Suggested Local Talent For Such a Game to be Played Here This Week.

It will be dull this week, no baseball in town, so a game is proposed between the "over-fed" and the "underfed."

The Fat Men will induce Tommy Wellon Waters' to catch. He would then be close enough to the grand stand, to hear all the complimentary things that would be said of him.

If the "cucumber market" was good no doubt "Bass" Hackburn would be willing to do the twirling as well as to "do" the umpire in case decisions were not to his liking.

Col, H. R. Bryan, Jr., could hold down the first cushion to rival the great Ashenback, and he might also be made Captain of the team and his dignity and diplomacy would inspire enthusiasm and diligent effort for his side.

Johnny Watson, Jr., would be an adorable short stop and if "the band played" he would do the "cake walk" and other "stunts" "between the acts."

Little Jimmy Dawson would excel Devlin at 2nd base.

Seymour Hancock could "hold the bag" at third.

Mr. Mortie Marks on account of his speed as a runner would be the very man to chase long flies and foul balls in left field.

This fills nearly all the places but leaves the following aggregation.

Luther Taylor, Wm Dunn, L. J. Taylor, J. B. Watson, W C. Willett, J R Parker, M L Hollowell, J R Parker, Jr., J A Jones and others of talent on the benches from which the other places could be filled and also be on hand to take the places of any overworked or disabled players

For the lean and lanky, on account of the reputation gained by skillful pitching in the recent game between the Hooligans and Katzenjamers of course Col Thos. W. Dewey will be asked to pitch. Dr. Primrose should be close at hand to do any short-stop work that would come his way.

For 1st base, Hon. E. M. Green was nominated but as the dear public are more interested in ball both high and low than in 16 to 1, it is thought best to put him in center field where his talents can be employed in the consideration of "high balls."

Percy Cox was also nominated for first base but upon examination he was found to be too fat to train with the lean kind; and in addition the grand stand says it cannot spare him so he will be there "dressed in his best suit of clothes' and ready to explain any fine points on the game in a style and manner that would put Jerome K. Jerome or Billy Baxter out of the game.

Down at 2nd base Cousin Jonesey Wahab will preside over the cushion and be in the game from beginning to end.

The risk at the 3rd. pillow will be covered by N. C. Hughtes who will try to stop anything that comes his way.

This leaves a few places unfilled but there is no end of talent among the underfed.

Among them can be named, C. N. Ennett, H. C. Lumsden, W. W. Clark, O. H. Guion, J. E. Latham, J. B. Holland, D. R. Davis and others.

It is suggested the game should have two umpires and T. Burk and E. W. Rosenthal it is thought would be acceptable to both sides.

If the game comes off shortly it is expected that Charley Reizenstein and old man Spalding and other base ball cranks will be down from New York.

It should be a great game, and no advance in prices should be made to the public. The players however should pay double fee.

DIED

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R M Everly, Moundsville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." F. S. Duffy.

Greensboro Record.

Mr. Chas. L. Stevens, of the New Bern Journal, in an unguarded moment, consented to umpire a game of ball in that town Monday and now his friends are engaged in certifying to his fair rulings. A newspaper man who will be caught in such a scrape is entitled to the sympathy of the entire country. He should be sternly reprimanded by the next press convention, not for his rulings, but for being caught trying to do such a thing as umpire a ball game.

IN MEMORY OF

Jacob Kafer, Born in Germany, December 23, 1841, Died in Germany, May 30, 1902, in the 61st year of his age.

Mr. Kafer came to this country, and in 1867 he settled in Edenton, N. C., where he successfully carried on his baking business and accumulated a very considerable amount of money, through the failure of a bank a considerable part of it was lost. He moved to New Bern, N. C., in 1881 and began his baking business which he carried on very successfully.

About two years ago his health failed and for some time was confined. Thinking that a trip to his old home in Germany might be of benefit to him he left New Bern and went to Germany, he however found no relief and returned to New Bern. A few months ago he again went to Germany where he died.

Mr. Kafer was one of the most industrious and prudent of men. He scarcely ever left his place of business and was rarely seen in the streets. He gained the respect of our entire community. He leaves a wife and five children who have, to a large extent the sympathy of our people. O.

'One Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says D. Scott Currin of Loganton, Pa. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. F. S. MONEY.

Friends a-smilin' ev'rywhere,
Weather lookin' mighty fair;
Skies a soft an' tender blue,
Birds a-singin' songs to you.
"Hello, there!" an' "Mornin', Bill!"
How their eyes with gladness fill;
How they grab your hand an' shake;
How they bid you come an' take
Somethin' wet an' hot with them,
Jes' to loosen up the phlegm
In your throat, fer 'tis so,
Sich like favors count, you know,
When a man has money.

Don't the world look bright an' fine
In her gown of sun an' shine?
Hain't she smilin' sweet an' pert,
Like a reg'ler little flirt?
Don't the glad hands to you reach?
Don't they holler, "You're a peach!"
Don't buck come jes' on the whir
When you hain't a-needin' her?
Don't things come, oh, don't they, say,
Come a-runnin' down your way?
Don't it seem an easy game,
Pilin' up some more the same,
When a man has money?

A Dainty Theatre Bodice of Liberty Silk Over Taffeta.

With the signs of approaching warm weather our heavy and much trimmed satin and peau de soie waists are found too uncomfortable and we long for lighter garments to wear to the theatre. A very dainty waist is of pale blue liberty silk over taffeta of the same shade and is trimmed with ribbon-run beading. It has something of a bolero effect, as the lower part consists of plaited chiffon which blouses slightly over the belt. An attractive chiffon jabot completes the garniture. The stitching is all done with Corticelli silk. When finished this makes a very attractive waist.

A Worthy Project.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Allow me space in your ably edited paper a word concerning the Industrial Educational school work now being made a live by Rev. A. L. C. Weeks backed by the good people of the city and elsewhere.

The work is already assured of success The canvass of the city for funds though meager, yet the good white people have so liberally responded until a commencement to build will begin this month.

The building must be completed by September, every donor will then be appreciated and remembered.

More good will come to the colored race and the business interest of New Bern from this single effort of Rev. A. L. C. Weeks, than from the combine efforts of all the race's self constituted friends since the last Civil War between the States.

Strange as it is, yet it is true, though they have been waited upon, yet the truth to say not one cent has been subscribed or given Rev. Weeks to help the good work along by the local white Republicans,

This school will soon reach a proportion spending fifty thousand dollars each year in New Bern.

Who will get this money? The business interest

Now who help in the childhood days of the school will be remembered when the school gets grown.

This school is to model after Booker T. Washington's great normal and industrial school at Tuskegee, Alabama. His school is said to be the greatest industrial school on earth, and the promoters of the work here propose to make this industrial work the greatest in the world. Amen

Signed,
ISAAC H. SMITH.

TWO INKY WAYS.

There was a man who advertised
But once—a single time.
In spot obscured placed he his ad.
And paid for it a dime.

And just because it didn't bring
Him customers by score,
"All advertising is a fake,"
He said, or rather, swore.

He seemed to think one hammer tap
Would drive a nail clear in;
That from a bit of tiny thread
A weaver tents could spin.

If he this reasoning bright applied
To eating, doubtless he
Would claim one little bite would feed
Ten men a century.

Some day, though, he will learn that to
Make advertising pay,
He'll have to add ads, to his ad.,
And advertise each day.
