RALEIGH.

Again Talking Over Proposed Hotel Building.

State Grants Charter to New Bern Steamboat Co. Operate Waters Carolina and Virginia.

Delegates to Greensboro. Tobacco Market.

RALEIGH, N. C., August 18.—Raleigh's "standing" hotel committee is talking again, stirred probably into this maximum of activity by the location of the Grand Lodge Masonic Temple here. What the people of Raleigh and the State at large are anxious about is some tangible and decided action that will insure this long felt want of the State capital. What has started up the committee talk again is the idea of erecting a $100,000 hotel on the southwest corner of Fayetteville and Hargett streets, directly opposite the Masonic Temple site. The ground necessary there would cost $50,000.

The Secretary of State charters the Virginia-Carolina Inland Steamship Company of New Bern. The capital is $5,000 with privilege to increase to $25,000. The shares of stock are $10.00 each.

The incorporators and their share holdings are H. T. Hancock 400 shares, Thos. W. Dewey, 100 shares and R. S. Primrose 10 shares. Operating steamboats between ports of North Carolina and Virginia is the special purpose of the Company.

L. O. Branch Camp of this city has selected W. D. Smith, M. O. Sherrill and C. H. Hutchins as delegates to the State re-union at Greensboro next week.

Representatives of both the American Tobacco Company and the Imperial Tobacco Company of England are buying tobacco in large quantities on the Raleigh market. Over 40,000 pounds of tobacco was sold on the market here yesterday and the farmers are pleased with the prices.

Major H. L. Grant, clerk of the U. S. District and Circuit Courts here left today for his old home in Connecticut to attend reunions of the Sixth Connecticut Regiment G. A. R. and of Gen Hawley's Brigade.

The establishment by Miss Lucile Marchison of Wilmington, of a $5,000 free scholarship for girls of East Carolina diocese in St. Mary's College here is a most excellent example for other well-to-do friends of this splendid Episcopal school. The scholarship is a memorial to her father.

Thought to Be McDonald.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL.
RALEIGH, Aug. 16.—A telegram was received in the Governor's office today, from the Sheriff of Wilson county to the effect that he has a man in custody, answering the description of Paul McDonald wanted in Harnett county for the crime of seduction.

The reward of $300, was offered several days ago by Governor Aycock, was the first ever offered for such an offense.

Bogue Items.

Aug. 15.—Mrs. Julia Harrison of Thurman is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Sanders of Bogue this week.
Rev. Durkes of Buraw, N. C., will begin his series of Unitarian discourses on Pettiford's Creek Sunday.
Mrs. Julia Taylor and son, Leon, are visiting relatives and friends in Onslow and Stetson.

The Misses Pittman of Swansboro are the guests of Mrs. G. N. Ennett and family of Cedar Point.
Our neighborhood has been visited quite frequently with showers and thunder squalls.

From all reports the wedding bells will soon ring out again in our midst. The widowers seem to be the only lucky ones.
Cotton picking will soon be in progress.

Watermelons are getting to be very scarce and not of a very good flavor.
Rev. Otis of Swansboro failed to fill his regular appointment at R. R. Academy Sunday. A disappointed crowd was the result.

WILLIE HUMPHREY.

Would Give Him a Lesson.

A reporter who is the father of a year old youngster met his pastor on Sunday afternoon.
"Why weren't you at church this morning?" was the first question of the spiritual adviser.
"I couldn't come," was the answer. "I had to stop at home and mind the baby. Our nurse is ill."
"That's no excuse," said the pastor. "It isn't? Well, next Sunday I'll bring him to church with me and see how you like it."

A convention of Democrats was called to be held at Warrenton Friday to nominate a candidate for Justice of the Supreme court to oppose Judge Walter Clark. ## DEATH DR. MARSHALL.

Important State Charters Granted Corporations.

Sneak Thieves Busy at Work. Grati-fied at Major Heart's Election. Still Talking Hotel. Missionary Returning Home.

