AS AN EXHIBIT.

The State Fair is a Great Industrial Exposition Success.

Leather Exhibit From Asheville. Foot Ball Friday. New Hostry Mill. Baptist State Convention. Will Display at Buffalo.

Special to Journal.
RALEIGH, October 24.—The State Fair is a great success as what may be termed a practical exposition of the state. It shows very marked industrial development and the college work stands out as a feature of marked interest. The women's work is in the line of light handiwork, while the college work is of iron and wood, and almost entirely of very practical things. The work by the pupils of the blind and half-blind schools is also practical, whether of wood or straw or cloth. The exhibit from the great Vanderbilt farm at Blount, of farm products and of poultry is an object lesson in itself. The other exhibits of farm products are excellent. Yancey county makes by far the best apple show ever made at a Fair here, and also shows peaches, notably "Gardner's October," the finest ever seen here. In furniture the home work compares with the best done in other States, and the use of home woods is general. Greensboro shows carpets, well made and of excellent design. For the first time there is a complete exhibit of leather, from the great Asheville tannery, including curiosities in the shape of enormous elephant and walrus skins. The agriculture and mechanical college here for whites, and that at Greensboro, for negroes, have worthy exhibits. There is also a large collection of rugs and carpets made by patients of the insane asylum here, this being a new line of lucrative employment for women.

The foot ball game between the Blacksburg and Raleigh Agricultural and Mechanical College will be played Friday morning at the fair ground. John McKee will be umpire and Perrin Busbee referee, both being from the University of North Carolina.

The State charters the Leakville House and Power company, capital $15,000, with authorized increase to $200,000 and power to build and operate cotton mills.

The Raleigh Hostry company has begun work on a new mill, quite near the penitentiary. It will be 100 by 50 feet and will employ 50 persons. The output of the present mill is 300 dozen pairs daily.

Zach F. Long of Rockingham county has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy here, with liabilities of $15,000, assets nothing.

Early in December the Baptist State convention will meet at the First Baptist church here. The convention will show a gain of more than 10,000 during the year.

There is no doubt that this State will make a worthy exhibit at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo.

TOBACCO FIGHTERS.

Think They Can Down The American Tobacco Trust.

The Disbanded Companies. Gen. Carr Rejected President Badges On the Fair Grounds. Cotton Delays to Mobile.

Special to Journal.
RALEIGH, Oct. 25.—Today was the great day at the State Fair and it was shown in every sense of the word. Growers last night laid the dust. People poured in yesterday and today from all parts of the State. The Fair was given general satisfaction.

Adjutant-General Royster, speaking today of the recent disbandment of the Plymouth, Maxton and Redville companies of the State Guard said application for permission to reorganize the companies at Maxton and Plymouth are already in hand. There are many applications on file for admission to the Guard.

The Supreme court usually takes a recess on Thursday of State Fair week but today it worked.

Simmons, a Carr badge in profusion are given away at the Fair grounds by supporters of the two senatorial gamecocks, and the persimmon and the picture of Carr on a button are seen on thousands of coat lapels. The retirement of Waddell and Jarvis from the great race only serves to make it livelier. Carr was here today.

Pickpockets got a watch and $100 from Ed McKissick here. He is the newly known proprietor of the Battery Park hotel at Asheville.

The tobacco growers say they are confident that they can perfect their organization so as to include practically all growers of any importance and thus regulate prices and defeat the latest trust, the American Tobacco Company. Their committee will make formal demand upon the legislature that at the coming session it enforce the law which imposes $10,000 fine and 10 years imprisonment upon the members of a trust convicted. William A. Guthrie of Durham is in his appeal to the United States Circuit Court of appeals fighting the trust as hard as he can.

Julian S. Carr was last night re-elected President and C. B. Denson Secretary of the North Carolina Confederate Association, both by acclamation. Committees were appointed to thank the Daughters of the Confederacy for an operation, to memorialize the legislature to give more money for the Soldiers Home and urge it to give no more special pensions.

NO FINDING HIM.

Teller Alvord Disappeared. Also the $700,000.

Special to Journal.

NEW YORK, October 24.—No trace has yet been found of Class I, Alvord, the defaulting teller of the First National bank of New York.

It is generally believed that Alvord has gone to South America, the usual refuge of defaulters. The seven hundred thousand default in the largest one that has ever occurred in New York. The teller received a salary of five thousand dollars a year and spent $20,000 a year, on household expenses. His betting on races was heavy and he was a heavy dealer in the stock market.

Alvord is 50 years old and has a wife and three children. His home was at Mount Vernon, and he was respected there and his habits were good.

A statement made by the First National Bank on September 5 showed: Capital, $500,000; surplus, $5,000,000; undivided profits, $1,114,250; deposits, $39,997,895; demand loans and cash on hand, $23,379,276; time loans, $5,654,610, and stocks and bonds, $20,110,409. In this statement the bank's total resources were placed at $52,663,294.

Krueger and Buller.
DURHAM, N. C., October 23.—Gen. Buller, speaking before an assemblage of local admirers said:

"In 1881 I met Mr. Krueger at O'Neill's farm, near Newcastle, He said: 'General, we don't like this peace.' 'I replied: 'Neither do I, because we have got nothing to stand upon. You think you have beaten us, but we know we can beat you.' 'Mr. Krueger rejoined: 'Well, General, I have seen that when two dogs fight and are separated, they are never right until they have fought it out.' 'We have fought it out, and have come out on top. We shall be good friends, because the top dog never takes a advantage of its position.'"

Raise Main Wreck.
WASHINGTON, October 21.—Secretary Long has given his consent to the removal of the battleship Maine from Havana harbor.

Immediately upon the return of General Wood to Havana he will make arrangements for the raising of the wreck. Several months ago applications were made to General Wood by persons willing to remove the Maine, if they were given the hull in return for the work, and it is possible that they may still be willing to observe the same terms. Besides the Maine General Wood will probably make arrangements for the removal of the armored cruisers Vizcaya, Almirante Oquendo and Cristobal Colon, that now lie along the south coast of Cuba, and the gunboat Juan Juan, which is lying in the mud in the harbor of Nipe.

General Wood will have a representative present during the removal of the Maine and Lieutenant Commander Young, the captain of the port of Havana, will witness the operation. Should any evidence be discovered bearing upon the cause of the destruction of the ship it will be immediately reported to Washington. The Maine is pretty far down in the mud and it probably will be a very difficult task to raise her.

Krueger's Mission.
THE HAGUE, Oct. 24.—Not much credence is given here to utterances reported in the English press of St. John Galfney, of New York, with regard to former President Krueger's object in visiting Europe. He alleges that the mission is to induce the powers not to recognize British sovereignty in South Africa, and that the ex-President of the Transvaal will probably visit the United States.

Galfney is unknown in Holland, even of partisans of the Boers, and his declarations are totally opposed to those made by Mr. Krueger himself and by the Dutch Consul at Lorenzo Marques.
