INTERNATIONAL JEALOUSIES.

The reception and entertainment given Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of the Emperor of Germany, according to some reports, seems to have aroused the jealousy of England.

Thus while the reports tell of the satisfaction and joyous feeling in Berlin, over the attentions shown Prince Henry, there is corresponding gloom and envy in London.

As each attention and public favor is bestowed upon the Royal Visitor in this country, there is said to be anxious feelings abroad among the nations, which regard this country's entertainment of our German visitor, as something especially significant.

The fact that there is no significance in anything which has been or will be done for Prince Henry's pleasure, is perfectly apparent and well understood in this country.

The Royal guest is receiving the fullest and best of everything which this country can give him, the same as would be given to any guest of equal importance, be he from Russia or England.

But Prince Henry's public entertainments in this country, will not lessen in any degree the commercial competition of our people, when they meet the German merchants in the world's markets.

It is the American spirit to be lavish, if not prodigal in its hospitality, but when it comes to trade and barter, there will be found nothing to suggest that American thrift has been overcome by what has taken place at the banquet board.

The talk of this country being in any degree affected because of Prince Henry's visit, so as to show any commercial favoritism towards Germany, is pure imagination.

The sight of these international jealousies cannot but amuse Uncle Sam.

THE MEETING ON MARCH 25TH.

The meeting of the State Democratic Executive committee, called to meet on the 25th of this month, is said to have several matters of public, or rather State interest, to decide.

One is the question of a long or short political campaign this year.

The best interests of the State, its commercial, industrial and social will be affected by the length of time given to politics this year, so that a short campaign means less agitation and disturbance of these interests.

Another question which may, or not, be brought up for some discussion is regarding the matter of a senatorial primary this year.

Those who had anything to do with the last senatorial primary are not likely to be enthusiastic over another, but the regular State Democratic convention in its meeting, should determine this matter.

The matter of the place for holding the next State convention, is said to be a subject for the committee meeting this month to decide upon.

The Journal has on occasions, criticized Raleigh, for its being without accommodations, hall and hotel, suitable for entertaining great gatherings.

Remembering on the Journal's criticisms, a Raleigh paper has said, "why does not the Journal suggest Morehead as a good place for the conventions?"

While this query from the esteemed daily at Raleigh may seem a settler, the Journal will say, that Morehead can at least provide hall and hotel accommodations for a crowd, which Raleigh cannot do.

But as to the next meeting place, Raleigh a few days ago developed great activity in its auditorium scheme. On paper and in promises this scheme auditorium again became a certainty, and will continue to exist—admittedly, until the committee on the 25th decides Raleigh as the place, when the bubble will again burst, and discomforts will again be the portion of all who must attend the convention at Raleigh.

The committee on the 25th has not without something to do, and what it does is really important, in many ways.

LOOKS LIKE ONE SIDED POLITICAL YEAR.

The importance of the elections in North Carolina this year rests more upon the nominees who shall be named by the Democratic party, than upon any contest these nominees may have with an opposing political party.

For from present outlook, there is apparently only one political party to name men for office, and then elect them to their respective offices, in the coming State elections.

There are to be elected ten Congressmen; a Legislature which will elect a United States Senator to succeed Senator Pritchard; Supreme Court judges to succeed Chief Justice Furches and Associate Justices Clark and Cook; ten Superior Court judges to succeed Judges Winston, Timberlake, Robinson, Neal, Coble, Starbuck, Hoke, Moore, Justice and Jones; a railroad commissioner to succeed Abbott; sixteen solicitors and all county officers, including Superior Court clerks.

Here is a list, that ought to inspire any party to arouse itself, and try to secure some part of the offices for its followers.

But with no special organization of the Republicans in the State, and the Populists without leadership, and the Democrats holding all the vantage ground, it simply remains for the Democrats to name its men for the offices.

The one sided political election this year does not mean any good for the Democratic party, or for the people of the State.

