REASON FOR FAILURE.

Why have our immigrants failed to flourish in this country?

By Brought South.

The failure of our immigrants to flourish in this country is a subject that has long attracted the attention of the public.

Reports received from the territories along the New River show that the immigrants have failed to flourish in this country.

The reason for this failure is not the fault of the immigrants, but the fault of the country.

The country has failed to provide the immigrants with the necessary facilities for their success.

The country has failed to provide the immigrants with the necessary facilities for their success.
