Why His Clock Was Slow.

There is an Italian fruit dealer, with a well stocked store pear one of the suburban railway stations, who has adopted a unique device, and one which shows a deep knowledge of human nature, to hold his own in competition with another dealer, whose stand is some fifty yards nearer the station than his own. A commuter remarked:

Champagne Puzzles Arabs.

A Vienna newspaper contains a long description of the expedition led by the Austrian explorers Musil and Mielich into the north Arabian deserts, Pfill. Mr. 1701 v. Oct. 24 - The schooner where they collected many scientific casions by hostile Araba. Five times they drove off their assailants, but on the sixth they were overcome and robbed of everything. Then explanations took place. The explorers informed the Arabs that they were not traders, of champagne which were among the stores were presented to the Araba, who were delighted with the beverage. Of course they did not know they were transgressing the Mohammedan law regarding wine. What puzzled them a good deal was how champagne could
