

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL

Established 1878. Published in Two Sections, every Tuesday and Friday, at 56 Middle Street, New Bern, N. C.

CHARLES L. STEVENS, Editor and Proprietor.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Two Months, $1.00; Three Months, $2.50; Six Months, $5.00; Twelve Months, $10.00.

Advertising rates furnished upon application at the office, or upon inquiry by mail.

The Journal is only sent on pay-in-advance basis. Subscribers will receive notice of expiration of their subscriptions and an immediate response to notice will be appreciated by the Journal.

Enter at the Postoffice, New Bern, N. C. as second-class matter.

Section: Two, Friday April 18, 1903

THE DEATH OF TALMAGE.

In the death of the Rev. T. Dewitt Talmage which occurred last week, there is more than the loss of a merely gifted pulpit orator and preacher.

There have been, and are today great preachers, who in their special localities are doing great work for fallen humanity, by their personal efforts and appeals for the recognition of Christ by every man, woman and child.

There are preachers whose work is not circumscribed and limited, but extends beyond their own immediate parishes.

But Mr. Talmage was both pastor and preacher, and in addition his weekly sermon for years has been looked forward to and eagerly read by hundreds of thousands of people who never saw Mr. Talmage, but who felt themselves under his preaching, through his weekly sermons.

It was a peculiar and special province, this weekly sermon, of Rev. Mr. Talmage, which has been a source of unbounded joy and comfort to the thousands who each week received it, through their newspaper.

The Talmage sermon was as regularly read as was the Bible, and the good which came through these published sermons cannot be estimated.

God has been done and its effect can never be lost, by this weekly sermon of the old dead preacher, who gave himself and devoted his life to religious work.

It has been a strenuous life, this one just closed, but the strenuousness has ever been towards the uplifting of mankind, and in this it has been a great boon to the world for good, and a help to the cause of religion.

In thousands of homes will the death of Rev. T. Dewitt Talmage be mourned, as though a dear one had been taken away.

SURPRISED AT THEIR OWN EFFORTS.

Next to the Charlestonians, themselves, the visitors from this State at the Charleston Exposition during North Carolina week, were as happily surprised, by the enthusiasm which their coming created.

From all reports, North Carolina week at Charleston was the one bright week of the Exposition up to that time.

The number of North Carolinians was so large, that especially on the Exposition grounds, it seemed as if the place was the Old North State instead of being South Carolina.

In addition to going themselves, the people of this State, did two notable things. They sent an exhibition of what could be found in their State, as a sample, and then followed this up by newspaper and pamphlet advertising on a very liberal scale.

Just how much return these expenditures will bring, remains to be seen. That there has not been more visitors at Charleston to see and appreciate the exhibits at the Exposition, especially those from this State, means a proportionate loss.

But the expenditure was not wasted, that is certain, for all reports sent abroad, regarding the Charleston Exposition, make special mention of North Carolina's exhibits.

In proportion, it is a question, if this State will not gain more, from an advertising point of view, from the Charleston Exposition than South Carolina gains, and all because North Carolina went into the matter with a spirit to do the "hole thing properly, and in addition to put their enthusiasm and pull into the affair.

The result is most gratifying. It not surprising, and shows what can be done when the main people enter into a project to advance their interests.

MANY CASES AND MANY COURTS.

The amount of litigation taking place in North Carolina would surprise those not knowing any thing on the subject, if they could attend the courts, and see the dockets, with the hundreds attending as witnesses.

Last week in this city, there was a docket of criminal cases, numbering more than one hundred and thirty. And this is but one court, there being a succession of courts here, State and Federal, throughout the year, giving about an average of one every two months.

The Greensboro Record, notes regarding the courts in its city, that with the large dockets and limited court room, that State and Federal courts crowd each other to such an extent, that one court could not clear its docket in the allotted term set, and could not be given any extra time, as the court following needed the court room.

And throughout the State, the same press of legal matters prevails, with the State papers continually filled with court affairs.

No doubt all this means business for lawyers, but the expenses for the maintaining of these courts must be met by the tax payers.

Just what the remedy is remains to be found out, but the burden of these many courts is becoming rather excessive, with no signs of any let up in the amount of litigation, civil or criminal.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, from F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Russian Official Assassinated. St. Petersburg, April 15.—The minister of the interior, M. Sipiagin, was shot and fatally wounded this afternoon in the lobby of the ministerial offices by a man who held a pistol close to the minister's person. The wounded man died.

Neglect Means Danger. Don't neglect biliousness and constipation. Your health will suffer permanently if you do. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cure such cases. M. B. Smith, Butternut, Mich., says "DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the most satisfactory pills I ever took. Never gripes or causes nausea." F. S. Duff.

