

Don't Treat Symptoms

Go after the cause. Stimulants and cathartics will never cure indigestion. They temporarily relieve the system but the next meal clogs it again. The food should be digested. The nourishment—health—strength it contains should be appropriated—absorbed by the system.

Children Thrive on Kodol

KODOL purifies, cleanses, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. This new discovery digests all classes of food and assists the stomach and digestive organs in assimilating and transforming it into the kind of nourishment that is taken up by the blood and fed to the tissues throughout the various organs of the body. Kodol cures indigestion and dyspepsia, thus removing the cause of all stomach troubles. Kodol gives such strength to the body that it is invaluable in all wasting diseases.

"I wish to thank you for what Kodol has done for me," writes Clifton Gilman, Collet, Ind. "I could not get any sleep after evening meals had failed. When I tried Kodol it helped me right away. I cheerfully recommend it."

Kodol Digests What You Eat. Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The 10 bottles contain 2 1/2 times as much (by actual weight) as the famous Little Early Risers which sell for 50c.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the famous Little Liver pills for biliousness or constipation. Get a box, take them. They ever give.

CHURCH AND CLERGY.

Bishop Clark of Rhode Island, ninety years old, is the oldest bishop of Anglican communion in the world.

The Rev. Charles A. Trotman, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, St. Louis, is also a practicing physician, having regular office hours during the week.

Rev. Wilson Carlisle, the noted London minister, has introduced moving pictures into his church service and furnishes all persons hearing it with a free cup of coffee as they leave the church.

Mr. Thornburg has resigned as a clerk in the Rock Island railroad office to become rector of Trinity Reformed Episcopal church in Chicago. He fitted himself for the ministry by night study and for eleven years has devoted his spare time to his ambition.

If you are illious and seeking advisers, Take DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Just before going to bed. You will find on the morrow, You are rid of your sorrow—That's all; just enough said.

These famous pills do not grip, but move the bowels gently and easily, cleansing the liver. Their tonic effect gives strength to the glands, preventing a return of the disorder.

USEFUL COOKING HINTS.

- Here are some good hints for the housekeeper:
- To be cooked in a very hot oven: Pastry.
- To be cooked in a moderate oven: Poultry, game.
- To be fried slowly in hot fat: Chicken, pork chops.
- To be saute in hot shallow fat: Fish, omelets, sliced ham, eggs.
- To be cooked in a hot oven: Beef, fish, omelet, mutton, breads, soups, lamb, cakes, pudding.
- To be fried quick in boiling fat: Soft shell crabs, fritters, oysters, croquettes, scallops, fritters, potatoes.

The General recommends Mystic Cure For Rheumatism.

Gen. John Ludwig, of Winona, Minn., says "I contracted Rheumatism during the Civil war, and have used almost every preparation known for its cure, and have also taken treatment at different hot springs. I am pleased to say Mystic Cure for Rheumatism is the only medicine that has given me immediate relief. I gladly recommend it to all sufferers from Rheumatism, Sciatic or like ailments. No medicine that I have tried are anywhere near its equal."

Held by T. A. Henry, Druggist, New Bern.

Gift in the Eye.

A useful hint was given the other day by a physician who removed a piece of grit from a patient's eye. The accident had occurred at the beginning of a railway journey lasting some hours. "Another time when you are troubled with grit in the eye," said the doctor, "don't attempt to get it out, but just cover the eye with your hand to keep it closed and blink away as hard as you can with the other till the grit is dislodged. This hint was given to me by a commercial traveler and boy. It acts in more than I can tell you, but it does, and is all that matters to the sufferer."

Escaped Serious Injury.

Mr. M. E. Whitehurst, night before last, met with an accident that fortunately was not serious. While making his way home, and reaching the corner of New and Craven streets, he started across to the opposite corner where he resides, when his foot crashed through a defective and rotten aqueduct which passes under the sidewalk. These old drains are covered with wooden boards, and in this instance it was observed that only very thin, one inch boards were used. These were very rotten at the time of the accident, the electric light was out. Mr. Whitehurst, whose sight is very poor, was fortunate to not have been hurt seriously.

A Vigorous Settlement.

One Mr. Adams from Core Creek, who is in the City yesterday, and after imbibing freely of strong waters, decided to ride. Engaging a transfer he proceeded to take in the town.

