GUARDING FOREST LANDS.

The government method employed of policing its forest reserves has proven a perfect success, so much so that timber depredations have about ceased.

The annual report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, shows that the public land disposed of by the Government during the year aggregated 19,488,585 acres, an increase of 3,925,739 acres over the previous year.

On October 1 last there were 54 forest reserves, embracing 60,175,765 acres, an increase of almost 14,000,000 acres since the last report. During the fiscal year there were 1668 forest fires discovered, which burned over 87,799 acres.

The constantly decreasing area burned ever is said to demonstrate the efficlency of the Government forestry force. The Commissioner says that the withdrawal of the Government during the year has shown that the work has proved self-supporting and has brought in a a revenue to the Government. Needed timber supplies have been placed within lawful reach of the public, and timber depredations within the reserve limits have practically ceased.

The government is also at; work in reforestation of the denuded tracts, in the forest reserves, and these tracts are may not be damaged by fires or stock grazing.

This work is showing for itself in the

AFTER ELECTION ECHOES.

Now that the election in this State is over, the remarkable disappearance from Republican columns, of the few register and vote, is a matter of surprise to even those well informed.

In this section the negro who voted the entire Republican ticket cannot be found. There were colored voters who cast partial ballots for their old political allies, but at precincts in Craven county, the entire colored delegation who were voters, threw in solid Democratic tickets at the polls.

So far as Republicans were concerned their loss at the ballot box was total, for the few colored voters given the franchise turned against them.

The result of this entirely changed colored vote, marks the political death knell of the "nigger domination" cry even with the few who have used it in the campaign just ended by the election on November 4th.

This political "slogan"ended with 1900 with the people in this section, a section formerlyso prolific in the political sensa tions, all ending with the demand for "white supremacy," and the acceptance ofthe colored voter in the result of the Amendment, is seen both in the indifference of the previous voter, who did not vote this year, and the colored voter who could vote, but who cast a ballot for the party which was his political

The change this year opens the way for marked political changes in the next npaign in North Carolina. It needs no prophetic vision to see this;

TIME FOR LOCAL AGGRESS SIVENESS.

There; has never been a time in the tory of New Bern, when there was so much actual need for aggressiveness upon the part of its citizens.

lumns of the Journal will be found facts and figures attesting both the growth and financial soundness of New Bern's banks.

This is a matter of congratulation, as is also the statements published showing the sums of money on deposit or bonds held in trust, by New Bernians.

But only a comparative few citizens can be bankers and bond holders. There is the majority of people who must work, and who must be given an opportunity to earn a livelihood.

The local workman or laborer must be provided with an occupation with at least living wages. Some will be satisfied with just a living, while the ambitious will seek another place where they can do better.

And employment of the local laborer, is most important in its effect upon the trade of the local merchant, and it is upon these two classes of citizens in this community, that this question of local aggressiveness is to be most seriously considered by those citizens who have the means and ability to promote such enterprises as can be profitably maintained, for both their owners, and the community as regards its wage earners and local merchants.

There is too much local satisfaction up on the part of those who are comfortably fixed, who accept the old jog trot of trade, without any attempt to develop new enterprises, or assist in putting some life into trade.

This local indifference is seen on many sides. It is seen in the slovenly kept side | calf's liver, put in a frying pan over walks and streets, thepropped up buildings, which ought to be torn down as nuis ances, instead of being held up to give the owners a few dollars rent.

This local indifference is seen in the do-nothing-policy of the chamber of fron and quinine in a tasteless form. No commerce, which instead of being alive cure-no pay. Price 50c. and aggreesively working for New Bern's welfare and interests, has done nothing'in many months

And in the mean while other places with less natural advantages are going shead, their citizens alive and aggressive for the advancement of every local interest, New Bern acts contented to plod along hardly in sight of the industrial rocession.

It is time for a change from this goplodding existence. There is a local aggressiveness needed, and at once.

AMERICAN SOCIETY.

sis, Whether We Deplore ignore It, Is Wealth.

"American society," says Ainsier's, "has been definitely established upon a monetary basis. We may deplore the fact, or we may ignore it, but it is a fact, and it is very much the wises thing to admit it with dispass frankness. For if we assume our social standards and conditions to be differ ent from what they really are, how are we going to study them and under stand them and get at their philos phy? From the point of view of a sci entific observer, the classification of everybody and everything according to a financial principle of division, is a good thing, for it greatly simplifies the whole subject.

"Formerly there was no classification of any kind. American life was a chaos, socially, full of all sorts of anomalies and incongruities. Every section of the country had its own standard of distinction, and this standard was recognised and respected no where else. Thus in New England lit erary, scholastic or theological emi was held to confer a certain eachet upon those who had obtained it In the microcosm of which Philadel phia used to be the center ancestry counted most of all. This was also true to some extent of the south, yet there, as in the west, political prom carried with it social leadership. New York-always more or less impossible to formulate-was a place where there existed social wheels within wheels and social planes that never touched though, on the whole, perhaps the combination of ancestry and money meant in those days what money alone means

RALEIGH, Nov. 7.—The State's side of in Philadelphia on the occasion of the the South Dakota bond suit was much 150th anniversary of the initiation of in evidence today, in the taking of testimony by special commissioner R. S. Bat tle. Among the witnesses were Gov. Aycock, Treasurer Lacy, Dr. J. J. Mott and Henry C. Cowles.

The State expects to prove that the Western North Carolina bonds, issued in 1867-8, sold for less than par and that they were not issued in accordance statutory requirements. It expects to show further that the State of South Dakota is in collusion with the holders of some of these bonds, and that State relief has been invoked for private ends. In all, principal and interest, something like $1,000,000 appears to be involved in the suit. President Joseph G. Brown of the
