NEW BERN, CRAVEN COUNTY, N. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1902.—FIRST SECTION.

NUMBER 62

50,000 MAJORITY

Is Forecast of Simmons, Daniels and Craige.

Negroes Not Registered on Account of Pritchard's Attitude Towards The Race. S. & W. Railroad. State Charter Fair Prizes.

RALEIGH, November 1.—Democratic State chairman Simmons was interviewed by your correspondent regarding the election prospect, and said: "In the legislature there will be only about 80 votes not Democratic. We will elect all our Congressmen. We will carry the State by from 50,000 to 60,000 majority. The whites registered better than expected. Full reports are not yet in from over half the counties. I have partial reports from nearly all. The negro vote will not be much over 8,000. The negroes as a rule did not ask for registration. There is a larger registration of negroes here in Wake and in Alamance than in any other counties. The negroes resent the way in which Senator Pritchard treated them. Hence they did not seek to register."

National Democratic Committeeman Josephus Daniels was present when these inquiries were made of the chairman, and his views were also asked. He said, "Mr. Simmons' figures are, I am sure, very correct. We will have 100 of the 130 members of the lower house, and we will have 45 of the 50 senators. We will carry the State by not less than 50,000 majority, and if there is a big vote we will carry it by a yet larger majority. We will elect all the Congressmen."

Locke Craige, who was also present, said his views coincided with those expressed by Messrs. Simmons and Daniels. He added, "I understand that no negroes registered in Scotland or Robeson counties, because none applied. I hear that this was also the case in several other counties."

As the facts regarding the work of pick-pockets at the State Fair get out they show that the aggregate losses must go into the thousands. After this detective from the north to take in these thieves on arrival will be a necessity. People here can do nothing with them.

Mrs. M. M. Marshall, wife of the rector of Christ Church here, is critically ill.

The negro State Fair will be held here next week. It is the 25th annual fair.

The corporation commission was today advised by the South & Western R. R., which is being constructed through Mitchell county by State convicts, that 27 miles are in operation and 13 miles more graded and ready for the rails and will soon be in operation. This road begins at the N. C.—Tennessee line and runs in a wavy route, following a valley to Neno on the Western North Carolina R. R. There it will cross the latter and run nearly parallel with it to a point near Morganton, where it will strike southward towards Littleton. It may be that the Seaboard Air Line is back of this road. It has "earmarks" which make it so appear.

A charter was granted today to the Warsaw Tobacco Warehouse Company, capital $25,000.

The prizes for apples shown at the State Fair at the apple show were sent to the winners today. Moses A. Cone of Watauga county won 11 first prizes and John Farrow of Haywood county won five first prizes.

The open season for partridges began today. It is said that birds are unusually numerous, as there was never a year more favorable for them.

The visitors to the fair poured out of the city today. They have had a happy week of it. The railway trains hauled about 40,000 and the street cars about 35,000 during the week. Both the trains and the electric company broke all previous records.

Special to Journal.

New York, Nov. 1.—Several large bets have been made with odds 2 to 1 in favor of Odell.

Merger of City Traction Lines.

Special to Journal.

New York, Nov. 2.—On account of Morgan's presence on change last week rumors are renewed in regard to the merger of the city railway with the Union Traction Co. and the issue of $15,000,000 bonds for the improvement of the property.

This is the same merger talked of last Spring.

The consecration of Father Charles Mohr as first abbot of St. Leo's Abbey in Florida will be celebrated Thanksgiving Day, at Belmont N. C.

OLIVERS.

Nov. 1.—People are being vaccinated here and some are sick.

Messrs C M Heath and Jacob Harper are on the road for a short visit with a merry good time and plenty of fish and oysters.

Otton is nearly all picked and crops are good, as good as can be expected but prices are low.

Mr F G Simmons had gone to the Raleigh fair. He went last Sunday.

Olivers (cross roads) looks like a new place. There has been so much paint used and also improvements.

Mr J D Heath is very sick from vaccination.

We are sorry to say Mr Tom House was buried at Olivers Landing last Sunday eve at 4 o'clock. His bereaved family have our most hearty sympathy.

Mr J C Parker yesterday was in your town.

Mrs. Columbia Ward spent most of this week at Trenton at her Daughters Mrs H R Parkers.

Market Letter on Cotton.

By private wire, J. E. Latham & Co.

