

THE TOBACCO MARKET

A Little Stronger and Prices Are Settling.

The tobacco market is regaining its former good standing after several days of quiet.

Dealers report a growing and thriving business every day and breaks are held daily with prices which cause the farmers to smile as they stow away their little checks for future reference.

Among those who have sold their tobacco to the Planters Warehouse during the past few days are J. H. Koonce, Caesar James, M. H. Sultan, Aaron Ipeck, Charles Kees, Henry Edwards, W. A. McLachlan, Barrington and Wiggins, Israel Whitehurst, W. A. Newbold, H. T. Baker and Charlie Jones.

The Farmers Warehouse sold 10,000 pounds Tuesday and had another small break yesterday.

The prices paid are as good as at any time during the season and the farmers are satisfied.

ARAPAHOE.

Something About the Town With an Indian Name.

Oct. 22.—The name of our town shows that we have not altogether forgotten our predecessors, the Indians, but that we hold in reverence their memory.

Although we are giving the Indian due respect, yet we destitely want the outside world to know, that we are only holding to Indian name, and not customs. Now I am going to prove it.

Because in our town are two large mills, four mercantile establishments, four churches and a good preparatory school that can prepare any boy or girl for college.

Our people are an industrious people, and carrying with them honest faces.

Now if you ever imagined yourself in a progressive town with mill whistles blowing and academy bells ringing each day of the week; and on Sunday the zephyrs carrying with them the sounds of church bells, it was at Arapahoe.

Eddie Bray of Fortress Monroe is visiting his relatives this week.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Noah Bennett is soon to leave us, and take up his abode at Oriental. His friends wish him much success, and he leaves behind a score of them.

Successful Revival Services Ended. Personal.

Oct. 22.—Mr. J. Henry Davis of Beaufort passed this morning going to Harlowe.

Rev. E. L. Swain of Newport came down Saturday, enroute to Russell's Creek.

The revival meetings of the Free Will Baptist church at Russell's Creek have come to a close, there were some accessions to the church.

Rev. R. F. Dougherty has returned home.

Mr. Spruell of Vanceboro is prospecting here this week and we understand that he intends to purchase and make this his permanent home. We welcome Mr. Spruell as we believe he could not select a more healthful location.

We would advise that a referee be appointed for "Grit" and "Pluck."

GALILEE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Gave an Enjoyable Entertainment Last Saturday.

The Galilee Sunday School scholars met at the residence of the Superintendent, at nine o'clock Saturday morning where their teachers provided them with flags and sashes. They marched from there to the Christian church and were met there by the students, teachers and superintendents of several other Sunday Schools.

The assembly was called to order by the Superintendent. Scripture reading and prayer was followed by introductory remarks by Miss Sabree Wiley. Sixteen scholars gave valuable instructions in recitations. These were followed by a very interesting lecture on Truth, after which an excellent dinner was served by the visitors.

The afternoon exercises consisted of a parade under the red, white and blue, in which all the schools participated making a beautiful and inspiring sight.

The assembly were then given a lecture with illustrations on ten of the most interesting scenes from the Bible. Brothers C. L. Gaskins of the Antioch Sunday School and A. J. Gaskins of Kitt Swamp, and John A. Everington made some very helpful and practical addresses on Sunday School work.

The assembly was then dismissed by benediction by Rev. R. C. Wayne, ending one of the happiest days for the children of Galilee.

The Sunday School children of this place are engaged in a very good work by endeavoring to complete the building which is very badly needed. Their efforts should meet with a hearty response from all charitably disposed persons.

Happy Thought

ASKINS.

Oct. 23.—Mr. Richmond a tobacco buyer from New Bern was over Monday buying tobacco.

Mr. Isaac Barrington who has been very ill is improving slowly.

Rev. A. J. Holton filled his regular appointment at Kitt Swamp church Sunday. He preached to quite a large assembly.

Mr. Noah Dunn and family have moved to their new home near the foot of Neuse river bridge.

Don't forget the hat and shadow party at Mr. Jim Thomas' Saturday night. All are invited to come.

Straight Republican Ticket.

Jacksonville, N. C. Oct. 22.

Editor New Bern Journal.

In your issue of 17th Inst is published the following item, "Fusion ticket in Onslow." "Five Republicans and Populists meet here Monday and quietly put out the following ticket, etc.

