Ping Pong Balls at McSorley's. Major Graham Daves. Resolutions by New Bern Camp, U. C. V.

Another Confederate Veteran has been called to rest; No longer can he record the sound of the bugle or of the ruck to arms.

He was in the prime of manhood in the days of 1861 and 1865, an educated christian man, who did not hesitate to offer and risk his life and property in the cause he loved.

He held a number of prominent and responsible positions, both in civil affairs and in the Confederate army, which he filled with fidelity and ability.

He added greatly to a general historical knowledge of his country, and contributed largely to the establishment of memorials of great events in North Carolina.

We honor his memory and drop a tear at his tomb. Major Daves was born in New Bern, N. C., on the 16th day of July 1836, and died in Asheville, N. C. October 27th 1902.

His remains were interred in the family vault in Cedar Grove Cemetery New Bern, N. C., the members of New Bern Camp United Confederate Veterans attending his funeral in large numbers.

The members of this Camp desiring to express their sorrow because of his death, and wishing to record his worth, and their loss hereby Resolved, That by the death of Major Graham Daves this Camp has lost a faithful, true, and honored member, and the Camp mourns because he has been taken away, and will ever revere his memory, that New Bern and his State have lost a patriotic citizen who never ceased in his devotion to their praise, and exaltation.

Resolved, That a proper record of the services of Comrade Graham Daves be made on the Camp memorials. That a copy of these proceedings be transmitted to Mrs. Mary McK. Nash, the sister of the deceased comrade, and that the New Bern Journal be requested to publish this memorial.

AROUND AND ABOUT.

Cotton sold on exchange yesterday at 7.30 to 7.05. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Turner of Philadelphia, are the guests of their brother, Mr. T. J. Mitchell. Miss Eugenia Mattingly left on the steamer Neuse to visit friends in Buffalo.

The new 13 cent postage stamp is in circulation. How many will brave misfortune by using it? Mr. Chas Case has been appointed baggage master on the A. & N. C. Shoo-fly, vice Mr. Bizzell promoted.

Friends of Mr. T. F. McCarthy will be sorry to learn that he is confined to his room with a slight attack of rheumatism. Work is progressing finely in the new saw and planing mill on the other side of Neuse river close to the County bridge.

News comes of the burning of the home of Mr. T. R. Kerr, the saw mill man, of Jacksonville, Friday morning. Mr. Kerr was absent in New York at the time.

The survey for the new Pamlico railroad, indicates that the road will cross Neuse river above the Pine Lumber Company's mill and touch the A. & N. C. road near the crossing of the macadamized road.

The New Bern Gas Company was putting in a new main yesterday to run up King street. Several new and commodious residences have been built on that street recently, that will be lighted with gas.

Mr. Jesse Pope took a short hunt over the Neuse yesterday for squirrels and birds and returned in the afternoon with his game bag well filled. It is said that squirrels are very plentiful this year.

Dealers say that the demand for soft drinks beats the record for this season of the year. Pepsi and Coca Cola still hold their popularity. The unusual warmth is the reason for this uncommon demand.

Lovers of the hook and line sport are taking advantage of the extremely warm weather by landing fine bunches of welchman, perch and jacks. One old man caught alone yesterday enough "goggle-eyes" to net him $3.75.

The colored football team of this city are trying to make arrangements to meet the strong team of Shaw University down here the first of next month. The local team is composed of heavy players and they think their chances are good for victory.

The trustees of the New Bern Academy should look to it that the trees on the campus are replanted this fall. The old trees there are dying and decaying very rapidly and it is a shame that so pretty a green should be allowed to go down through sheer neglect.

This November weather cannot be beaten. It is a favorite inquiry by the way of salute, "did you ever see such fine weather?" and truly it is fine. The days are warm and pleasant and the nights, well sleep just comes along without any trouble whatever.

Some of the finest oysters of the season were seen at the market dock yesterday. They were from Portsmouth and were "garden oysters," that is, they had been "barged" and allowed to get a full growth. They were indeed very large and the flavor was excellent.

