drawn, her character having none of the willful tendencies of that capricious beauty Janice.

Justin McCarthy Retires.

LONDON, Sept. 20. - Justin McCarthy, member of Parliament, author of "History of Our Own Times" and other well known works, retires from Parliament. The cause of retirement is ill health.

CHINESE SITUATION URGENT.

Under Discussion by the Cabinet. Imperial Decrees Again Heard Of.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. - The situation in China has been recalled to the attention of the cabinet, and has been discussed at length. An important order was issued by the Chinese government, and the cabinet is expected to return to Peking to take part in the administration of the Empire.

The German note demanding the punishment of leaders in the Chinese and rages which was presented to Acting Secretary of State, Department yesterday will be considered by the Cabinet.

HONOLULU, September 18. Count von Waldersee arrived here today. The German ships in the harbor were decorated. He paid an official visit to the Governor and left later for Hilo and Taku.

The mandarin of the district has requested the native Christians to send an account of their losses for compensation and the names of Chinese who contributed to the relief.

Ever increasing bodies of outlaws on the North river are plundering villages. A bogus proclamation circulated in Canton describes the allies as defeated and appealing to the Emperor for peace.

GOV. SAYERS HOPEFUL.

City to be Rebuilt. Wires in Working Order. Clara Barton Busy.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. GALVESTON, Texas, September 19. Governor Sayers says that he expects the rebuilding of the city to be well under way by the end of the week. By that time the rubble will be cleared away and the dead buried.

The authorities are ready to turn on the current for the lights in the hotel district. Because of the danger from hanging wires on the street, the safety of lighting will be not entirely postponed.

Three telephone wires are now working between Galveston and Houston. Clara Barton, president of the Red Cross Society, has issued an appeal to the American people for money and supplies for the sick and wounded. Her files is to spend some of the money with her merchants wherever practicable. Her assistants are doing noble work.

KRUGER SAILS MONDAY.

Will Ask for Home Rule. Boats Wish for the End.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. LONDON, September 19. - President Kruger sails for Europe Monday by a Dutch steamer.

Administrative home rule for the conquered Boer country is to be demanded when he reaches Europe and he will issue a statement, probably before reaching Holland, asking the Powers to help force England to yield this much to his people.

Lord Roberts reports today the capture of Nali Spriet. Secretary Britz is reported to have gone to the hills. Small parties of Boers are continually circling at Laurence Marquis. They say they are anxious to see the war finished as a former struggle to apparently hope less.

The Coal Miners Strike.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 19. The Pennsylvania strike is more complete today than yesterday. Every mine is out in the Wyoming Valley and the feeling among the miners is confident. Pinkerton men, heavily armed, have poured in to the strike district today.

An advance in the price of coal as a result of the strike was made by the Philadelphia and Reading Company. Five cents per ton being added. This advance was promptly met by dealers, who increased the price to consumers 50 cents a ton.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 18. Grand Chief P. M. Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said today he did not think it likely that the engineers will refuse to haul anthracite coal mined by the non-union miners.

"The strike, if it continues, will undoubtedly soon result in many railroad men being thrown out of employment," said Mr. Arthur. "This will, of course, lead to dissatisfaction and unrest among them. Under such conditions the engineers might become involved in the strike. But it is not probable."

Simmons at Pittsburg.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. RICHMOND, Sept. 19. - Chairman J. M. Simmons has gone to Pittsburg to aid in the defense of the Democratic election officers there, who are charged by the fusionists there with violations of the law. The fusionists are pushing the prosecution.

Town Fire Swept.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 19. The summer town of Spring Lake, New Jersey, was fire swept today. The loss is $20,000.

Wolcott Doesn't Want It.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. WASHINGTON, Sept. 20. - Ex-Governor Wolcott of Massachusetts declines the appointment of Ambassador to Italy.

SENATORIAL CLAIMS.

Both Aspirants Putting Out Figures. And Both Pleased.

QUEER IDEA OF REPUBLICANS. PATIENTS AT INSANE ASYLUM. CATTLE FEVER BREAKS OUT. ATTENDANCE AT UNIVERSITY. HIRING OUT FOR PICKERS.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. RICHMOND, Sept. 20. The Senatorial fight grows warmer daily. Julian S. Carr was here this morning and assured his friends that he was greatly pleased with the outlook. Chairman Simmons has advised from his native county that it is practically sold for him. Not much is expected here in this part of the State of Waldersee's canvass. The latter has some zealous friends here. The fact is, the Senatorial fight makes lively an otherwise dull campaign.

A number of the Republicans who gave their straight ticket and for the Amendment have the idea that they can vote in November at the Senatorial primary, and are talking about what they propose to do. Their talk causes much amusement.

There are now in the Insane Asylum here 10 patients. Of these 28 are at home on leave or furlough. All patients who show any prospect of being relieved get taken. There are almost half a dozen whiskey and morphine users under special treatment, these being poor patients. With these there has been great success. There has been no sickness during the summer. The water supply is fine. Three driven wells, operated by electric pumps supply water for general use, and one, operated by steam, water for drinking. One of the patients have been here since 1858. The asylum was opened February 22, 1856.

Cotton seed selling here at 22 1/2 cents per bushel, against 12 1/2 cents last year.