Political opposition, is what is needed to develop strong leaders and men of high character for the offices.

This year's political election in North Carolina means fierce local contests, and a demoralizing political leadership, with political fitness the sole and governing requisite for a nomination.

It is going to be a bad year for candidates, whose nomination lies in "expediency" for, there is no need for the exercise of political "expediency" in North Carolina this year, by the Democrats.

It will be a season for those whose claim is "I am a Democrat," and the applicant without this feather flying had best keep out of the way.

This one-sided contest does not necessarily mean that poor or incompetent men will be elected to office, but it does mean that strife, strong and long abiding will be engendered in the Democratic ranks, which will disturb its organization far more than a defeat at the polls.

South Carolina Wants President.

Washington, Feb. 28.—President Roosevelt has received many telegrams from South Carolina urging him not to cancel his proposed trip to the Charleston Exposition as a result of the Tillman-McLaurin episode and ensuing incidents. Sheriff's Settlements With State

Slow. New Lodges of Odd Fellows. Rain Storm. Glanders Among Horses.

RALEIGH, February 28.—Attorney General Gilmer, ex-chief justice Shepherd, James H. Merrimon and George Rountree leave tomorrow for Washington, where they will appear before the Supreme Court Monday to look after the State's interests in the suit brought against it by South Dakota to recover full principal and interest of State bonds issued in aid of the Western North Carolina railway.

To this date only 19 counties have made full settlement of State taxes for 1901.

Rev. A. A. Marshall, pastor of the First Baptist church here, who for nine weeks has been sick of jaundice, leaves tomorrow for Indian Springs, Ga.

The growth of the Odd Fellows in this State continues to be remarkable. The receipts this year will be 15 per cent greater than those last year and will be nearly $11,000. There were received yesterday applications for new lodges at Jackson, Northampton county, and Wadesboro.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction has telegraphed to Cherokee Camden, Henderson, Madison, Martin Nash and Robeson counties, that they must send in at once statements of their needs of funds to keep their schools open four months in the year. The money is ready for distribution, even before these reply. No county whose schools have been open four months can get any money.

There was a sharp thunder storm here this morning, lasting an hour, accompanied by a great rain. The latter will cause a further rise in the swollen streams. Neuse river near here is raging. It is near the mark of the great May freshet of 1901. On the hillsides some plowing was being done yesterday. This rain will stop farm work for perhaps another week.

Glanders has made its appearance among the horses and mules in the Scot land Neck section. State Veterinarian Talt Butler is there and made the diagnosis.

PRINCE HENRY IN CAPITOL.

Hears Hay's Eulogy on McKinley. Very Impressive Scene in Hall of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—At noon today in the great hall of Representatives in the presence of President Roosevelt, Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of the German Emperor, the members of the cabinet, the justices of the Supreme Court, the general of the army and officers of the army and navy who have received the thanks of Congress, the ambassadors and other diplomatic representatives of foreign countries, the Senators and Representatives in Congress and a large number of distinguished guests, Hon. John Hay, McKinley's Premier, pronounced an eulogy upon his dead chief.

By a strange coincidence today was the twentieth anniversary of that on which the peerless Blaine in the same hall delivered an eulogy upon the martyred Garfield, and stranger still, the subject of today's memorial service was the chairman of the committee that had charge of the arrangements on that occasion.

Cotton Receipts Pass Million Bale Mark.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Treasury Department has received a request from New York for the privilege of depositing $2,000,000 in gold with the Subtreasury there, with the privilege of withdrawing it at San Francisco, presumably for shipment to the Orient.

The request also says that probably $14,000,000 will be required before the middle of March. As this transaction is of advantage to the Government, the department having an excess of gold in San Francisco, the request has been granted.

PRESIDENT MAY STAY AWAY

From Charleston Exposition. Sword Presentation Outside Matter. What Chicagoans Say.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—It is reported here tonight that President Roosevelt may not go to the Charleston Exposition.