The schooner Alverda S. Elzey arrived at Norfolk on Friday from this city. She has been sold to New Orleans parties and will be used in the mahogany trade in the Gulf of Mexico. She was built at Bethel, Del., in 1899. She is of 283 tons gross, 140 tons net, length 136 feet, beam 28 feet, depth of hold 8 feet 3 inches.

If one does not believe that there is a lot of building and repairing going on in New Bern, just try to hire a carpenter. It is almost impossible to get one to do a small job. Many people are working at the trade who never served an apprenticeship, but because of the scarcity of builders, they were slapsly impressed in to the work.

It is said that labor is exceedingly scarce on the farms, and what is secured is very unreliable. The farmers in planning for another crop would do well to take this labor problem early in consideration, and either provide themselves with labor-saving tools to work with or plant such crops as do not require much labor to cultivate.

Great disappointment was felt in this city last night when the news was received that Georgetown had downed the University of North Carolina by a score of 13 to 5. Friends of N. C. were quite sure of Georgetown's defeat as the V. M. I. team beat them 29 to 0, and N. C. did up the V. M. I. to the tune of 6 to 0. Such is football.

Manager Daniels has completed arrangements with the St. Paul foot ball team of Beaufort to be here on Thanksgiving Day to tackle his strong team. St Paul was defeated last year by the local team and the visitors are coming with the determination to wipe out their defeat of last year. A great game is expected.

The Journal is in receipt of a letter from Mr. J. J. Tolson, Jr., a former New Bernian, who some time ago removed to Oklahoma Territory. Mr. Tolson has been living at Shawnee, Oklahoma Territory, which is a thriving town of ten or twelve thousand inhabitants, but will shortly remove to Ada, Indian Territory. Mr. Tolson gives a good and entertaining account of his new home.

The city authorities are straining every effort to rid the town of a nest of disagreeable colored females. These offensive creatures parade the streets and make nuisances of themselves, both day and night, using all kinds of vile language, and are sometimes very ragged and unclean looking. SOME SOCIAL TRANSACTIONS.

A Short Story on the Doings of Society Lately. When the visiting Daughters of Confederacy left New Bern after their convention a number of them thought that the New Bern ladies had entertained them so lavishly that they would not care to go into the little details that go to make social life enjoyable.

Value in Vaccination. In a conversation with Dr. Charles Duffy, the Journal learns that the small pox cases which have resulted fatally in Craven county have been of persons who were not vaccinated, these cases being bad types of the disease.

Dr. Duffy says that in cases of those coming in contact with the disease, and those having the disease, the value of being vaccinated is noticeable in every instance.

Ask your lawyer about "Fewer gallons; wears longer." J. J. Baxter will do you good on clothing, hats and shoes. When you buy of him you will get your money's worth or it will be refunded.

Death of Editor Herbert. W. S. Herbert, editor of the Kingston Free Press died at his home in Kingston on last Sunday, November 16th, never rallying from the apoplectic stroke with which he was stricken a few days before his death.

In the death of W. S. Herbert Kingston and its people lose a man who had ever their interest at heart, and who has been their champion for every measure that seemed to him to be for his town.

The Free Press was distinctly its editor, and its columns were always filled with encouragement to the Kingstonians to push ahead. His death is a severe loss, as it removes a man who was ever ready to forward any interest which looked to the material benefit of his townsmen.

All that was mortal of W. S. Herbert was borne to Beaufort, last night, where the interment takes place.

The Ladies will do well to see J. J. Baxter for a fine cloak, shoes, dress goods, gloves, notions, etc.

Good Tobacco Week. Farmers have disposed of most of their tobacco but small jags keep coming and increase the amount in the ware houses. Friday 13,000 pounds were sold at the Farmers and there have been breaks every day this week.

The tobacco crop this year has been by far the most profitable the North Carolina farmer has raised. It exceeded the largest expectation of the most sanguine farmer.

A Good Showing. A splendid and most gratifying report read by Mrs. John Dunn, treasurer of the Church Fence Fund for Circle No. 1 at the meeting at her home, Tuesday, Nov. 13th.

