ROYAL

The Absolutely Pure

is the baking powder of general use, its sale exceeding that of all other baking powders combined.

Royal Baking Powder has not its counterpart at home or abroad. Its qualities, which make the bread more healthful and the cake of finer appearance and flavor, are peculiar to itself and are not constituent in other leavening agents.

Great efforts are made to sell alum baking powders under the plea that they are so many cents a pound cheaper than Royal. The admission that they are inferior, but alum powder contains a corrosive poison and should not be used in food, no matter how cheap.

What it Cost Levi.

Chicago, October 28.—Popular opinion attributes the present prosperity of the country at large to the administration at Washington. This impression, it appears, is erroneous, and should be corrected at once. It is all due to a Chicago man, who has hitherto been content to allow his light hidden under a bushel; several millions of them, in fact. At least, so he says. When approached some days since for a contribution to the Republican national campaign fund, Levi Z. Leiter, of this city, after tartly declining to part with a single dollar of his hard-earned millions, added by way of explanation of his refusal: "Prosperity is the Republican party's winning card this year, and I'd like to know who has done more to bring about the existing state of affairs than I have. Prosperity begins with the farmer, and as that wheat deal of my son's cost me $7,000,000, I think I have done all that can be reasonably expected of me toward the present campaign. Incidentally, this is the first time Mr. Leiter has given the public an idea of the actual cost of "Joe" Leiter's sensational attempt to corner the wheat market two years ago.

Aycock Quite Recovered.

Special to Journal. HANCOCK, November 5.—Gov.-Elect Charles B. Aycock is completely restored to health. He is expected to arrive here tomorrow afternoon and will be here for a day or two as the guest of P. M. Pearson.

In South Africa.

Special to Journal. LONDON, November 6.—Lord Roberts reports that the Boers still in the field are disheartened as food is scarce and ammunition still scarcer. Steyn is trying to inspire the Boers by telling them that Kruger will secure European intervention. Mr. Kruger is in better health and is reported as saying that he hopes the Boers will continue the struggle.

Kruger is Ill.

Special to Journal. LONDON, November 3.—Kruger is reported very ill on board the Dutch Cruiser Gelderland, and it is thought he may not reach Marselles alive. His wife is seriously sick at Pretoria. Boers have re-appeared near Ladysmith and are sniping.

McQuade Still Alive.

Special to Journal. WASHINGTON, November 5.—John McQuade is still alive at the Emergency Hospital in this city. His neck was broken in a foot ball game Sunday and an operation was performed that gives hope of his ultimate recovery.

Filipinos Issue Statement.

Special to Journal. WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The Filipino agents in Paris have issued a manifesto saying that the conservative element of the Philippines reject American rule and demand their independence and that the natives refuse to take the oath of allegiance and will burn loyal towns.

RALEIGH.

Quiet in the City Yesterday. Misapplied Funds. Information Asked For. Special to Journal.

Raleigh, November 6.—The election here was very quiet. There were no crowds about the polls. But little campaigning was done today. Most of it was done yesterday.

Of course all the interest was in the Senate contest. Gen. Carr arrived here late last night. The gate receipts at the recent State Fair were over $1,000 more than ever before.

John H. Williamson, the secretary of the negro State Fair, has been found on the charge of misappropriating $50 of the funds. He was arrested and held to appear next week. He says the society owes him money and he desires settlement.

The United States navy department writes to Secretary of State Thompson asking for information as to any descendants of Capt. Blakeley, United States Navy. A descendant is wanted to christen the torpedo boat Blakeley. Capt. Blakeley died in the face of his country and his daughter was the ward of the State of North Carolina, which adopted and maintained her until her marriage. It is believed she has descendants in North Carolina, North Carolina.

Kentucky to Cross Atlantic.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—European diplomats are greatly interested in the passage of the battleship Kentucky through European waters. The Kentucky, it is said, will be the first American battleship that has ever been across the Atlantic. When the battleships Oregon and Iowa left New York, the one for the Asiatic and the other for the Pacific station, they steamed around the Horn. The orders given the Kentucky require her to go through the Suez Canal.

It has been suggested that the Kentucky might drop into a Turkish port in the hope that the moral effect that her presence would produce would cause the Sultan to pay the indemnity which this Government had demanded at frequent intervals for the past six months. Administration officials assert that it is the purpose of the President to bring stronger pressure to bear to secure this payment.

allowing a cough or a cold to develop into pneumonia or consumption. One Minute Cough Cure will cure throat and lung troubles quicker than any other preparation known. Many doctors use it as a specific for grippe. It is an infallible remedy for croup. Children like it and mothers endorse it. F. B. Duffy.

Boers Seek New Land.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Reports from South Africa indicate that the Boers are starting upon a great trek to the west coast of Africa, where many of them desire a new Republic. General Botha listens to establish a new Republic. General Botha, with a strong force, is marching westward from the Orange Free State.

It is reported that Lord Roberts, who was scheduled to leave South Africa on November 15, has postponed his departure owing to one of his daughters being a sufferer from enteric fever at Pretoria.
