THE IMPRESS OF INDIVID-UALITY.

However great the world may be in Its development and growth, leaving no apparent room for the impress of the individuality of a single man, which shall arrest attention, there are times when such an individuality stands forth, to attract and claim the admiration, respect and love of mankind.

Such a character the world sees today in Pope Leo XIII.

In the approaching death of this truly great man, the entire world has taken a personal interest.

The life of Leo XIII is worthy of all attention, for it has been one of high spirituality, the keeping alive for over ninety-three years of a weak physical nature, by a strict observance of human laws, controlled by a mentality which held in supreme check the physical.

The reverence of the Protestant world for Pope Leo, is no less sincere, but of a different character, than the reverence paid him by Catholics, as the great head of Catholicism.

It is not as the Pope, but as Leo the man, which the world outside of his church, admires and reveres.

It is the individuality of his impress upon his age during the past quarter of progressive development and civilizaa century, the commanding gentleness of tion of the twentieth century, and an demeanor, a breadth of intellect, and a spirituality approaching sublimity, which stamps greatness upon the name and character of Pope Leo.

The head of a great religious organifor his leadership.

And almost equally important, the impress of his individuality makes itself felt for good upon the entire world, through the pure and upright personal life Pope Leo has led.

But in Pope Leo's death is seen not a release from the burden of error and effort, but the successful overcoming of the world's burdens, an illustration of how possible it is for man in his weakness to gain a strength and create a personality and individualism, which death itself cannot end for its lasting benefici-

It is the impress of the individuality of the Leo, the Man, human, yet spiritual, which today commands the reverence of the civilzed world.

COUNTRY ASSESSED VALUA-TIONS AND LABOR SHORTAGE.

In placing country property under the new assessment plan of valuations, an important point has been raised in this county, and no doubt in many others, also, how can the valuation of a property be increased, if its productive capacity is decreased through want of la-

Country lands to the farmers are not speculative holdings, they are held for their productive ability, and the farmer is richer or poorer each year as crops are raised and marketed, with profit or at s loss, and he is no gainer because surrounding influences have increased prop erty values, for he is not going to sell his land

With the labor shortage taken into onsideration, to increase tax assessments upon lands which cannot be worked, does not look just, for even upon the old tax valuation many farmers who cannot secure help, will find it difficult to make anything from their farms

Pepys on Copyright. Samuel Pepys in his famous diary den himself thus:

"Moreover, I am overbourne with Grief, seeing that I, who must fain withstand bickerings at home and banter abroad in my walks from Seething Lane to the Navy Office, receive no gain from the publickation of this my Diary. My pouch is in no wise enriched thereby; yet many, methinks, do ride in fine coaches and keep open house by reason of my unconsidered Book, all so simple and innocent. It galls me to be told by my attorney (a shrewd knave and fairly honest as attorneys go) how this law of Copyright holds me powerless to gain a ducat for mine own enrichment, which makes me mad. The parliament men might well consider to emend so harsh a law of Copyright."

Stropping a Hasor. A correspondent of the Scientific American thus describes his method of stropping his razor: "Every one knows that metal expands with heat. A New Kind of Tax.

The taxing of fat is a fiscal expedient which is new. A town in Sweden, it is announced, has introduced a municipal tax on stoutness, which appears to be graduated according to the most approved modern principles of public finance. Any one weighing less than 135 pounds goes free, an exemption which would scarcely apply to any ablebodied man. The great bulk of active taxpayers would be included in the second division, which consists of person scaling between 135 and 200 pounds they pay $3.12 yearly. As for the 200 pounders, their bulk is rated at $6 up to 270 pounds. Above that point every nal twenty pounds costs the proprietor of flesh another $6.