RALEIGH, Aug. 18.—The Secretary of State today issued charters to two new corporations. The most important one is the Charlotte Refining Co., of Charlotte, capital $100,000. The object is the manufacture of cotton seed oil. It is incorporated by W. C. Johnson, J. Edgar Grace and J. S. Spencer. The other is the Grifton Transportation Co., of Grifton. It has for its object running a steam boat line between Grifton and New Bern. The capital is $3,100. L. A. Cobb is the principal stockholder.

Dr. A. A. Marshall, pastor of the First Baptist church, died Sunday afternoon. He came to Raleigh nearly three years ago from Forsythe, Ga. He was for quite a while pastor of the Jackson Hill Baptist church, Atlanta. He was taken ill of yellow jaundice last January, later cancer of the liver developed and he steadily grew worse. His death had been expected any time during the past month. The deceased was 45 years old and had been married three times, the last wife being Miss Jennie Chastin, of Montezuma, Ga. He leaves six children, the youngest and only one by the present wife, a month old. Dr. Marshall was greatly beloved here, being recognized as one of the ablest and most eloquent ministers of the Baptist denomination in North Carolina. The remains will be deposited in a vault here for the present and later be moved to Georgia.

Sneak thieves are putting in some work in Raleigh just now. Articles have been stolen recently from the halls of a number of residences and in two or three instances trousers have been fished through the windows at night and the pockets rifled.
The people of Raleigh are much gratified at the election of Major Leo D. Heart as grand master of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. He is cashier of Raleigh's new banking house, the Carolina Trust Company. His advancement in the order has been very rapid, having passed from chairman of the finance committee to grand foreman, and then to grand master workman over the heads of a number of officials.
There continues to be a good deal of "hotel talk" here. The latest is that the standing committee is moving for an option on the Yarrowborough House with a view to enlarging and renovating it for transformation into a thoroughly modern hotel building.
News is received here that Miss Mary Pascoe, missionary to Brazil, from Edenton Street Methodist church, this city, has sailed for home, her health having been so broken that she is no longer able to do missionary work.

MERE MEN.

Senator Hanna never drinks coffee and but seldom touches tea.
General T. M. Buffington, governor of the Cherokee Nation, is one-eighth Cherokee, weighs 275 pounds and is 6 feet 6 inches tall.

Mr. Moody, the secretary of the navy, is a connoisseur of rare books, his collection of works on law being one of the best in the country.
Senator Lodge does not neglect literature in his cultivation of politics. He sets aside a part of every day for reading and for writing of a purely literary character.

Henry Irving can give a string of directions to the actors on the stage with him while moving his lips so slightly as scarcely to be apparent to the audience.
Oom Paul once determined that the people of Johannesburg should have at least two days' rest in each week. He issued a decree that no piano playing should occur on Friday or Saturday.

General Chaffee won his reputation and his success as an Indian fighter by meeting the Indian with his own weapons. He is deeply versed in the red man's life and customs and speaks several dialects fluently.

Thomas A. Edison's middle name is Alva, which is little known to most people. He is of Dutch origin, and the founder of the American family. John Edison, came to this country in 1737 and became a banker in New York.

Hassan Pasha has the reputation of being the richest man and the most corrupt man in the Turkish government. He is supposed to be worth $40,000,000 or $50,000,000, all of which he has acquired while in the service of the government.

Perry Belmont's annual club dues amount to nearly $2,000, and to matriculate in the various clubs to which he belongs costs him over twice as much. He manages to visit each of the twenty-four at least twice a year, but he has seen twice a week or so at a few.

Charles B. Littlefield, the Maine congressman, is a typical Yankee. Early Sunday morning when in Washington he may be seen striding to the capitol, where he knows that Page, the restaurant man, will have some fresh beans baked in the exact way New Englanders care for them.

WASHINGTON LETTER

[Special Correspondence.]

A building occupied less than three years already outgrown, an annual rental of over $28,000 for outside quarters, five divisions of his department temporarily established in buildings apart from the executive offices of the department and in many cases separated from their division superintendents, approximately one-half of the regular department quarters apportioned to other uses, a constant growth in the work of the entire department and corresponding increase in the number of clerks and an unprecedented enlargement of one particular bureau—these are the conditions which now confront Postmaster General Payne and compel him to plan for the construction of a new building for postoffice uses.