This I pronounce to be incorrect. There is no Fusion ticket in Onslow. The Republican Executive Committee, composed of five Republicans, met in Jacksonville on the 18 of October and nominated a straight republican ticket.

TEARFUL OR CHEERFUL?

Whether a woman is tearful or cheerful depends not on what she has materially, but what she is physically. Many an indulgent husband is driven almost to despair by the tearful outbreak of a wife who has "everything she wants." He wants to know what the matter is. But the wife can't tell. She only knows that she is depressed and despondent. Such a condition is usually related to some form of womanly disease. The mental depression has its corresponding womanly weakness.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription changes tearful women to cheerful women by curing the diseases which cause physical weakness and depression of spirits. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Alice Adams of Laboratory, Washington D. C., Pa., says: "With many thanks I write to let you know how I am. I can say by God's help and your help I am well. I have taken six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and two of his Golden Medical Discovery, and I can do all my work. I can't praise your medicine too highly. I will recommend your medicine as long as I live. If any one doubts this give them my address."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Keep the bowels healthy by the timely use of Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

She Will Keep Her Word.

When Grandmother Pettigill makes up her mind, she is as firm as a rock. Nothing can move her. Perhaps it was on this account that when she returned from the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the settlement of Shilohville and made such a determined declaration nobody attempted to influence her.

"I've been there, and it's over with," she said, "and now I'll home safe after all the noise and fuss and scolded her and spoiled the children and men making speeches. I want to tell you one thing. I didn't go to another centennial in Shilohville, no matter what the circumstances are and no matter who asks me. You children may as well bear that in mind."

Misdeeds Sold by Auction.

A singular custom obtains in this day in some of the towns on the lower Rhode Island, that of "selling" misdeeds at public auction. For nearly four centuries on Easter Monday—auction day—the town clerk or clerk of St. Goar has called all the young people together and to the highest bidder sold the privilege of dancing with the chosen girl, and her only during the entire year. The fees are put into the public poor box.

A Serious Matter.

"So he's trying to live on other people's brains," said the publisher indignantly.

"What's the trouble? Has some one been stealing the ideas from your books?"

"I suppose so. But that's a minor matter. They're trying to coax away the man who writes my advertisements."—Washington Star.

His Conscience.

First Bohemian (to second ditto)—I can't for the life of me think why you wasted all that time haggling with that tailor chap and beating him down when you know, old chap, you won't be able to pay him at all.

Second Bohemian—Ah, that's it! I have a conscience. I want the poor chap to lose as little as possible!—Punch.

Base Ball Echoes.

Filman and Randolph have been reserved by the Schenectady team for the season of '03. Randolph was fourth in the batting averages of League with a percentage of .347. Randolph covered second for Schenectady. Filman also made a good impression as he was third in the standing of short-stops.

Our Devlin, and Weaver, late of Charlotte are in the reserve list of the Newark team.

Gettig and Childs are not included in the reserve list of the Shreveport team. Gettig pitched good ball down there, as he usually does, but he had hard luck.

Porsons, Brucker, Lehman, Osteen, Brothurs, Pastor and Soffel will remain with Shreveport next season.

Courtneen, late of Greensboro, also Rollins of Durham are retained by the Fall River club of the New York League.

Gray?

"My hair was falling out and turning gray very fast. But your Hair Vigor stopped the falling and restored the natural color."—Mrs. E. Z. Benomme, Cohoes, N. Y.

It's impossible for you not to look old, with the color of seventy years in your hair! Perhaps you are seventy, and you like your gray hair! If not, use Ayer's Hair Vigor. In less than a month your gray hair will have all the dark, rich color of youth.

"LIKE TAKING CANDY FROM A BABY."

Our purchase of Hamburg Edging and Insertion

In Gotham resides a number of benevolently disposed gentlemen, who devote a portion of their time to issuing "sure thing" tips on the races for a paltry QUID PRO QUO. Commenting upon one of these "good things" the tipster contended to cash such a bet was "like taking candy from a baby," so easy, yet without so mean.

On the same order though differing in degree, appeared our purchase of the exporter and manufacturer of Hamburg Edging and Insertion. To accept such an offer seemed "too mean for anything," yet, if we didn't others would; and were not our customers interest to be considered?

Hamburg Edging & Insertion
