A. & N. C. RAILROAD AND ITS SECTION'S DEVELOP-

MENT.

While no official report of the recent inspection of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad property has been made public, unofficial reports state that those who made the inspection trip were greatly astonishad at the improvement of the road's property, and the development of the country along the line of the railroad.

Those who live on the line of the A & N. C. rallroad, cannot fully realize the changes which have been made during the past three years.

In the passenger service, the public had a single train each way, daily, except Sunday

Now there is a daily passenger service of two trains each way, every day, inpassenger trains in additional each

It was not very long ago, that a daily mall in and out, except Sundays, was all the business interests along this railroad received. Now this service is doubled, daily, with the same service on Sunday

It was not very long ago, that it was Impossible for anyone to leave New Bern or Morehead from Saturday night to Monday morning. Now there is no ditention on Sunday or any other day in the week, but the opportunity to leave morning and evening with certainties of connections at the end of the road at Goldsboro.

It was not long ago that the stations along the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad, were hardly protection against a slight rain or the weather, hot or cold. Today, hardly a stopping point on the road, but has its neat and comfortable station building

And in the freight service of the road. there will be found improvements at every point, with special increase of this service at the main places, Goldshoro, Kinston, New Bern

And with these increased facilities the public has less charges to pay for travelling and freight services.

This section of Eastern Carolina may accept these greatly increased benefits from the Atlantic and North Carolina Hallroad, and not appreciate the fact that its people are greatly indebted to the road and its management.

It may be argued as a purely commer cial transaction, these increased passenger and treight facilities, lower rates etc. but yet the people along the A & N. C. road, and in the section through marked to Major Laine that he had not which it passes are reaping personal- felt so well in some time as today." benefits, and there is an increase of wealth to people and land, because of this ratiroad development.

Even without an official endorsement the management of the A. & N C road cannot be indifferent to the fact that it has done a great work in the improvement of the property given to its charge, and to the section through which the road passes, in greatly promoting and assisting in its development.

The new school law, as stated some time ago, makes no provision for the giving of life certificates to public school teachers. That provision was surposely omitted. The board of public school examiners will not therefore have to pass upon any applications for such certificates.

There is a great demand for the new laws. The issue of advance copies of each law, as printed has relieved the strain considerably
