EDUCATIONAL ADVANCEMENT.

Incorporation of New Bern Collegiate Industrial Institute, For Colored.

The advancement of the educational interests of the colored race in this section has just taken a great advance, in the incorporation of the New Bern Collegiate Industrial Institute.

A board of trustees, J. F. Ham, L. V. Phillips, Decatur Jones, Henry White, John H. Dudley, Smith Scott and A. Webber, all colored, first purchased the property bounded by Bern, West, Pine and Cypress streets, from Isaac H. Smith for $12,400. This property was formerly the old race track portion of the Fair grounds.

Rev. A. L. E. Weeks, is chairman of this board of trustees, and it is expected that work on the building will begin in the next 30 days, although the size of the building has not been definitely decided upon.

In this Institute it is proposed to teach the usual school grades, and to girls in addition, sewing, cooking, laundry work and darning. And to boys, carpentry, blacksmithing, painting and shoe making.

The support for this Institute will come very largely from outside donations, and contributions will be acceptable from anyone so disposed to give.

Rev. Weeks has already a school with 50 pupils, which is kept up by private subscriptions. This school was first held in a house, and is now in a church building.

The Advisory board has not yet been elected from among the trustees.

The establishment of this school will prove of great educational benefit to the young of the colored race who avail themselves of its opportunities, when it is opened.

D. L. Ward for Solicitor.

Bayboro Sentinel—April 24th Editor of the Sentinel—I noticed in your last paper what you said about L. I. Moore for Solicitor. I want to say something for another man; without saying anything against Mr. Moore. Now I am going to admit that Mr. Moore makes a good solicitor and so far as I can see or know, he is a good man, but that doesn't mean to say that there are no others who are just as able, just as good, and who if they had the chance would make just as good a solicitor, and who have just as good claims for the place. I know of a lawyer who comes to this county that would make a better solicitor than D. L. Ward, Esq., of New Bern. He is a young man; active and vigorous in mind and body and an able lawyer, a good democrat and has worked hard for his party, and an honest man would prosecute the law without favor or partiality. Now why not nominate him, and free if he can't and does not make as good a solicitor as Mr. any other man? We heard a good many people while at court last week speaking in favor of Mr. Ward. He has got a good many strong personal friends in this county who would delight to see him solicitor. He is from Craven county our mother county. So let Pamlico stand by her mother and nominate Mr. D. L. Ward, her distinguished son for solicitor, this would be the right thing to do.

WEEKLY FASHION HINTS.

Gowns of dark blue Zibellac. The New Hip Yoke.

For early spring wear the tailor-made ideas still prevail, the gowns on the whole showing a far greater simplicity than has been the case for the last few seasons. Our illustration shows a gown of dark blue zibellac, the Eton showing a very novel effect in the way of stitching. The jacket is cut without a collar and the revers may be either of striped silk or trimmed with straps. The skirt is cut with a yoke below which are wide rucks stitched down with white Corticelli stitching silk.

Quite a new material is the double-faced linen which will undoubtedly arrive at the height of popularity during the summer and will be employed to evolve some very fetching gowns. Very little trimming is required on them as the reverse side of the linen will answer admirably for this purpose. A wide latitude is given the skirts, although the fundamental principle—flaring at the hem—is still adhered to. This effect is gained in different ways, either with curved seams or with a flounce, and is sometimes still further increased with clusters of tucks, or with small inset panels at the hem of contrasting material and color. It stands to reason that heavy goods like homespun, tweed and mixed fabrics in general will make up much more satisfactorily in a plain, gored skirt.

Knitting Mill Trouble.

For several days there has been some trouble or misunderstanding between the management of the knitting mills here and the operatives, the operatives in the meantime having suspended work.

Yesterday at 4 o'clock, about 40 of the hands with their friends and sympathizers met at the court house, the whole numbering about 250 people, and proceeded to pass resolutions.

Rev. M. S. Spear called the meeting to order, and after prayer, the resolutions, which were already drawn, were read and adopted, only the hands voting.

It is hoped this matter can be arranged in some way satisfactory to all concerned.

The following are the resolutions, adopted. The committee appointed were Rev. T. M. N. George, Mr. J. J. Tolson, Jr., and J. L. McDaniel.

