A hustardly Act of a Colored Man at Five Points,

The rare and succulent dish of baked wife was tried by a negro in the vicinity of Five Points yesterday afternoon and her screams and resistance brought the timely help of policeman Montague who was in the neighborhood, or there might have been a tragedy. He was in the act of thrusting the woman in the oven.

While up in that part of town Mr. Montague heard the cries of a woman in distress and when the trouble was located he secured the assistance of a man to catch the offender. Upon the officer's entrance the man escaped by a door not covered by the assistant and had got quite a little lead on his pur-

Mr. Montague followed him up Queen street to West street, along West to Cypress street, thence to a small pond where he gave up, only after three shots from the officer's pistol.

The man was arrested and will be tried today for murderous assault. The store though small was hot and would have burned the woman severely. He is a desperate negro and should be given a heavy punishment for his fiendish action.

MOONSHINE PLANT RAIDED.

United States Officers Babbitt and Jewell Make an Important Capture.

Deputy revenue collector, C. M. Bab bitt and deputy marshall H. W. Jewell made an important capture of an illicit still in Beaufort county yesterday morning. The whiskey plant though occupying but small space had a large capacity, and taking all things into consider ation the evidence thus gathered by the officers will help in the prosecution of the owner of the still if he is ever caught.

Tuesday night Messrs. Babbitt and Jewell spent the night near the town of Edwards and at six o'clock called at the house where Mrs. Tuten, the mother of Stephen Tuten, the notorious moonshiner lived and asked for the key to the barn. She directed them to John Tuten, another son, who very unwillingly surrendered the key. Two other men ac companied them to assist and act as witnesses.

Upon entrance they found a very ordinary condition of things, piles of cotton bagging and other articles on the floor as might be found in any barn. Removing these they found a trap door against them and as they had no large to think when we did the very same and opening that they found in a nicely made place were the much wanted ar-

> The outfit consisted of five worms, three stills and two cans The stills had a capacity of 200 gallons; one 80 gallon and the other two 60 gallons. They destroyed such parts of the plant as were too heavy to carry off or was not needed in evidence.

Stephen Tuten was the owner of this illicit misery producer and as has been said he is a thoroughly bad and desperate character. His nephew, known over a large territory as "Pig" Tuten is a prisoner in Washington, N. C. on the charge of murder, and Stephen who is alleged to be implicated in the murder is alfugitive. He is an old offender, having been a moonshiner for years. In December 1900, Mr. Babbitt made a raid of his place and captured 8,000 gallons

Protection Against Small Pox. EDITOR JOURNAL:-I have thought it useful to publish for the enlightenment of the community some statistics compiled by Dr. Marsden some years ago in reference to protection from small pox, given by vaccination. These statistics are based on an examination of 5,000 cases, and are reliable. Of unvaccinated cases of small pox patients 35 per cent died-stated to have been vaccinated but showing no cleatrix. 23.57 per cent. Vaccinated, showing one cleatrix 7.73 per cent. Showing two vaccine cicatrices 4.70 per cent. Showing three vaccine cicatrices 1.95 per cent. Showing four vaccine cleatrices 0.55 per cent. Having previously had small pox 19 per cent.

Dr. Marsden's observations extended over a period of twenty years and show further that of those cases exhibiting good vaccine marks, 2,570 cases, 95 died Of those exhibiting indifferent marks, 1,956 cases, 206 died. It is interesting to note that a larger per centage of cases died who had previously had small pox, than any class of the vaccinated, even those exhibiting indifferent marks. CHARLES DUFFY.
