WHO SHALL INSTRUCT DEMOCRACY?

Success, as measured by the world, is more highly regarded from the point of its being a winner, than from the fact that merit and principle were mostly concerned in bringing the success.

The recent public utterances of Grover Cleveland have provoked an attack from William J. Bryan, which cannot but place the latter in a ridiculously contemptible light, with every thinking person, and make those who at any time regarded Mr. Bryan as being above the ordinary, feel sorry for having had such an opinion of him.

The Bryan attack cannot but call attention to the wide divergence of political success, which has come to each man.

The greatest of political success and public honors to one, who is prepared to give his individual efforts that his party may again be brought into power.

The other man, twice a conspicuous political failure, comes from his two defeats, soured, ill-tempered, with a dog-in-the-manger-spirit, demanding a public recognition, as if the public was ungrateful of his political failures and personal political shortcomings.

Fortunately, true Democrats are not blinded by Mr. Bryan's clamor against every Democrat who may be a possible Democratic Presidential nominee.

Nor are the thinking and intelligent deceived into any idea that because Grover Cleveland gives public utterance to his political sentiments, that such sentiments together with Mr. Cleveland are the only Democratic issues extant and that Mr. Cleveland is the only possible man who could be named to lead the National Democratic party to success.

Taking Mr. Cleveland's recent public speech, his views have a soundness and practical common sense, that will prove acceptable to those Democrats who are for party above the individual. Mr. Cleveland states that he is no seeker after nomination, therefore the unreasoning in Mr. Bryan's denunciatory language regarding Mr. Cleveland.

Mr. Cleveland shows the man from whom advice can come, which can be thought over and valued.

Mr. Bryan's attack is intemperate and arouses ill will among those, where it would be wisest to seek to provoke party harmony.

The Democratic party wants suggestions looking to its strengthening and getting into party harmony, which are the means through which it can expect and hope to return to political supremacy, and not the personal antagonisms such as Mr. Bryan is constantly arousing.

NOTHING COMES BY WAITING.

The saying that "everything comes to him who waits," does not mean that the sitting-down fellow is the one who gets all that he wants.

Waiting, in the above saying does not mean idleness or dreaming, or wishing for something to take place.

It means earnestly going after and persistence in following up the something of value to the person seeking it.

The person who waits, whenever like for the opportunity to come along and fall at his or her feet, never sees the realization of such hopes.

The present age is peculiarly a striving one, in the language of the times it is a "straining age," and only the persistent seeker can expect to gain anything, and then only by strong effort and work.

It is only necessary to look about to see what produces success and what good failures.

The person who reaches out after business, by advertising and personal effort, gets the trade and the profits therefrom.

The town of New Bern, which is the seat of the government, is the most beautiful town in the South.

and his money, and thereby its own commercial advancement and building up.

Note the waiting merchant who does not advertise and seek out for trade through personal going forth after it!

Note the town or city which makes no effort to gain the attention of the outside business world and the world of progress!

Distinct failure will be found in both, and very few notice or care that the first drops out of commercial circles, and the second is unknown in the investment world.

There is failure in waiting, but in going forth to seize, to attain the object, there is every chance of success.

PARTY DISCIPLINE VS. INDIVIDUAL INDEPENDENCE.

In the strict sense, it is impossible that individual political independence should exist in any political party.

There is a despotism in every political party which does not permit the individual to exercise a complete freedom of thought or action.

Great political parties may get out of a strict conformity with their previous existing principles, for temporary expediency purposes, but no member of the party can set himself up as differing with some party announcement, without being swept aside.

The fatality of getting beyond one's political party's current, is known so well, that it is a matter of history.

Really great men, whose counsel was of value to their parties, and whose services were desirable to have had in official positions by the country, have found themselves set aside and retired to private life, all because they could not think and act in strict conformity to their party's dictates.

The fact that these men may have thought rightly, and that their party may have later on returned to their way of thinking, did not restore the politician to the position formerly held, nor was his judgment commended.

This is on the fundamental questions, in which a political party, per se, can commit no error.

While there may appear a harshness in this suppression of any individual political independence, it is easily seen what the results might be if party discipline was not rigidly maintained.

There is ever a striving by the politician of force and individuality of character, to overcome this absoluteness of party rule over its members, but nothing has been gained or accomplished through these attempts by the individual, except where a party majority has been secured to develop the independent thought of one, and make it the property of the majority.

Because of this sacrifice of the occasional person, it would seem a high price to pay for democracy, but the system is the only practical one, and keeps the representation of party in the many, and does away with the opportunity of the creation of a political oligarchy.

The umbrella and parasol were used by the eastern nations many centuries before the Christian era. The oldest Chinese shows pictures of ladies and mandarins shaded by parasols of patterns similar to those now in use.

A Real Friend.

"I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Sturdevant of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. F. S. Duffy.

State Mining. Rats is got out of the ground by means of blasting, holes being bored into it with steam drills. With dynamite and blasting chains the rough shafts are lifted to the edge of the quarry, and then they are rolled upon trucks to the stability of the "quarry."

YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE TAKING When you take Grover's Tasteless Chilli Tonic, because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No other such drug. Price 25c.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure Digests what you eat.

This preparation contains all of the digestants and digests all kinds of food. It gives instant relief and never fails to cure. It allows you to eat all the food you want. The most sensitive stomachs can take it. By its use many thousands of dyspeptics have been cured after everything else failed. It prevents formation of gas on the stomach, relieving all distress after eating. Dieting unnecessary. Pleasant to take. It can't help but do you good.