Whereas, a difference has arisen between the proprietor's and employees of the Southern Hosiery Mills Co., regarding the enforcement of a recent rule which adds to the labor of the operatives and lessens their pay, and

Whereas, about 75 white operatives, mainly girls dependent upon their daily labor for support have thus been led to give up their work, and

Whereas, an early adjustment is desirable both for employees and employers. Therefore be it,

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to confer with the company with full power, and authorized to adjust all matters of difference now existing between the Company and employers.

The Outlook.

There are several notable pictorial features of peculiarly timely interest and also others of an artistic flavor in the Magazine Number of the Outlook for May. In the first class may be named that describing District Attorney Jerome's official home on the east side of New York, and that on the King of Spain, who this month becomes the King of Spain. Art and Music, along with many other articles of interest will be special features. Mr. Ray Stannard Baker has a very readable article on the "Comet of the Great Lakes." Mr. John Burroughs's little out-of-door essay and poem entitled "A spray of Arbutus." Mr. J. H. McFarland is the author of "A Story of Some Nipples," which is strikingly illustrated by some beautiful photographs.

Bogue Sound Notes.

April 24.—The farmers are very much behind on account of late spring, many of them, have only half planted their corn, a few only have planted melons. Mr. K. N. Bell and his tenants, are about in the lead so far as planting is concerned, a few have corn up a little. Dr. J. W. Sanders has a few acres in corn that was three blades high last Saturday the 19th inst., but the cold nights during the week past, made it look like gold, mixed with snow drops. Col. A. H. Dennis is still single handed, so far as a partner is concerned, but think all will turn up right pretty soon. S. B. Holland & Sons, have lately adopted some new tenants from Onslow county. Bro. Steve and boys are workers [and those around them must work too. Mr. P. M. Russell & Sons are good farmers, and have their ground in apple order, as the saying is. Capt. Jim Pigott has rented out his nice farm to Mr. Lon Weeks, and Capt. Jim has departed for a season, trying to keep up with Col. Dennis, we guess he is looking a partner too, may they both succeed soon. Mr. W. W. Weeks has a fine prospect for a farm now, only late a little. Mr. Ell W. Sanders is farming and mill engineering both, besides running a large share in the fish and clam business. B. F. Sanders and brother Jack are farming and merchandising, besides dealing in fish and clams, they have a large store of goods. Dr. J. W. Sanders don't farm very much, has about all he can do to attend to his practice in medicine.

Mr. Shepard Bell is one of our old citizens, he is over 75 years old and can ride horseback as upright and straight, and jump up, knock his feet together twice, run about almost as lively as when a boy.

Mr. Bell & Son, George, have good farms.

Messrs. Sam'l & Shepard Bell, Jr., are thrifty farmers, while Mr. C. C. Parker & Sons are not far behind.

The Smiths, father and brothers, six in number, are farmers, merchants and fishermen, they also deal in fish and clams.

We had the pleasure of visiting that section last week and attending an entertainment at Welooome school house, near Dr. Sanders' residence; the entertainment was of the minstrel kind, gotten up by some young men on Bogue sound, called the Russell troupe, or Bogue Sound Musical Club. The performance took place last Friday night the 18th inst, in presence of over 300 people, in the large and spacious school house belonging to Dr. Sanders. We have been to, and seen many shows, minstrel troupes, concerts, etc., but the one last Friday night was far the best local one we have ever seen in the country. The music and acting was good, the dialogues, comedies, comic songs and speeches were excellent and kept the house in roars of laughter all the time. The instruments of music were violins, guitars, banjos, tamborines, drums, horns, triangles, etc. The concert was for the church benefit and though the admission fee was small, about $30.00 was realized for the purpose. The troupe will continue to organize better, and will show again in May or June at the same place, after which they will travel a little. The B. S. M. C. is the name they have taken and expect to visit New Bern, Beaufort and other towns during the fall and winter months providing permitting.

Mr. G. W. Ward of Swansboro, now teaching school at Salter Path, Bogue Sound, was visiting here last week. Mr. Ward says the railroad he thinks is about buried, so far as connection with the W. & N. road is concerned, but Prettymann & Co. will build a tram to connect with White Oak river, above Swansboro, and 8 miles in the country to his timber lands.