New York, Nov. 2.—Being before a holiday there was more or less short covering. This usually takes place before a holiday and today more than usual, owing to frost predictions. Traders were afraid of killing frosts in sections where they have not occurred as yet, and an advance in prices Wednesday a. m. The few who were short bought and this turned the market from 8.24 for March to 8.25. The buying in December carried it from 8.20 to 8.27. Then in a few sales, the whole thing seemed to crash and December sold back to 8.23 and January 8.27. For a firm market this is not a good sign. The fact is the market is not a bull market. It may develop all sorts of strength later, but for the present it is not a good market, and we believe the reason is a simple one.

The manipulation in January has carried that month so far above other markets, that large blocks of cotton are being sold here by houses with Southern connections. The reason for this is an economic one, namely, that a man having goods to sell, sells in the highest market. About seven weeks ago Southern spots were 1 cent higher than now, and yet January here is now 10 points lower than today's price. This means that New York is attracting cotton from the South and we cannot advance until the South goes up on legitimate spot demand.

New York, November 1.—There are several things about the market that require thought. Bulls or those looking for higher prices may be able to explain them. To us they are ominous and we are frank to say signs of the times are not such as to encourage buyers. In the first place every firm in the market in connection with the south is selling for delivery in December. Today one of the most conservative traders in New York sold 5,000 bales against cotton offered him in the south. The action of the market, the price of southern markets, all indicate this sort of thing going on, on a large scale. We have had lots of bullish factors. The small receipts, killing frosts, etc., and even in face of all this the market goes lower. The market grows duller every day. The January premium and accumulation is such that conservative people will not trade in it. It will be remembered that this sort of thing was seen two years ago in the Spring of the year with disastrous results. Now we are in the midst of the crop movement. Three million bales only, of 107 of the crop having been moved and the same dollar prevail ing.

LAST GUESS

67000 Democratic Majority, Say Leaders.

Old Veteran Dead. Figures on State Crops. Governor's Last Speech at Goldsboro. Eastern Republicans Thought to Disappear.

RALEIGH, Nov. 2.—Dr. Duggan, an inmate of the Soldiers Home here died today, aged 61. He enlisted in Co. H, 4th N. C. Regt. in 1863 and in 1868 passed examination for assistant surgeon and was assigned to duty at the receiving hospital at Wilson. The latter part of the war he was on duty, as full surgeon, in the field.

The Democratic leaders estimate that the vote will be 3 to 1, and think about 60,000 votes will be polled, on which basis they look for about 67,000 majority if the vote cast is larger than the majority will, be correspondingly so.

The Supreme Court will devote this week to the hearing of arguments in appeals from the 11th district.

The funeral of George H. Snow was held here yesterday afternoon, from Christ Church. He died at Columbia, S. C., and the cause assigned was acute gastritis.

Weather Observer Van Herman has compiled some very interesting figures regarding crops in this State. The crop of cotton in 1899 was 459,707 bales. Robeson is the largest producing county. It made 27,157 bales, which is 6 per cent of the entire crop. Wake comes next with 74,380 bales, or 5 per cent of the crop; the third county being Mecklenburg with 24,248, and the fourth Johnston with 20,466. North Carolina that year produced 127,508,400 lbs. of tobacco. The largest tobacco producing counties are Pitt, 10,738,010; Rockingham 9,189,970; Nash 8,353,450; Wilson, 7,336,410; Stokes, 6,795,080 and Granville, 6,775,000. Then in order Franklin, Caswell, Greene and Person, each with other 5,000,000 lbs.

Governor Aycock made his last speech of the campaign at Goldsboro this evening. He will vote there and return here tomorrow afternoon. Private Secretary Tompkins left today for New Bern to vote, but will stop at Goldsboro to hear Gov. Aycock speak. Strange to say, he has never heard the Governor make a speech save that at his inauguration.

Auditor DIXON went to Cabarrus county today to speak, having been asked by wire to speak there.

A charter was granted today to the Carolina Land and Lumber Company of Moyock, Currituck county, capital $75,000, the largest stockholders being John Self and Edward G. Scheddler of Chilli-cothe, Ohio.

It is expected that this year the Republican vote will practically disappear in all that part of the State east of Raleigh.

A Captivating Soloist.

Miss Frances Boyden the brilliant coloratura soprano, who is appearing with such phenomenal success in her standard selections with Innes and his Band comes to the Masonic Opera House on Saturday afternoon Nov. 8. Her appearance everywhere is marked by a series of ovations due, not only to the beauty of her marvelous voice and her artistic singing; but, to crown it all, she has a queenly and so charming a manner that she captivates the hearts of her hearers.