The ladies wish to thank those who have given so generously and willingly to the fund. Two hundred and fifty dollars have been subscribed with others to hear from. One hundred dollars of church donations were put in the National Bank, Nov. 1st.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of. A Dancing Class Soiree. A very enjoyable dancing party was held at Lowthrop Hall Friday evening.

It was a soiree in which the members of Mr. Mark Stevenson's dancing class were the principal participants. Following are partial list of names of the couples who attended.

Holleman, Miss May Moore; Albert Patterson, Miss Catharine Pace; Albert Willis, Mary Emma Street; Adolph Nunn, Miss Hattie Marks; Joe Fulford, Miss Mary Gulon; Ellis Williams, Miss Addie Claypoole; Ed. Street, Miss Sophie Whitford.

Successful Hunting. Mr. John Dunn and Mr. George Nicol returned yesterday from Havelock, where they had some good sport deer hunting. Mr. Dunn brought in a fine peg-horn buck as a result of his marksmanship.

Mr. Edgar Bryan also brought in a nice yearling buck which he killed not far from the city. Eastern North Carolina is verily a hunters paradise. Every day our local sportsmen return laden with birds, turkeys, squirrels, deer and other game. Even bears are sometimes captured.

Women in Finland. The women of Finland of the lower classes perform arduous labor that in other countries is usually assigned to males. They wheel handcars and barrels of various descriptions containing heavy burdens. They also sweep the streets, act as hostesses and even assist in leading ships.

Starch. In 1833 Phillip Stubbes inveighed with great energy against the use of starch, which he called "the devil's liquor."

New York's Great Hotels. According to the Dry Goods Economist, the number of rooms now afforded by New York's hotels of the first class is Fifty-ninth street exceeds 12,000, and these hotels represent an investment of $100,000,000.

MAN ABOUT TOWN.

Food for Reflection Prepared by an Amateur Cook. Last week the finger of scorn was pointed, not unjustly, to a minister of the gospel who had grievously sinned and whose sin had found him out. Never was there a clearer example of the frailty of human flesh. It was a case where there was but little charity bestowed; perhaps that was natural but still we must not forget that the Divine Master forgave a sinner. The cloak of charity is a garment that will be needed by all of us sooner or later in this life.

It is not my purpose to condone the sin but those not friendly to the ministerial profession will say in defense of their position that the minister was not worse than all other preachers and they will cite here and there instances where ministers have "fallen by the wayside" and make those isolated cases stand for the whole profession.

This is unjust, as unjust as it is so say that all merchants are dishonest or all doctors are quacks. To be sure there are men who assume the right to stand in the pulpit and exhort to holiness who themselves are unworthy of such a calling. It is easy to place the blame let it be put where it belongs.

A good many years ago a very wise man said there was nothing new under the sun. If old Sol had lived in this strenuous 20th century he would have to reverse his decision. It's a cold day when something new doesn't turn up. I give up in despair to mention all the new things that happen, but will mention one.

The means of prayer as security against imprisonment in place of bail is the new method adopted by a police official of whom I read recently. It seems that a decrepit old man was brought before his nife, the chief, and the unfortunate condition of the man seemed to touch a tender spot with the chief. Inasmuch as the offense was trivial, the chief thought of the novel way of making the man pay.

The old man got down on his knees and made a prayer and he didn't forget the chief in his supplicated. The remainder of the story was commonplace the old man was released and appeared all on time the next morning for trial.

Arrested by New Bernian. James Larkins, colored, 30 years old, and employed for a short time at the Champion Compress, was arrested Thursday night by Deputy Sheriff James E. Holton, on a capias from New Bern, where he is wanted for forfeiting a bond in the Superior Court. Deputy Sheriff B. G. Credle, of New Bern, arrived yesterday and took the negro back with him in the afternoon.—Wilmington Star.

Violated U. S. Statute. Susan H. Manly, colored, was before United States Commissioner C. B. Hill yesterday for violation of revised U. S. Statute, section 2393.

The plaintiff in the action was Jennie Parker, also colored, who received a letter from the Manly woman containing language indecent, lewd and obscene.

The defendant was bound over for $100. for her appearance at the next term of the United States Court.