Lockout is Criminal. Columbia, S. C., April 15.—State Solicitor William Thurmond said tonight that he was about to bring action against the owners of cotton mills in the Horse Creek valley where all operatives have been locked out, on both the criminal and civil side of the court.

Saved Many a Time. Don't neglect coughs and colds even if it is spring. Such cases often result seriously at this season just because people are careless. A dose of One Minute Cough Cure will remove all danger. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Sure cure for coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, and other throat and lung troubles. "I have used One Minute Cough Cure several years," says Postmaster C. O. Dawson, Barr, Ill. "It is the very best cough medicine on the market. It has saved me many a severe spell of sickness and I warmly recommend it." The children's favorite. F. S. Duff.

Premature Explosion. Hagerstown, Md., April 15.—The premature explosion of a blast in a quarry this morning resulted in the death of Luther N. Davis and fatal injuries to C. H. Ruback.

YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE TAKING. When you take Grove's Tonic, because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply iron and quinine in a tasteful form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.

Palmer Leaves For Cuba. New York, April 15.—Thomas B. Palmer, president elect of Cuba, took leave today of his friends at Central Park, N. Y., among whom he has lived during eighteen years of exile from his country.

The Best Blood Purifier. The blood is constantly being purified by the lungs, liver and kidneys. Keep these organs in a healthy condition, and the blood will be purified. For this purpose there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Blood and Liver Pills. One dose of them will do you more good than a dollar bottle of the best blood purifier. Price 25c. Sent by mail from F. S. Duff & Co., New Bern, N. C.

A Nearly Fatal Runaway. Samuel's horse was on the way to J. M. Dwyer, Franklin, N. C., which had been driven and all on wheels for four years. The horse's harness was so tight that it was nearly impossible to get it off. The horse was driven to the stable and the harness was removed. The horse was then driven to the stable and the harness was removed.

Insurance For Roosevelt. New York, April 14.—President Roosevelt has taken out a life insurance policy for $50,000, besides continuing other policies which he took out before he was elected Governor of New York.

Meat Famine Threatens London. London, April 15.—The meat famine has become a matter of local interest in London. A careful canvass of London shows that the retailers are the only ones by the advance in the wholesale price, which amounts to a penny per pound on all grades of meat.

A Doctor's Bad Flight. "Two years ago, as a result of a severe cold, I lost my voice," writes Dr. M. L. Scarborough, of Raleigh, N. C., "and began an obstinate cough. Every remedy known to me as a practicing physician for 20 years, failed, and I daily grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. Eber's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, I found quick relief, and for the last two days have felt better than for two years." Positively guaranteed for Throat and Lung troubles by C. D. Bradburn, 50 and 51 So. Third St., N. C.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Outcast a Doctor. It is said that a Harvard man who was visiting Paris in some innocent way attended a club member, who happened to be a Frenchman, to a restaurant, expecting, of course, to receive a challenge for a duel. Instead of the expected the Harvard man turned and looked for an instant at his adversary, then quick as a flash pulled back his strong right hand and sent the fellow sailing across the floor, breaking the bones of his nose in two places.

After a few weeks, when the Frenchman had sufficiently recovered from the incident to discover what had happened, he issued a formal challenge to his American opponent to fight a duel, and being the recipient of the challenge the American was permitted to accept the challenge. He promptly chose a second man, being an old friend, and drove with an adversary which resulted in the Frenchman's getting another wound on the nose, cutting him entirely off the nose for denting.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat. This preparation contains all of the digestive and digest all kinds of food. It gives instant relief and never fails to cure. It allows you to eat all the food you wish. The most sensitive stomachs can take it. By its use many thousands of dyspeptics have been cured after everything else failed. It prevents fermentation of gas on the stomach, relieving all distress after eating. Disting unnecessary. Pleasant to take. It can't help but do you good. Prepared by R. C. Duff & Co., Chicago. The St. Louis contains five times the dose.

Raleigh League Team. Special to Journal. RALEIGH, April 15.—Manager Rivers of the Raleigh League team gives the following as his list of players.

Chas. E. Kain, third base and captain; John Leonard, Artie Walker, James Dawson, John Segars, pitchers; Fred Dosscher, first base; Joe Handall, second base; James Hooks, third base; E. Keen, short stop; M. Bradley, right field and catcher; W. B. Surles, and Rapp, catchers; Ed Grant, center field; Joe Grant, left field; V. K. Huddleston, first base and field.