Miss Boyden will appear as the leading soloist at the great Musical Festival at St. Louis, during the World's Fair, which will be under the direction of Mr. Innes. This festival will be the initial and greatest musical during the World's Fair, for which Mr. Innes has been especially engaged from among a great many competitors, to direct a chorus of 3000 male and female singers and an orchestra of 150 instruments.

New Bern's Charming Hospitality.
Sallybury, N. C. Correspondence in Clarion Observer, Nov. 2nd.

"The New Bern convention was the largest and handsomest ever held in the State. There were 100 delegates besides visitors. The meetings were held in the court house and everything was done by the New Bern chapter, citizens of the town, ladies, gentlemen, children, veterans, Elks and Mayor of the town, all for the pleasure, education and entertainment of the visiting delegates. There were three receptions, one luncheon, two dinners and an excursion and luncheon to Morehead and a sail out to the ocean. To live in North Carolina and not see New Bern and her cultured and aristocratic, heroic and brave people is not to live at all. We look forward to no distant day to see the general division convention held its session in New Bern, and there is an invitation when there is no other invitation for the State division to meet; the invitation stands open, 'Come to New Bern.' Too much cannot be said of the open-hearted hospitality to the Daughters on this occasion."

Burial of John Hutchinson.
The remains of John Hutchinson reached here yesterday morning from Wilson, accompanied there by James Thomas, and Messrs. Hutchinson, sons of the deceased. The funeral party was met at the A. & N. O. Hall by gentlemen here who knew the deceased, and who acted as pall-bearers, the services being held at the Cedar Grove Cemetery where the interment took place.

SWANSBORO.

Change of Ministers. Religious Services Big Shipment of Lumber.

Nov. 2.—Messrs. David Caston and David Aman of White Oak station, were visitors here last Sunday.

Rev O P Snow came in Saturday night and preached for us Sunday morning and evening. Bro. Snow is in the enlarging picture business and travels.

Rev I N Henderson of Hubert, filled the pulpit in the Baptist church on the 4th Sunday, ult., filling the place formerly held by Rev Mr Hobbs, of Falsom's, who so recently and sadly lost his wife here. Bro. Hobbs will not return to this charge again, so we learn, and we are very sorry for we all loved brother Hobbs much, as he was an excellent preacher, and we believe a good man and christian.

Rev J F Usey, of the M. E. Church Conference, is sent to this place again for the next year; he too is a good preacher.

Rev. A. J. Holton, Disciple, of Craven we believe, will, D. V., commence a short series of meetings here on Saturday night. Before the 3d Sunday in this month he will hold meetings in the brick store which will be fixed up for the purpose.

Also Rev. Mr. Elliott, of Boston, Mass. Unitarian Minister of note will hold a short series of meetings here to commence on the 4th Sunday night in November. Rev. J. G. Dukes of Burgaw, is expected to be with Rev. Elliott; they will preach in the brick store also.

Rev. F. S. Becton, our Methodist pastor here, will preach D. V., his last appointment for the year on the 2nd Sunday night in this month. We would like to have Brother Becton for another year.

The small pox scare worries some of our people, but we don't apprehend any danger, as our Dr. F. L. Blount has vaccinated the most of us, and we feel secure from that dread disease.

Mr. G. W. Ward, the Salter Path school teacher, came home last Saturday to be at the election, he will return Wednesday to his school. He visited Mr. K. N. Bell at Cedar Point, Carteret county as he came, and found Mr. Bell lively, though very low and weak, he hopes for the recovery of Mr. Bell, for such a man, comparatively young, and a very useful man too, would be missed sorely in the community. May the good Lord spare his life longer if it is his will to do so. His brother Mr. James Bell, of Petersburg, Va. is here now, nursing him. Dr. Sanders the attending physician, is giving him all the attention possible.

Mrs. Lena Morton Rogers, wife of Mr. Burkhead Rogers, of Culberth, and daughter of Mr. W. E. Morton and wife, near Swansboro, died last week after a few days illness at her home in Hubert, N. C., aged about 28 years, leaving one child. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved family.

Schooners Ben and John Russell and G. W. Anderson, three masters, all have cleared this port lately, one last Sunday, loaded with lumber from the saw mill here and bound to New York; they carried some 630,000 feet.

The new steamer launch built by the Lumber Co. is now about ready to launch Machinery all in. She is a "Daisy Bird."

The two huge boilers for the new mill have arrived and will soon be ready to be placed in position for work.