There is a fresh outbreak of Splenic fever among cattle in Edgecombe county. The Commissioner of Agriculture was notified today of this. Seven head of cattle in a herd are sick, and five have died. The writer of the letter asked for a copy of the law in regard to the killing of cattle from one county to another, particularly when infected.

There are now 48 students at the state University, of these about a dozen are ladies. Of the ladies who graduated last year a number held good positions as teachers, etc. For example, Miss Alice Jones, St. Mary's, Raleigh, Miss Emily at France Institute, here, Miss Joan Jones in the schools at Brookline, Mass., Miss Maria Latham, the winner of two of the highest honors in Texas, Miss Sallie Stockard is doing special literary work, mainly historical. Two of the new members of the faculty, Dr. Thomas Ruffin Clark, and Dr. Whorton Schenck, have arrived.

The American Cotton Oil Company has put up in connection with its plant here one of the best cotton gins in the state with a capacity of 60 bales a day. Melville P. Troy, an employee in the custom house at Havana, is here on a visit. He is a son of the late Rev. R. P. Troy. He was until 1858 on the Greensboro division. He that year went in the United States hospital service.

There are some very smart farmers last Sunday during the morning service at one of the negro churches here, a farmer drove in front of the church with two or three wagons, and as the people of the church lined up he could load to go to his farm and pick cotton. He took his wagons and drove away.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Foy left today for the mountains for a stay of a month.

To prevent consumption quickly cure throat and lung troubles with time. Minute Cough Cure. F. S. Duffy.

Death of Dr. McGuire. RICHMOND, Va., September 20. Dr. Heister McGuire, the chief surgeon of the 2nd U. S. Cavalry, and one of the best known medical men of the south died here this morning. His death occurred six months to the day from the time he was stricken with paralysis. This also occurred in the streets while Dr. McGuire was being driven from his home in St. Luke's Hospital, on West Street.

At the close of the war Dr. McGuire made his home in Richmond, having been appointed to the chair of surgery in the Medical College of Virginia. He resigned this appointment in 1872, but in 1880 he accepted the emeritus professorship of surgery.

In 1872 he was honored with the degree of D. D. by the University of North Carolina, and in the following year a winter honor was conferred upon him by Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia.

In 1880 he established St. Luke's Hospital and home for the sick, which he conducted with the greatest success.

In 1901 he established the Virginia Hospital and the University College of Medicine.

Dr. McGuire was born in the city of New York, and died at his home in Richmond, Va., on September 20, 1900.

Dr. McGuire was a member of the American Medical Association, and the American College of Surgeons.

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS.

Convention Meets at Raleigh Next Week. Delegates and Leaders Invited.

RICHMOND, September 20. - The State convention of the Democratic Clubs meets here on next Wednesday, September 20th, in the Academy of Music. Yesterday, State Chairman Simmons and National Committeeman Daniels telegraphed to Guy Stone, of Missouri, who is now in New York, and to Sen. For Daniel of Virginia, inviting them to address the convention. Also an invitation was sent them by mail, and it is hoped that they will be able to accept.

Speeches will be made also by Hon. Charles E. Aycock, Governor-elect, Hon. Lee S. Overman, and Hon. Dan Hugh McLean, clerics at large, and others. Applications have been made to the railroad for reduced rates, as one fare rate will probably be secured.

While delegates have already been chosen by the clubs in many counties, in others the matter has not been attended to. In such cases delegates should be chosen at once, and in all towns where clubs have not been organized the Democrats are urged to get together and organize in time to be represented in the convention.

In addition to the delegations from regularly organized clubs, every Democratic Congressional candidate, State and county officers, and all leaders of the party are invited and expected to be present and participate in the convention.

The Coal Miners Strike.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. WILKESBARRE, Pa., September 20. - The Pennsylvania coal mine strikers are today forcing the other men, who are not members of the Union to quit work and will not permit mining operations to go on.

Another effort at arbitration failed today.

Appeals have been made for help by the city poor. The government of the region have refused to allow the strikers credit and many are in difficulties.

A settlement of the strike is not yet in sight, and the situation in that respect is precisely the same as it was yesterday. The United Mine Workers' officials are combining their efforts to getting the men to quit work everywhere, believing that they cannot successfully carry on the contest unless every operation is tied up. The operators appear to be doing nothing toward a settlement of the trouble. They are working the collieries which are crippled as best as they can.

The Weather Conditions.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 20. - For North Carolina. Partly cloudy with showers, warmer in central and south-east portions. Friday, showers. Fresh east winds.

Weather conditions. The temperature has generally risen in the eastern, central, and southern portions, and fallen slightly over the northwest.

The high barometer area has moved eastward off the coast. The low area is central over Lake Superior and has caused showers in the lake region, the interior valleys, and the southwest and northwest.

High temperatures prevailed yesterday in the lower Mississippi valley and southern Texas.

The conditions indicate that the unsettled area will spread into this section and rain may be expected Friday. The winds will be westerly, fresh.

Another New York Fire.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. NEW YORK, Sept. 20. - A big fire today swept away the Terminal stores on Tenth and Eleventh Avenues in this city, destroying the wholesale dry goods stock. The loss by the fire is put at a million dollars.

In addition to the large and complete stock of Bicycles and Sundries, I am carrying a full and varied stock of Guns, Revolvers, Loaded Shells, &c.

I will guarantee to save you money on any make of Gun, and will sell other goods in this line on very close margin. Give me a call.