Supreme Court Opinions. Special to Journal. RALEIGH, April 15.—The Supreme Court filed the following opinions today:

Shell vs. West, from Harnett, error. Springs vs. Railroad, from Mecklenburg, affirmed.

State vs. Holleman, from Wake, affirmed. State vs. Battle, from Wake, remanded for proper judgment according to law.

Crews vs. Williams, from Sampson, affirmed. Cooper vs. Rouse, from Duplin, new trial.

Herring vs. Armwood, from Duplin, new trial. Davis vs. Lumber Co. from New Hanover, new trial.

Essell vs. Lumber Co., from Duplin, no error. Cook vs. Bank from Dare, error.

Graham vs. Sprunt, from New Hanover, per curiam affirmed.

Widels a Sharp Ax. Millions marvel at the multitude of maladies cut off by Dr. King's New Life Pills—the most distressing too. Stomach Liver and Bowel troubles—Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, Biliousness, Fever, Malaria, all fall before these wonder-workers. See at O. D. Bradburn's drug store.

How New York Sleeps. New York is a city of infinite variety. There are those who have beds without doors and those who sleep without beds. Three thousand of her winter residents slumber in the cradles of the canal barges that come each year from the great lakes and Lake Champlain to spend the winter months moored in New York harbor.

The Great Dismal Swamp. Of Virginia is a breeding ground of Malaria germs. So low, wet or marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills, fever, aches in the bones and muscles, and may induce dangerous malarial fever. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for Malaria and stomach and liver troubles," writes John Chastleton, of Byrville, Va., "but never found anything as good as Electric Bitters." Try them. Only 50c. C. D. Bradburn guarantees satisfaction.

Outcast a Doctor. It is said that a Harvard man who was visiting Paris in some innocent way attended a club member, who happened to be a Frenchman, to a restaurant, expecting, of course, to receive a challenge for a duel. Instead of the expected the Harvard man turned and looked for an instant at his adversary, then quick as a flash pulled back his strong right hand and sent the fellow sailing across the floor, breaking the bones of his nose in two places.

After a few weeks, when the Frenchman had sufficiently recovered from the incident to discover what had happened, he issued a formal challenge to his American opponent to fight a duel, and being the recipient of the challenge the American was permitted to accept the challenge. He promptly chose a second man, being an old friend, and drove with an adversary which resulted in the Frenchman's getting another wound on the nose, cutting him entirely off the nose for denting.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

RALEIGH.

No Negro Delegates To Republican State Convention. Conference Negroes to Consider Their Political, Social and Industrial Status. Deaths From Small Pox. Late Arrivals. Railroad Appointments.

RALEIGH, April 15.—At noon today a State conference or mass meeting of negroes began here, in Metropolitan hall. The call for it was made about a month ago, and the purpose was to consider the political, social and industrial status of the race. It was said this morning by a white Republican that the conference would give Senator Fritchard, the "head of the Republican party" in North Carolina, a "bad shake up."

The exodus of negroes from this State is not large. There was talk last winter of its being a really large movement this spring. Negroes are going North all the while but the movement does not even approach the dimensions of an exodus.

It is said that so far 8 deaths are known to have occurred in Wilson county from small pox during the present outbreak of it. There have been hundreds of cases.

Among the arrivals here are H. C. Bridges, Tarboro; J. S. Armstrong, Wilmington, (who came to see Gov. Aycock); George W. Connor, Wilson; H. E. Fries, Winston-Salem; R. H. Patterson, Wilson; Cyrus B. Watson and Clement Mann, Winston-Salem; Harry W. Stubbs, Williamston; J. W. Biddle, S. D. Farey, N. P. Willis, New Bern; D. Y. Cooper, Henderson; W. F. Carter, Mt. Airy; M. S. Willard, Wilmington.

The latest arrivals at the penitentiary are six negro convicts. State Superintendent Joyner left for Roxboro today and spoke there this evening in support of local taxation for public schools.

It is asserted that the white republicans have again advised that there be no negro delegates to their State convention at Greensboro. They practically eliminated the negro from this convention in 1900. They do not want the people of central North Carolina to see the negro portion of the party.

The annual report of the State Labor commissioner has not yet appeared. There is some annoyance at the delay.

It is not yet known whether this State will have an exhibit at the St. Louis exposition. In June the exhibits sent to Charleston will be replaced in the museum.

J. W. White, of Raleigh, traveling freight agent of the Seaboard Air-Line in this State, is appointed chief industrial agent for that system; effective May 1. V. C. Tompkins, who has been solicitor for the system at Atlanta, succeeds White as traveling freight agent.

