The case of Lewis Council, the negro who is for the tidad time resplied at Fayetteville, is attracting much attention. His counsel made the plea that there was no proof of Council's being the right man. Then came Mrs. West of former President Kruger, of the South the utter destruction of about 40,000 and urged that there be no commutation of the death sentence. Now comes sheriff Burns with the positive oath that Mrs. West said Council was not the man. The governor upon his return here will take up this whole matter.
