A Rush to South Africa

Pungtin Sard

A rush of emigrants from Australia to South Africa has set in and is worrying the authorities of the common wealth of the southern seas. The Melbourne papers strongly deprecate the exodus, declaring that the emigrants are largely those whom Australia can least afford to lose-laborers, artisans, farm hands, etc. Applicants for permits to emigrate have to prove them selves possessed of a minimum of $100 The requirement, together with the expense of the voyage, is an obstacle to the poor la purse, but adventurous in spirit, who usually flock to gold countries. The result is that ships from Australia are suffering from a plague of stowaways. - New York Tribune.