This rumored decision is said to have followed the Tillman-McLaurin episode in the Senate; the withdrawal of the invitation to Senator Tillman to attend the Prince Henry dinner at the White House, and of the latest phase of the whole affair, the request that President Roosevelt withdraw his acceptance of an invitation to present a sword to Major Mitch Jenkins, of the Rough Riders, on the occasion of his visit to Charleston.

The President realized that the entire matter has aroused a bitter feeling in South Carolina. He is not unaware that he would be hospitably received in Charleston, yet he would not care to visit South Carolina unless all the people were personally desirous of having him do so. The injection of politics and personalities into his trip would be unpleasant. Reports received by the President are that the people of the State are split over the Tillman-McLaurin affair, and that feeling runs high. The information is that the Senate episode will play an important part in the campaign this summer for a successor to Senator McLaurin.

Charleston, S. C., Feb. 27.—It is stated here to day that Lieutenant Governor Tillman's action in withdrawing the invitation to President Roosevelt to present the sword to Major Jenkins will have no effect on the Exposition program for the President's entertainment.

The sword presentation was an incident only of the President's visit to Charleston and in no way connected with the Exposition program. The sword was purchased with a fund raised by subscription among the women of South Carolina and others, largely under Lieutenant Governor Tillman's stimulation.

The invitation was extended by Lieutenant Governor Tillman and a place for the ceremony was made on the program by the Exposition committee, at his request. The whole matter is outside of Exposition or Charleston control.

WHAT CHICAGOANS SAY.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Chicagoans who have been planning to take part in the Illinois Day celebration at Charleston March 11, declare themselves astounded at the telegram sent President Roosevelt by Colonel Tillman. Intimations are made that the Marquette and Hamilton Clubs will not take part in the celebration unless the management of the Exposition repudiates the action of Colonel Tillman.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W. Walt, of South Gardner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by F. S. Duffy & Co.

HE RIVALED AGUINALDO.

Terror of Samar Island Captured. Filipinos Paid Tribute to Him.

MANILA, Feb. 26.—General Smith, in command of the United States troops on the Island of Samar, cables that Lieutenant Strebler's scouts have captured Lukban, the notorious leader of the Samar rebels, and brought him to Laguan, capital of a small island of that name, north of and adjoining Samar.

The report has been confirmed by a cable from General Chaffee. The prisoner is confined at Laguan.

Another capture is reported in the same dispatch, that of William Dunston, said to be a deserter from Company C, Eighth Infantry, who had in his possession a lot of arms and ammunition and all of the tools necessary for the making of ammunition. He was captured by Second Lieutenant Pratt, First Infantry, at Cagayan, on the Island of Samar.

The lieutenant also destroyed the Cuartel and factory, and killed 11 soldiers, besides capturing all of Dunston's correspondence.

The officials of the War Department regard the capture of Lukban as the most important military event since Aguinaldo's capture. He was run down on the Island of Samar. The place of his confinement is a tiny island in a bay on the north coast of Samar.

Lukban is one of the most energetic and ferocious of rebels. He is a half-breed, a mixture of Chinese and Filipino stock, and he has been an irreconcilable from the first. He had various fastnesses in the mountains of Samar from which he would descend upon the coast towns, and his reign of terror was so complete that the entire population of the Island paid tribute to him as the price of freedom from attack.

Ordinary campaign methods failed in his case, and his capture now is believed to be the natural working out of the system of dividing the island into small squares by military garrisons and making it impossible for the insurgents to obtain food or shelter.

General Chaffee has ordered that Lukban be tried as a prisoner of war of officer's rank.

are studying the bacillus of consumption thoughtful laymen realize that a bad cold unattended by coughing, sore throat and tightness across the chest is too serious a matter for delay or experiment. They also realize that Allen's Lung Balm cures a common cold in a day or two. Obsolete cases take more time, of course.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, MARYLAND.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to deafen, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the deafness would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the deafened ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 75 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.