Swanboro is building up and somebody deserves much praise. We think it is Prettyman & Co. for the most of it. Come down and see the place, maybe you will not regret it, and then the rail road is coming don't forget, that fact will you're coming.

Before these items are in print the election of 1902 will be over, and somebody will be elected.

We predict the election of Captain Joseph Pigott to the Legislature in Carteret County.

VIRGINIA SWALLOWWORT.

Its Beautiful Blossoms Are Pittfalls For Bees and Bugs.

Honey bees and insects and bugs of less degree find pitfalls and often death in the beautiful blossoms of the milkweed, otherwise known as the Virginia swallowwort. If these flowers are examined on a sunny day, one will be pretty sure to find them decorated with a miscellaneous assortment of struggling or dead insects with their legs fast in the silks of the peculiar bloom. The pollen of this common plant, instead of being a powder, as in the case of most plants, consists of sticky, waxy masses hidden within the blossom. When a visiting insect thrusts a proboscis or leg into the opening of such a flower, some of these masses stick to it, and the natural course is for the insect to fly off to another flower and fertilize it with the adhering pollen. All insects, however, are not strong enough to extricate their legs from the sticky places, and then ensues the slow torture of hanging there until death or a helping hand releases them from misery. Besides being beautiful, it could be quite a useful plant if we cared to develop its virtues. Thus its milky juice contains cocoonthion. Brown sugar has been made from the flowers. The silky hairs of the seeds are serviceable in the manufacture of textile fabrics, as cotton is, and a fiber of good quality for ropemaking may be extracted from the stalk.

FOR PUBLIC HEALTH.

Ordinances Passed by Sanitary Board of Craven County.

In order that the citizens of Craven County, including the City of New Bern may know the exact health regulations passed by the Sanitary Board of the county, they are herewith published.

And in order that the public welfare shall be best served, it may be stated that these regulations will be rigidly enforced.

There is not a single regulation which should not be carefully heeded, certainly every good citizen will cheerfully aid in the enforcement of these regulations, which are as follows:—

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to harbor a person affected with small pox, or suspected of having small pox for the purpose of concealing same from health officer. Any person violating this regulation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined $25.00, or imprisoned 30 days.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to remove or transfer any person having small pox, or suspected of having small pox, to any other place, without the consent of the Superintendent of Health, or assist any such person to elude or escape the health officers. Any person violating this regulation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined $25.00, or imprisoned 30 days.

Section 3. Any person who willingly falls or refuses to report any person afflicted, or supposed to be afflicted with small pox to the Superintendent of Health shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined $25.00, or imprisoned 30 days.

Obeyed by the County Sanitary Board; that it shall be unlawful for any person or persons in Craven county, to refuse to be vaccinated when the County Superintendent of Health shall offer to vaccinate them, or when the County Superintendent of Health shall advise that such person be vaccinated. Any person violating this rule shall be fined not exceeding fifty ($50.) dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding thirty (30) days.

The London Silly Season.

"Always at the beginning of August," says Sydney Brooks, "the editor of each London daily casts about for a subject that will 'fetch' the great British public and fill the correspondence column, such as 'Is Marriage a Failure?' 'The Decay of Domesticity,' 'English Versus American Women,' 'Why Don't Young Men Marry?' 'Should Women Work?' or 'Are We Improvised?' A member of the paper's staff will write a letter to the editor opening the ball. Another member will reply to him. Instantly from Clapham and Brighton and throbbing provincial households there sets in a steady stream of letters—all genuine and argumentative earnest. It is a most curious phenomenon, such, I suppose, as no other country can show. For thousands of men and women these annual discussions would seem to be their one chance of really opening their hearts and minds to the world, and a very strange spectacle they make when opened, the minds especially. No one who really wanted to study England could ignore these debates. They throw more than a little light on the English character and the average English intelligence."

Hudnut's Agency at Davis'.
Davis Pharmacy has been very fortunate in securing the sole agency here for Hudnut's Fortunes and Toilet Preparations. Their quality is of such excellence and superiority that they are highly used by the discriminating elite throughout the country.

Mere Cheapness Does Not Pay.

There's no economy in it. There's no profit in it for seller or consumer. For one person who is hunting for job lots, side-tracked styles and shoddy make-shifts there are fifty who want the straight, reliable stuff at right prices. This store caters to your intelligence as well as your economy and cannot too often emphasize the wisdom of buying the best, the very best your means will afford. This kind of trading pays at both ends.