He finally ordered the driver to take him to Mr. McDaniel's store on Broad street, where he proposed to settle for his ride. The driver, waiting a while, approached his passenger, who inquired if he wanted his pay, and receiving an affirmative answer, Adams paid by slugging the old driver in the eye two or three times, inquiring of the stricken man if he was satisfied with the pay.

Mr. Lepton took the wily Adams under his wing and bore him to the City Hall where $2.75 more was demanded in the way of settlement. Fifty cents being the amount of Adams' ready cash, he was entertained the night at the City's expense.

Bradfield's Female Regulator

AROUND AND ABOUT.

A new electric light has been placed at the corner of Metcalf and South Front streets.

A long felt want has been supplied in the placing of a street lamp at the intersection of East Front and Queen streets.

The baggage car on the Shoo Fly train of the A. & N. C. road, jumped the track yesterday evening while the train was being made up, but was replaced in time to leave according to schedule.

Work on the residence of Mr. W. B. Blades, at the corner of Middle and Johnson streets is progressing very rapidly. The building will be about the finest in the city. The style of architecture is an entirely new feature here.

"Not Much" is the name of an eight page, five column paper recently started at Washington, N. C. The Editor is to be congratulated on the unique name as it will require "Not Much" gray matter to fill its pages.

Several coups of geese were seen being hauled around town yesterday. Geese are always in good demand among our Hebrew citizens, and many gentiles' appetites are delighted with a nice, fat, baked goose. They sell for a pretty high price.

The place of the trial of James Wilcox, the alleged murderer of Nellie Cropley has not yet been named. As public sentiment is against him in Perquimans and Chowan counties as it is in Pasquotank it is doubtful if it will go to either. Bertie county may get it.

The negro boys who congregated at the A. & N. C. station about train time, are a great nuisance and should be driven away. Yesterday, oaths were heard to issue from some of them that would have shocked the sensibilities of a hardened sailor.

It is suggested that the citizens have the leaves swept off the sidewalks in front of their residences, which will give the street hands an opportunity and time to fill up some of the bad ruts and holes that discommode travel. This is a good suggestion for consideration.

Forty thousand birds were killed recently on the North Carolina coast for millinery purposes. They were mostly sandpipers. A society of ornithologists recently met in Philadelphia where this report was made. More strict laws regarding the killing of song birds are needed.

Cyrus Dixon, the murderer, who escaped from the Jones county jail some time ago has been seen in the poconin swamp near the scene of his crime. A man going through the swamp came upon him accidentally and Dixon covered him with his gun and told him to "git." The man "got."

The A. & N. C. people had a kind of house cleaning yesterday, that is, as far as the baggage room was concerned. A number of old trunks, valises, suitcases, carpet bags, boxes, bundles of old paper, maps and other plunder which has been accumulating for years, were seen piled up on the platform. It will probably be sold at whatever it will bring.

The motor-cycle belonging to Mr. L. M. Edgerton, the bicycle man, cast often be heard rushing over town at nights. The machine is a fine piece of mechanism, and seems to work very satisfactorily. It is capable of great speed, but can be stopped almost instantly by the rider. It makes considerable noise, and can be heard further than seen.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from Rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50c. at U. D. Bradburn drug stores.

An General Button.

"This collar button is my own invention," said the street fakir, "and the name I have given it is 'Fault.'" "Because everybody has faults" suggested the red-nosed man in the crowd.

"No, my dear sir; simply because it's so easy to find."—Philadelphia Press.

CASTORIA.

Canada has most holidays of any British colony. Including Sundays, Canadians have ninety-five holidays yearly.

Smokes Bill.

The world now consumes 6,300,000,000 pounds of tobacco yearly, or 2,812,000 tons. This is worth $300,000,000. In other words, the world's smoke bill is just $5,000,000 a week.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mother's and grandmother's never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took, when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other ills. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing so good for the matter with you. You can get the reliable remedy at your druggist. Price 25c. and 75c.

Thanksgiving Dinner.

Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repeated attacks inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach, producing a swelling after eating, heartburn, headache, sour risings and finally castor oil for the stomach. Kodol relieves the inflammation, protects the nerves and cures the castor oil. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing and sweetening the glands of the stomach. P. S. Duffy.

FLIGHT OF THE SNIPE.