Prepared only by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The St. Louis bottle contains 24 times the 50c. size.

A Good Cough Medicine.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Ritten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family for both ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following la grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by F. S. Duffy & Co.

Food Not Cold.

A writer in The Lancet says: "Since I began to study diet I have been astonished at the number of cases of which I have heard, even of medical men, who by eating less and not so often have found that their susceptibility to colds has quite gone. Such facts as I have met with point to the conclusion that it is the system overcharged with the products of food which was not required and can act only as a poison to every organ in the body which is most susceptible to colds."

You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water as to find an active energetic man with a torpid liver and you may know that his food; or feels dull and languid after eating often has headache and sometimes dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal functions, renew his vitality, improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price 25 cents. Samples free at F. S. Duffy & Co's drug store.

Damascus Olive Groves.

There is an ancient custom under which the olive groves around Damascus are guarded by official watchmen to prevent the trees being stripped by thieves. But on a certain date the governor or some magistrate issues a proclamation warning all owners of olive trees that they must pick their fruit, for after a certain date it becomes public property. If a farmer has his crop only half gathered when that date arrives, the public will gather it for him.

Saved From an Awful Fate.

"Everybody said I had consumption," writes Mrs. A. M. Shields, of Chambersburg, Pa. "I was so low after six months of severe sickness, caused by Hay Fever and Asthma, that few thought I could get well, but I learned of the marvelous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, used it, and was completely cured." For desperate Throat and Lung Diseases it is the safest cure in the world, and is infallible for Coughs, Colds and Bronchial Affections. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. D. Bradham's.

The Little Garden.

There is much comfort to be found in a garden. I have watched a poor woman at a little box of flowers at a window, growing radiant with happiness as each bud blossomed and smiled upon her gentle hand. Water your little garden and tend it well. A little love for sunlight, a little sympathy for rain, and the garden of the heart may bloom with beautiful deeds and fragrant thoughts. Though the beauty of the rose is brief, yet the perfume may be preserved, like the memory of a kiss, forever.—Schoolmaster.

Filthy Temples in India.

Sacred cows often defile Indian temples, but worse yet is a body that is polluted by constipation. Don't permit it. Cleanse your system with Dr. King's New Life Pills and avoid untold misery. They give lively livers, active bowels, good digestion, fine appetite. Only 25c at C. D. Bradham's drug store.

Truth.

The cornerstone of character, that on which the whole edifice is to rest, must be truth. Be truthful in word and deed and act, faithful to your conception of right, and you can no more help building a noble character than the earth can help moving in its orbit. A boy who has the courage to tell the truth under all circumstances, even when it may appear to be to his own disadvantage, will never do a mean, unmanly or dishonest thing. He will not stoop to do anything questionable, no matter what material gain it may promise.—Success.

Ready to Yield.

"I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for piles and found it a certain cure," says R. R. Meredith, Willow Grove, Del. Operations unnecessary to cure piles. They always yield to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Cures skin diseases, all kinds of wounds. Accept no counterfeits. F. S. Duffy.

RALEIGH.

Opinion Made as to the Result of the November Vote.

Rural Public School Fund. New Electrical Power Plant Running Satisfactorily. Preliminary Hearing of F. F. Dawson, Alleged Forger and Embezzler.

RALEIGH, June 27.—There is a quite prevalent opinion that the vote in November in this State will be a light one. Such is now the outlook.

It is now settled that the annual convention of the colored firemen of this State, and the accompanying tournament, will be held here August 26.

A very good rain fell early this morning, and it and the warm weather prove exactly the thing for the crops. No more rain will be needed for 10 days. The general opinion is that the crops of cotton and tobacco have very rarely been as good as they now are.

The last of the fund paid out by the State treasury, in keeping the rural public schools has been paid out. Seventy-five counties called for such aid and the total disbursed is $82,798.99. The legislature set apart $100,000 for this purpose. The balance is covered into the treasury.

The electrical power plant at Millburn, on Neuse river, 6 miles from here, has been tested. Everything works satisfactorily.

Today F. F. Dawson, formerly of Wilson, who was lately arrested in Mississippi, on the charge of forgery and embezzlement, appeared before a creditors meeting at Wilson, for examination by them in bankruptcy proceedings. Many witnesses were also examined. The meeting of creditors and other interested parties was large. He is charged with embezzling about $15,000 from Hackney Bros of Wilson. Since his return from Mississippi Dawson has been at Washington, N. C. on bail.

The coroner's jury returns a verdict in the shooting of John Diggs, A. L. employee, that the killing was due to the criminal negligence of Ogburn Kirby.

A charter is granted to the Old Fort Lumber Company, with $30,000 authorized capital.

The corn crop is being very rapidly "laid by" in Johnston and other counties east of here.

WHITFORD.

June 27.—Crops are in generally fine condition and farmers are expecting a large harvest. We have had plenty of rain. Cotton is in blossom in some fields.

That is just what Painkiller will do; try it. Have a bottle in the house for instant use, as it will save you hours of suffering. Watch out that the dealer does not sell you an imitation, as the great reputation of Painkiller (Perry Davis), has induced many people to try to make something to sell, said to be "just as good as the genuine."

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G. W. Roberts of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood cleanses, skin eruptions, ulcers and more vast. Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Bitters remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripes. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Bitters for impure liver every spring for years," writes R. E. Brady, Monticello, N. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever used."—F. S. Duffy.