To this end he has continued in existence a commission of postal employees recently established to rent additional office space with instructions to estimate the cost of building an annex south of the present postoffice building. By the time congress convenes next winter the postmaster general will have prepared suitable recommendations for the obviation of many difficulties which now obstruct the work of his department.

Irrigation Field Work.
F. H. Newell, chief hydrographer of the geological survey, has gone to the western states for the purpose of making a preliminary investigation of the irrigation problem. The irrigation law passed by the last session of congress providing for the application of the proceeds of the sales of the public lands has devolved upon the survey the necessity of determining the location of the extensive reservoirs to be located under the terms of the law, and several engineering parties already have been sent out to do preliminary work.

Mr. Newell will have general supervision of the task. It is contemplated that the preliminary work shall be most thorough, and on this account it is not expected that the construction of any of the proposed reservoirs will be undertaken for a year or two. Mr. Newell expects to devote the entire summer to the work in the field.

Just Like Real War.
Secretary Moody is having more or less fun with the newspaper correspondents these days over the coming war game to be played off New York and Newport.

"Can't tell you a word about it, not a word," is his invariable reply to anxious inquirers for hints as to some of the plans. As a matter of fact, both the war and navy departments have already put the correspondents on their own resources, just as in time of actual war, and until it is all over they will have to suffer the hardships of uncertainty, together with the officers of both branches and the soldiers and sailors.

"Why not?" said Secretary Moody to a group of newspaper men. "You ought to take your medicine with the rest of us. And by the time your managing editors have sent queries by the score, cursed you for not sending news and threatened you with discharge you will find this mimic war is real hell."

To Test Wireless Telegraphy.
Preparations are being pushed to install a system of wireless telegraphic communication between Washington and Annapolis. Under the supervision of Professor N. F. Terry the 170 foot mast for the wireless telegraph station at the Naval academy has been placed in position. The pole is planted in a cement foundation eighteen feet deep and is anchored with four historic cannon, each weighing four and a half tons.

Tons of Papers.
The Winder building, at Seventeenth and F streets, and the Fox building, on New York avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets north-west, used by the war department for offices, are probably the most crowded places in use by the United States government.

In these two buildings there are on file military records of settlements with soldiers which have been collecting since the establishment of these offices in 1817 up to the present time. All of these papers have been placed on shelves and were recently weighed and measured by E. B. Rittman, auditor of the war department, and a force of assistants. Much to their surprise, it was discovered that there were ten miles and a half of shelving in these two buildings, containing records which weighed 240 tons.

Dredging Lower Potomac.
Colonel Allen, the engineer officer in charge of the improvement of the Potomac river, has reported to the war department that dredging operations at Smith's point, upper and lower shoals, is completed and that dredging is also completed at Mattawoman shoal, with the exception of the removal of two gravel bars. During the past month 13,826 cubic yards of material were dredged and deposited, completing a cut eighty feet deep through the upper hard bar. As a result of recent operations there is now a rolling depth of water of 21.2 feet at mean low tide in the channels of the lower Potomac.

The New Capitol Lawn Clipper.
A new automobile lawn mower is used for cutting the grass on the capitol lawn. It does the work in about one-third of the time necessary for a horse drawn mower. The new machine greatly resembles a steam roller and sounds in operation like a steamboat. It has no difficulty in negotiating all the hills and valleys and irregularities of the capitol lawn. The heavy rollers are declared beneficial because they crush down and kill the weeds while leaving the grass uninjured.

CERTIFICATE OF INSPECTION.

Laboratory of State Assayer & Chemist, Richmond, Virginia.

The following results were obtained in my examination of the Tivoli Hofbrau Beer, manufactured by the Robert Porter Brewing Co., of Alexandria, Va.:

Specific gravity, 1.0133. In 100 parts: Alcohol, 3.52 (in volume, 4.40); Malt extract, 5.50; Ash, 0.31 (original wort, 13.5).

Also tested for reputed adulterations of beer, such as salicylic acid, picric acid, borax, bicarbonate of soda, alum, chalk, etc., and none were found.

I find that it is pure and, in all respects, of excellent quality. It is unquestionable as a beverage, and I can sanction its use for medicinal purposes.