Its Dodging Comes From the Ancestral Method of Avoiding Foes.

The flight of the snipe is swift, vigorous and usually for the first few yards erratic. The bird gets under way smartly, and as a usual thing goes forward up wind in a style rather suggestive of a feathered corker. A series of electrical zigzags get him to top speed, whereupon his progress steadies a bit and he darts away in something more like a straight line. As a general rule a flushed bird springs a few feet into the air, hangs for the fraction of a second, then begins to twist and dodge as though the Old Boy was at his tail. It would be very interesting could we discover the original cause of the dodging. Possibly some ancient foe, now long extinct, was bested by that mode of flight, for there usually is some such explanation for peculiar actions by wild things. Because the flight happens to be puzzling to a gunner is no guarantee that the bird dodges for that purpose—such an explanation would imply a deal more intelligence than the entire tribe of snipe are possessed of. Snipe, of course, dodged on the wing long prior to the appearance of firearms, and it is extremely unlikely that the erratic flight has anything in the nature of protective tactics against the devices of human foes.—Edwyn Sandys in Outing.

A Plea For Leisure.

Individuals will rather helplessly reply to a plea for leisure by saying: "What are we going to do? Competitors 'bustle' and we must do the same or starve." Some will urge that the American temperament demands constant occupation, that "bustling" is our national trait. Well, I have no desire to insist that we go back to stagecoach days. But all of us have plenty of opportunity to toss down a little. And why not try it? A national trait may be dangerous as well as useful—may need control. If the average individual would make more leisurely use of his leisure there would not be nearly as many cases of nervous prostration as there are now. Put on the brakes a bit. Take things a little easier when you can. I know people who are never content unless they are "doing" something. Such abnormal desire for activity is not natural; it is an unnatural craving. It will be well for us not to be so eager to gratify it.—Great Round World.

A Man of Steady Habits.

It was a very angry man who met an acquaintance on the street the other day. "I thought you told me that D. was a man of steady habits," were his first words following the usual salutation. "I said I required a man of steady habits, and you were very positive in your assurance that the man in question was such a one." "Well, has he proved otherwise?" "Why, man, he is drunk all of the time; in fact, I do not think he has taken a sober breath since he has been with me."

"Then what are you jumping on me for? Your own statement bears out what I told you about him. I have known D. for the past ten months, and I know that he has been drunk during all of that period, and if that isn't being a 'man of steady habits' I'd like to know what it is!"—New York Times.

Some Satisfaction.

"You have built fine residences in various parts of the country," said the austere friend, "you have caused sparkling fountains to play and beautiful gardens to bloom, but can you honestly say that the world is any better for your having lived in it?" "Well," answered the millionaire humbly, "I don't know that it actually is any better, but I think I can claim that it looks a little better."

More to Follow.

"Well," said the lady who was endeavoring to give the widow consolation on the way home from the cemetery, "the worst is over now." "I'm afraid not," answered the afflicted one. "The lawyer says there's a bad flaw in one of the insurance policies."—Chicago Record-Herald.

BOUND HAND AND FOOT

With muscles drawn and throbbing with pain, and joints swollen, stiff and tender, the rheumatic patient is as helpless and dependent as bound hand and foot. No disease causes such intense suffering, such sharp, nerve-racking pains as Rheumatism, and this unfeeling monster, unless checked, crushes the strength and hope of its victims.

When the system becomes infected with Uric Acid and other like poisons they are absorbed into the blood and lodged in the muscles, joints and nerves. Then with the suddenness of an electric shock, pains begin to shoot through the muscles and joints, affected, which often swell and inflame, and becomes tender, feverish and sore. Unless treated through the blood Rheumatism grows steadily worse, finally ending in shrunk muscles, immovable joints, shaky nerves, and the invalid's chair or crutches. The cure of Rheumatism can never be complete or permanent until the acid blood has been purified and the system cleansed of all poisonous matter. S. S. S. does this promptly and surely, because it is a perfect blood medicine, and an antidote for the irritating acids that cause Rheumatism.

S. S. S. purifies and invigorates the polluted, stagnant blood, and when a free, healthy circulation is again established, the gritty, corroding particles are washed out of the aching unworked joints, and the system is relieved of the cause of the pain. S. S. S. is permanent because the cause has been removed and nothing remains in the blood to produce another attack.