A Testimonial From Old England. "I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. "It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being in most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." Sold by F. S. Duff & Co.

Serious Outlook In China. Victoria, B. C., April 15.—The priest of the Orient seems to regard the situation in South China, where the rebellion is assuming large proportions, as very serious.

Wants To Help Others. "I had stomach troubles all my life," says Edw. Mehler, proprietor of the Union Bottling Works, Erie, Pa., "and tried all kinds of remedies, went to several doctors and spent considerable money trying to get a moment's peace. Finally I read of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and I have been taking it to my great satisfaction. I never found its equal for stomach trouble and gladly recommend it to those who may be suffering." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles. You don't have to diet. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. F. S. Duff.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

Chicago Patrioticism. An ingenious method of obtaining a reputation for patriotism cheaply has been invented by certain Berlin publishers. On their shop fronts they hang legends to this effect: "So long as the war in South Africa lasts I forbid my Englishman to enter my premises." The use of this placard is, it is said, entirely confined to houses of a class that never entertained an Englishman in the course of their existence.

HINTS FOR FARMERS

The Hatched Peach and Plum. The setting of peaches and plums on the trees was unusually certain last season, particularly with certain varieties. Amelon, Alexander and a number of other peaches were laid bare years ago by those who understood of this account, and more will be laid bare hereafter. Among the latter will doubtless be the Hale and Burbank plums and possibly Tragedy and three or four more.

It would be advisable to work with these varieties by spraying, etc., if there were not other kinds as good and better which are free from this liability. The careful planter will not overlook the danger that can be avoided by due consideration in future seasons.

Just now, however, the fruit which rotted and subsequently dried up on the trees requires attention. The seeds of the rot-spores, as they are termed, are in (or on) all these mummified specimens, and they should be gathered and burned, and the sooner this is done the better. And any that may be lying on the ground around the trees should be gathered up also.

It will be readily understood that the term "mummied" has been adapted from the remains of the human bodies and the bodies of certain so-called sacred animals which were subjected to the embalming process of the ancient Egyptians and some other nations and are found, dried up mostly, in tombs—National Stockman and Farmer.

Non-sensical and Common Sense. The British Bee Journal takes the pains and space to say: "The purchaser of honey really imagines that swarming is impossible if frames honey is bought. The fact is that clever beekeepers now make perfect imitation combs out of paraffin wax and put these into the hives for the bees to fill and seal. To test it pour a drop or two of sulphuric acid upon the comb which is on trial. Good beeswax will char and blacken under the acid, but upon paraffin no effect will be perceptible."

Commenting on this, Gleanings says sarcastically: "The only strange thing about the above is that the British Bee Journal lets it go as if it were an undoubted fact, making no reply. It did not take pains to say that such combs cannot be made by man and that they would melt down by the heat of the hives even if man could make them. A failure to do this is as bad as to publish the canard. The general reader would take it as a piece of common news."

Soil For Strawberries. Whether ground for strawberries should be subsoiled or not depends upon the character of the soil and the subsoil. A poor subsoil needs no deep stirring, and there are other soils that will be little benefited by subsoiling, because they run together as a result of heavy rains and are then in a worse condition than before, because wormholes and rootholes are obliterated and nothing substituted for them to aerate or drain the soil. Any ground that is poor, subsoil, needs no deep stirring, and there are other soils that will be little benefited by subsoiling, because they run together as a result of heavy rains and are then in a worse condition than before, because wormholes and rootholes are obliterated and nothing substituted for them to aerate or drain the soil. Any ground that is poor, subsoil, needs no deep stirring, and there are other soils that will be little benefited by subsoiling, because they run together as a result of heavy rains and are then in a worse condition than before, because wormholes and rootholes are obliterated and nothing substituted for them to aerate or drain the soil. Any ground that is poor, subsoil, needs no deep stirring, and there are other soils that will be little benefited by subsoiling, because they run together as a result of heavy rains and are then in a worse condition than before, because wormholes and rootholes are obliterated and nothing substituted for them to aerate or drain the soil. Any ground that is poor, subsoil, needs no deep stirring, and there are other soils that will be little benefited by subsoiling, because they run together as a result of heavy rains and are then in a worse condition than before, because wormholes and rootholes are obliterated and nothing substituted for them to aerate or drain the soil. Any ground that is poor, subsoil, needs no deep stirring, and there are other soils that will be little benefited by subsoiling, because they run together as a result of heavy rains and are then in a worse condition than before, because wormholes and rootholes are obliterated and nothing substituted for them to aerate or drain the soil. Any ground that is poor, subsoil, needs no deep stirring,